

Descendants of Stephen Hamlyn I

Generation 1

1. Stephen¹ Hamlyn I was born in 1607 in Devon, England. He died on 23 Aug 1665 in Charles City County, Virginia, USA (Middle Plantation). He married Agnes Margaret Powell on 05 Sep 1634 in East Riding, Yorkshire, England (this marriage ended upon his death 1665). She was born in 1614 in East Ridding, Yorkshire, England. She died in 1718 in Jamestown, James City County, Virginia, USA.

Notes for Stephen Hamlyn I:

By compiler:

The name Hamlin and it's various spellings can be found in England as far back in history as William the conqueror. Prior to that, the name is also found in Saxony as well as France. A discussion of these early Hamlins, can be found in the History of the Hamlin Family by H. Franklin Andrews 1894, and again in House by the Water - Twelve Generations in Virginia, By Griffith Askew Hamlin 1993. The arrival of Stephen Hamlin in Virginia is thought to be about 1634. While no specific records exist to document his arrival, there are numerous records to indicate his presence in the James River area of Virginia from 1638 until his death about 1655. He acquired large tracts of land from the government through head right assignment in the Middle Plantation area. Land grants in 1638, 1642 and 1650 total 1900 acres. His widow, Agnes acquired an additional 1400 acres on 29 Mar 1666 after Stephen's death. In addition to being a wealth landowner, Stephen was active politics. He was a Burgess representing the Charles City Council and a County Commissioner or Justice of the Peace. Stephen's estate was administered by his wife, Agness. Court records for her administration assignment are dated 23 Aug 1665 establishing an approximate time frame for Stephen's death. Robert Bolling Batte lists Stephen's birth as about 1610, his wife's given name as Agness, and his death before 23 Aug 1665. These documents also list five sons and two daughters with married names only. This limited information is presented for this family with the qualification that more research is needed to document specific lineage. Of note is the definite lack of military records for this Hamlin male as well as many male members of successive generations. This would seem to be in keeping with the Quaker records documented for Stephen and Agness's probable descendants in the middle to late 1700's.

By Mary E Stoll:

Stephen Hamlin was born in England and emigrated to Virginia circa 1637.(1) He patented land at Middle Plantation in 1637.(2) The following excerpts from Virginia Patent Books indicate how Stephen acquired much of his huge land holdings. On 25 Feb 1638, a patent was issued to Stephen Hamblyn for 250 acres in Charles River County on Queen's Creek adjoining Richard Popely and from the lands of the said Popely east upon a marsh towards the Pallisadoes. The said land due to the said Hamblyn for his "personal adventure" and for the transportation of John Dixon, Oliver Jueke, Elizabeth Marmore and one negro. On 17 Nov 1642, Stephen Hamblyn was granted 400 acres in the county of York at the head of Queen's Creek, west side of Mill Swamp, adjoining land of Captain Popeley, and due to the said Hamblyn for the transportation of Richard Oliver, Benjamin Pillard, Ambrose Bowly, Jon Harrison, Tho Buller, Tho Hynde, Sarah Bennett and Robert Tarbrooke.(3) On 26 Oct 1650, Mr Stephen Hamelin was granted 1250 acres in Charles City County, Lyeing at the head of Weyonoke bounded S upon the heads of Wionoke, E upon Matshcoes Creek and the land of Mr Cantrell, W towards Old Man's Creek and Queen's Creek N. Due said Hamblin for transportation of 25 persons: Jon Ray, Henry Rice, Anth Chandler, Wm. Pylor, Wm. Choldnedge, Richard Arundell, Tho Mason, George Haynes, Samll Parry, Thos Powell, Peter Mason, Wm. Hurt, Tho Howell, Samll Goodwin, Thomas Harris, Robert Taylor, Tho ap Richard, Jonas Alpott, John Woodson, Edward Buckingham, Robert Fryth, Gab Robinson, Clement Whidow, Robert Crouch, Edward Thruston. (4) Another reference stated: On the 26th of Oct, 1650, Stephen Hamlin was issued in Charles City County, Virginia, a patent on 1250 Acres, "lying on the north side of the Flower De Hundred Creeke bounded north on the land purchased by Mr Pace, South upon the Flower De Hundred Creek."(5) Stephen Hamelyn, 1400 acres, Charles City Co, 29 Mar 1666: Granted unto Mr Stephen Hamelyn, dec'd. lately found by inquisition dated 3 Nov 1665 under the hand and seal Hundred Creeke of Mr Henry Randolph, by virtue of deputation from Col. Miles Cary, Escheator and now granted. Provided that the Widow & Relict of saidd Stephen Hamelyn, Dec'd be no way prejudiced in her thirds and that she enjoy the same in as full & ample manner to all intents & purposes as any other widow of his Maties (Majesties) natural born subjects by the lawes of England or this country may or can enjoy the same as if the land had been escheated.(6) The date of the death of Stephen Hamlin, the immigrant, can be determined to be previous to 23rd of Aug, 1665, for on that date administration of his estate was granted to Agnes Hamlin, his widow.(7) Besides being a land owner, Stephen represented Charles City County in the House of Burgesses in 1654 and in 1663.(8) Also, Stephen was a Justice of the County Court of Charles City County in 1655.(9)

(1) According to material in the Virginia Historical Association, Richmond, VA, three Hamlin brothers landed at Barnstable, MA, in 1635. Charles settled in Boston; William went to what was then Mexico; and Stephen patented land in Virginia in 1637. It is not known whether the material cited above is correct or not. Much of the early printed history of the Stephen Hamlin family was not documented. In the late 1900's, more and more legal documents of early America have been rescued from the dusty storage areas and have been made available to the public. Thus, many traditions have been discredited, while some others have been proven correct.

By Griffith Askew Hamlin:

Griffith Askew Hamlin stated the following, but did not provide references: Stephen Hamlin was from Barnstaple, Devon, England, and was a brother of James Hamlin, who emigrated to Massachusetts. Their father was Giles Hamlin (a - c1638) and Mary ____ (a - 1630); their grandfather was John Hamlin. Stephen Hamlin was an apothecary and operated a tobacco shop in England. He was apprenticed at 18 and opened his own shop at 19. He operated an apothecary in Jamestown for 2 years after arrival. 1634 Stephen Hamlin one of three persons named to oversee 27th anniversary celebration of England's Virginia Colony. 10 Sep 1634 Departed for VA on the ship Sunrise from Ilfracombe, Devon, on the Bristol channel, Captain Perkins, master. The ship arrived at Jamestown 22 Oct 1634.

The Hamlin ancestry goes back to Germany where the name was spelled Hamlyn. The name was derived from the Saxon word Ham, meaning house, and Lyna meaning a pool or body of water. The German town of Hamelin is named for its location at the confluence of two rivers. It is assumed that the Hamlyn family derived its name from that general location. "People by the water!" members of the family jokingly called themselves. It is true for several centuries they lived near an ocean, creek, or river. By 1000AD Hamlyns had migrated westward to France, with some living on the banks of the Seine River near Paris. Others located in the Normandy area. Later in 1066AD they crossed the English Channel with William the Conqueror in his conquest of England.

Stephen Hamlyn I and Agnes Margaret Powell had the following children:

2. i. Stephen² Hamlin II was born about 1635 in Charles City County, Virginia, USA. He died about 1679 in Charles City County, Virginia, USA. He married Mary Jones about 1655 in Henrico County, Virginia, USA. She was born in 1625 in Henrico County, Virginia, USA. She died on 01 Apr 1689 in Henrico County, Virginia, USA.

Notes for Stephen Hamlin II:

By Mary E Stoll:

Stephen repatented his father's 1400 acres in Charles City County, Virginia,(1) in 1666. May 20, 16__, the Council "upon petition of Stephen Hamlyn on behalf of himself and his brothers, orphans of Stephen Hamlyn decd., it was ordered that a qualified surveyor lay out the bounds of that patent of Oct 26, 1650, and if any surplus be the said Stephen is to have a grant thereof."(2). He married(3) and had at least two sons(4). A possible third son was Abraham(5). In 1707, Charles City County, Virginia, Rent Rolls had listed John Hamlin with 143 1/2 acres, Stephen

(4) They Went Thataway, C. H. Hamlin, 1965, Vol. II, Chart I., p. 111. Although the maiden surname of Stephen, Jr's wife is not known, it could have been Stringer. According to Order Book (1713-1718), p. 20, Charles Hamlin was named next of kin to Wm. Stringer, deceased. Stephen Jr's wife could not have been Mary Elam as claimed by some family members, because Stephen Jr died before Mary Elam was married to a Stephen Hamlin in Henrico Parish, Virginia, in the year of 1696.

(5) Whether Abraham was a son of Stephen, Sr, or Stephen, Jr is not known. In Feb, 1689, David Sanbourne reported in open court that he had witnessed the will of the late Stephen Hamlin at the house of Thomas Cocke in Henrico, which will was now in the possession of Abraham Hamlin. (VA Court Records, 1689 90, p. 77 90.) Since Thomas Cocke was the guardian of Charles Hamlin, it is likely that Abraham was an older son of Stephen, Jr. If he had been Stephen, Jr's uncle, wouldn't he have been named guardian rather than Thomas Cocke? The will which would have cleared the relationship has been lost. Many of Virginia's records were destroyed during the War Between the States.

Notes for Capt John S Hamlin:

By Mary E. Stoll:

John became a Captain in the Charles City County Militia in which he served in 1680. Captain Hamlin was the Burgess for Prince George County, Virginia, in 1710, 1712 and 1714.(2) Captain Hamlin died before 1720.(3) He had married: Elizabeth Taylor, the daughter of Richard Taylor and Sarah Barker.(4) In the period 1710-1720 the Hamlins of Virginia were close friends and neighbors of the following families: Byrd, Harrison, Eppes, Kennon, Hardyman, Cocke and Edwards.(5) A map of the James River plantations based on researches of Colonial Williamsburg, Inc. is included on pages 62-63 in an article The Harrisons of Berkeley Hundred by Clifford Dowdey, published in the American Heritage, Volume VIII, No.3, Apr, 1957. The map shows the homes of the Harrisons (Berkeley Hundred) and the Byrds (Westover) with the Captain John Hamlin's home (Maycocks) across the river. In the book The Great American Gentleman, William Byrd of Westover in Virginia; His Secret Diary for the Years 1709-1712, edited by Louis B. Wright and Marion Tinling, 1963, there are references to Captain John Hamlin, Mrs Hamlin and their sons, Dick and Peter. Captain Hamlin was mentioned twice: "On the 25th Feb, 1710, Mr Harrison, his wife, and Mrs Stith came and soon after them Robin Munford and Captain Hamlin who all dined with us."(6) Again, 11 Oct, 1711, "came Captain Hamlin (and others). I persuaded them to stay and dine before we went to the martial court"(7) Mrs Hamlin was mentioned more often. Apr 17, 1709, Byrd wrote, "I went to church, where were abundance of people among whom was Mrs Hamlin, a very handsome woman".(8) (The church was Westover Church.) Byrd wrote Sep 5, 1709, "My wife was much out of order and had frequent returns of her pains....I sent for Mrs Hamlin and my cousin Harrison about 9 o'clock." Byrd wrote Sep 6, 1709, "about 1 o'clock this morning my wife ____

John2 Hamlin was definitely a son of Stephen1 Hamlin based on an analysis of the records. First, records show Stephen2 Hamlin had at least two brothers. Second, John2 Hamlin is first in the records in 1673, which indicates John2 Hamlin was born by c1651 and, therefore, the father of John2 Hamlin was born by c1630. However, Stephen1 Hamlin claimed himself as headright, but did not claim a wife or child in his first patent. Therefore, Stephen1 Hamlin undoubtedly married in VA and Stephen2 Hamlin was born in VA. Lastly, Charles City Co, VA records indicate Stephen2 Hamlin was born c1640. Combined, the records indicate John2 Hamlin was a son of Stephen1 Hamlin. Note: This analysis also indicates Stephen1 Hamlin came to VA between c1631 and c1635, the estimated date of his marriage to Agnes. John2 Hamlin lived on the south side of the James River, but undoubtedly attended church at Westover. His property was almost directly across the river from Westover. The Hamlin clan was one of the most important families in early Prince George Co. They were officers in the militia and justices. At one time John3 Hamlin was justice, William3 Hamlin was county clerk, a position he held for many years, and Richard3 Hamlin was sheriff. Relatives also held important positions in the colony. The Hamlins were close friends and neighbors - and often closely related to - the Byrd, Cocke, Eppes, Goodrich, Hardiman, Harrison, Kennon, Cocke, and Ravenscroft families. John² Hamlin made multiple trips to England and had expertise as a mariner. The inventory of his estate, if ever taken, has not survived. But based on the inventory of the estate of his wife, he was a wealthy, literate man. The estate of Elizabeth Hamlin was valued at £219.9.1, a very sizeable estate for the time. Considering most of the estate would have gone to his sons, the estate of John Hamlin would have been considerably larger. The inventory of the estate of Elizabeth Hamlin is extensive and includes 3 beds, window curtains, 12 leather chairs, two old maps, several small pictures, 3 looking glasses, a clock, large oval table, large square table, 6 smaller tables, parcel of old books, horse, cows, calves, cash, 4 slaves, dishes, utensils, and baskets. This indicates a relatively large, well-furnished house.

- vi. Agnes Hamlin was born in 1660 in Charles City, Charles City County, Virginia, USA. She died in 1750 in Surry, Surry County, Virginia, USA. She married Thomas Cooke, son of Richard Cocke and Temperance Bailey, before 1680 in Virginia, USA (this marriage ended upon his death 1696). He was born in 1638 in Henrico County, Virginia, USA. He died on 10 Dec 1696 in Bristol Parish, Prince George County, Virginia, USA.

By James Sherrill Hamlin Jr

Records for Charles show he had several guardians: Abraham Hamlin, Abraham Hinton, John Jones, John Hamlin . . . and probably Thomas Cocke [who is named as the guardian of the orphan of Stephen Hamlin]. I suspect John Jones was a relative of Mary, wife of Stephen, Jr . . . maybe a brother of Mary watching over a nephew.

The Hamlins were landed gentry . . . it would have been very unusual for a Hamlin orphan to be placed outside the family. At the time Jones was guardian, there were at least 3 adult Hamlins who were married and could have been guardians: Stephen, Jr and his brothers John and Thomas. I think Jones had to have been family.

Note. The existing Charles City records were transcribed from the original records in the 1800s [exact date may be in doc]. The clerk certified the copy to be correct . . . and someone probably did proofread. But if you have ever looked at original records, it can be extraordinarily challenging to figure out the word or name that was written. I believe 'Hamlin' was misread as 'Hinton' in the one record. there are no other records for a Hinton in Charles City in that timeframe.

In the book The Great American Gentleman, William Byrd of Westover in Virginia; His Secret Diary for the Years 1709-1712, edited by Louis B. Wright and Marion Tinling, 1963, there are references to Captain John Hamlin, Mrs Hamlin and their sons, Dick and Peter. Captain Hamlin was mentioned twice: "On the 25th Feb, 1710, Mr Harrison, his wife, and Mrs Stith came and soon after them Robin Munford and Captain Hamlin who all dined with us." (6) Again, 11 Oct, 1711, "came Captain Hamlin (and others). I persuaded them to stay and dine before we went to the martial court" (7) Mrs Hamlin was mentioned more often. Apr 17, 1709, Byrd wrote, "I went to church, where were abundance of people among whom was Mrs Hamlin, a very handsome woman". (8) (The church was Westover Church.) Byrd wrote Sep 5, 1709, "My wife was much out of order and had frequent returns of her pains....I sent for Mrs Hamlin and my cousin Harrison about 9 o'clock." John² Hamlin was definitely a son of Stephen¹ Hamlin based on an analysis of the records. First, records show Stephen² Hamlin had at least two brothers. Second, John² Hamlin is first in the records in 1673, which indicates John² Hamlin was born by c1651 and, therefore, the father of John² Hamlin was born by c1630. However, Stephen¹ Hamlin claimed himself as headright, but did not claim a wife or child in his first patent. Therefore, Stephen¹ Hamlin undoubtedly married in VA and Stephen² Hamlin was born in VA. Lastly, Charles City Co, VA records indicate Stephen² Hamlin was born c1640. Combined, the records indicate John² Hamlin was a son of Stephen¹ Hamlin. Note: This analysis also indicates Stephen¹ Hamlin came to VA between c1631 and c1635, the estimated date of his marriage to Agnes. John² Hamlin lived on the south side of the James River, but undoubtedly attended church at Westover. His property was almost directly across the river from Westover. The Hamlin clan was one of the most important families in early Prince George Co. They were officers in the militia and justices. At one time John³ Hamlin was justice, William³ Hamlin was county clerk, a position he held for many years, and Richard³ Hamlin was sheriff. Relatives also held important positions in the colony. The Hamlins were close friends and neighbors - and often closely related to - the Byrd, Cocke, Eppes, Goodrich, Hardiman, Harrison, Kennon, Cocke, and Ravenscroft families. John² Hamlin made multiple trips to England and had expertise as a mariner. The inventory of his estate, if ever taken, has not survived. But based on the inventory of the estate of his wife, he was a wealthy, literate man. The estate of Elizabeth Hamlin was valued at £219.9.1, a very sizeable estate for the time. Considering most of the estate would have gone to his sons, the estate of John Hamlin would have been considerably larger. The inventory of the estate of Elizabeth Hamlin is extensive and includes 3 beds, window curtains, 12 leather chairs, two old maps, several small pictures, 3 looking glasses, a clock, large oval table, large square table, 6 smaller tables, parcel of old books, horse, cows, calves, cash, 4 slaves, dishes, utensils, and baskets. This indicates a relatively large, well-furnished house.

Thomas Lowe was brought to Henrico by John Wilson in 1639 (Cavaliers and Pioneers). John Wilson was probably married to Thomas Lowe's mother (Jo) Hannah. In 1663, Thomas Lowe published notice of his intention to depart from Charles City, Va to "olde England" (Charles City records) and left the yoke of oxen which his son William Lowe had received from John Wilson in Wilson's care. At about the same time a Mr Lowe from Charles City arrived in England where he later married Mary Perry, sister of Micajah and Peter Perry (Perry family history). I lent him a horse to go to Colonel Hill's".1 Byrd wrote about Peter's health 24 Jun, 1711, "I went

Notes for Charles Hamlin:

There are some existent records of this family to be found in the following sources.

A. Library of Virginia - Hereafter referred to as LVA B. R. Bolling Batte Papers in the LVA - Hereafter referred to as Bolling papers. While this is likely an accurate genealogical link, the author deems it presumptive pending receipt of further documents. The LVA Page 108 of Charles City Co Orders 1987-1695, 457 lists the following apprentice record as follows: Hamlin, Charles Master: John Hamlin Beginning date: 4/13/1693. Sex: Male. Occupation: Carpenter. Ending Date: Unspecified. Race: White. With the early death of father Stephen, it would appear that son Charles was apprenticed out to his uncle, John Hamlin. The Bolling papers list this Stephen as the husband of Susannah Rookings placing him in position to be the father of Stephen. A will may or may not exist for this Charles, however, LVA does have two documents helpful in establishing his death. There exists an inventory of his estate for 1721 as well as an estate administration record for 1723. The 1721 inventory of this estate is interesting. It lists Susannah with a new last name of Bridges. It is likely that she married Timothy Bridges, an administrator of Stephen's estate after her husband Stephens death. Timothy Bridges is then listed as the deceased administrator in the 1723 administration record that settled the estate, leaving Susannah a widow for the second time by the age of 30.

By Mary E Stoll:

Stephen, Jr died while Charles was still a minor child. In Dec 1687, Capt. Thomas Cocke, a guardian of the orphan of Stephen Hamblin, sued James Bisse. Abraham Hinton cared for young Charles for a while and then John Jones took Charles in 1690.(1) Charles died previous to the 16th of Aug, 1721.(2). Charles Hamlin married: Susannah Rookings, the daughter of William Rookings III, and his wife, Ann. Digests of court proceedings substantiate the relationships given above: Order Book (1713-1718), p. 20, Surry Co. Virginia: On the 17th of Dec, 1713, Charles Hamlin, next of kin to William Stringer, deceased, made an oath that William Stringer died without making a will and Charles gave Security to become the administrator of the estate of the deceased. Deeds and Wills, Book 7 (1715 1730), Part 2, p. 355, Surry Co, VA: On the 16th of Aug, 1721, the inventory and account of the estate of Charles Hamlin, dec'd was returned to the Court by Timothy Bridges and Susannah, his wife, Administrators. Deeds and Wills, No. 7 (1715 1730), Part 2, p. 488, recorded 20 Nov, 1723: Account of the estate of Charles Hamlin, dec'd, returned to court by William Hamlin, (3) Administrator of Timothy Bridges dec'd who was the administrator. Besides the records quoted above, Charles purchased and sold other land. After the death of Charles, Susannah married Timothy Bridges who died previous to the 20th of Nov, 1723.(4). The proof that Charles Hamlin and his wife, Susannah Rookings, had a son named Stephen can be found in Surry County, Virginia, Deed Book, 4 (1741-1746) pages 138-139. In an indenture dated 19 Jul, 1743, Stephen sells to James Rookings of Surry County, 126 acres of land, the land being the same land "sold and conveyed by Gregory Rawlins to Charles Hamlin, father of the aforesaid Stephen Hamlin, and by the Said Charles Hamlin devised to his aforesaid son, Stephen Hamlin....." The deed was recorded on the 20th of Jul, 1743. As yet records have not been located which name the other children of Charles Hamlin and Susannah Rookings. Charles Hamlin left a will but the will has not been found. Many of the Virginia Records were destroyed during the Civil War. Susannah's

More can be found about Susannah's ancestors in the appendix of this Hamlin genealogy. The records of the Rookings family provide eligibility for their descendants to become members of the First Families of Virginia and The Jamestown Society.

(3) This William Hamlin was a nephew of Charles Hamlin. of the said Charles Hamlin dec'd. The inventory was proven by the oath of Susannah Bridges. The amount of the widow's third was itemized (31 pounds, 12 shillings and 3/4 pence) and what was left (114 pounds, 4 shillings and 1 1/4 pence) was due to the orphans of Charles Hamlin. Surry County, Virginia Records.

(4) Prince George County Deeds (1713 1728), p. 899: Apr, 1723, William Hamlin, administrator of the estate of Mr Timothy Bridges, gave a financial account to the court. Among the debits against the estate were "To the orphans of Charles Hamlin, deceased, 114 pounds, 4 shillings and 1 pence " and " By a negro man and a negro girl in his possession, belonging to the orphans of Charles Hamlin, dec'd valued to 51 pounds." The accounts prove that Susannah was the widow of Charles Hamlin and that her second husband, Timothy Bridges, also, was deceased.

8. Charles³ Hamlin (Stephen² II, Stephen¹ Hamlyn I) was born in 1664 in Charles City County, Virginia, USA. He died in 1687 in Jamestown, James County, Virginia, USA. He married FNU Hunt about 1684 in Virginia, USA. She was born about 1664 in Virginia, USA. She died date Unknown in Virginia, USA.

Notes for Charles Hamlin:

By James Sherrill Hamlin Jr

Records for Charles show he had several guardians: Abraham Hamlin, Abraham Hinton, John Jones, John Hamlin . . . and probably Thomas Cocke [who is named as the guardian of the orphan of Stephen Hamlin]. I suspect John Jones was a relative of Mary, wife of Stephen, Jr . . . maybe a brother of Mary watching over a nephew.

The Hamlins were landed gentry . . . it would have been very unusual for a Hamlin orphan to be placed outside the family. At the time Jones was guardian, there were at least 3 adult Hamlins who were married and could have been guardians: Stephen, Jr and his brothers John and Thomas. I think Jones had to have been family.

Note. The existing Charles City records were transcribed from the original records in the 1800s [exact date may be in doc]. The clerk certified the copy to be correct . . . and someone probably did proofread. But if you have ever looked at original records, it can be extraordinarily challenging to figure out the word or name that was written. I believe 'Hamlin' was misread as 'Hinton' in the one record. there are no other records for a Hinton in Charles City in that timeframe.

1710 in Prince George, Prince George County, Virginia, USA. She died in 1789 in Lunenburg, Lunenburg County, Virginia, USA.

Notes for Thomas Wallace Jarrett:

Thomas Jarrett was born around 1710 in Prince George County Virginia. He was the son of Nicholas Gerrard and Elizabeth Hamlin. He was the third of six children. He was mentioned in his father's will that was written 3 Jun 1718 and probated on 16 Jul 1718. Thomas received a 350 acre plantation known as Winklesesee from his father's estate.

Elizabeth Hamlin Gerrard married James Mize and on 10 Jun 10 1720, they made the final settlement of the estate of Nicholas Gerrard. On 19 Jul 19 they sold Elizabeth's lifetime interest in her 400 acres to Daniel Turner and on 16 Aug 1721, they sold Turner the entire estate. She promised to pay all the debts of the estate and to pay the children their shares of the property when they reached the age of 21. At some point, the kids changed the spelling of their last name to Jarrett.

Thomas moved with his step father and mother, James and Elizabeth Mize to Brunswick County Virginia a few years later. Thomas married Rebecca Harbard about 1731 in Brunswick County Virginia. Thomas received a land grant of 64 acres in Brunswick County Virginia on 22 Sep 1739. The land adjoined his step father James Mize's land. The land was in the part of Brunswick County Virginia that became Lunenburg County Virginia on 1 May 1746. Thomas Jarrett received a land grant for 153 acres in Lunenburg County that adjoined Wray and Mize on 1 Oct 1747.

Thomas paid 1 tithe tax until 1751. He paid 2 tithes in 1752, one for himself and one for the schoolmaster, Thomas Jarrett Jr had not yet reached 16 years of age, indicating he was born after 1736. Thomas and Rebecca Jarrett conveyed 100 acres to their son-in-law Benjamin Gist on 6 Nov 1752. Rebecca, Jarrett's wife, relinquished her right of dower in the land. Thomas Jarrett's oldest child Mary had just married Benjamin Gist. It is assumed Mary was about 21 years old, which is why the marriage date for Thomas and Rebecca is 1731. If Mary were 18 years old, their marriage may have been 1734. The exact marriage date is not known.

Robert Jones of Sussex County gave his son John Jones 350 acres in Albemarle Parish for love and affection on 11 Mar 1754. The land was on the south side of Blackwater Swamp and was bought from Thomas Jarrett. This was the land willed to Thomas from his father Nicholas in 1718.

James Mize Jr's will of 7 Apr 1770 was witnessed by Thomas Jarrett and Thomas Jarrett Jr was the security. The estate of the late Thomas Jarrett sold 100 acres to Joseph Wright of Lunenburg County for 200 pounds on 9 Feb 1790. The land was sold by Thomas Jarrett, Drury Allen, John Wray, John Wright and Nancy Wright. The land was described as being in Lunenburg County, down Stony Creek to Stephen Mize, to Arthur Turner, to Parsons Wright, to Julius Hight and to Thomas Jarrett. The deed was witnessed by William Fisher, John Mize and Peter Jarrett and was signed by Thomas Jarrett, Drury Allen, John Wray, John Wright and Mary Wright. The estate also sold 117 acres to Luke Taylor of Lunenburg for 60 pounds on 17 Nov 1792. The land was described as being in Lunenburg on Stony Creek where Luke Taylor lives, starting at the creek and then along Joseph Wright's line, along Emanuel Callis' line, along John Wright's line, along James Callis' line, and down the creek to the start. The deed was witnessed by Joseph Taylor, John Mize and William Moore. The deed was signed by Drury Allen, Joseph Wright, John Wright, Thomas Jarrett, John Wray and Nancy Wright.

Notes for James S Mize V:

by Joyce Mize Cole Anderson

Virginia Land Patent Book 15 shows that James Mize received a patent from King George II for land in early Brunswick County in Sep 1728 for 118 acres (along with his brother Jeremiah), (Also Surry and Prince George Counties as delineated), on the north side of the Meherrin River under the jurisdiction of Brunswick County. After 1745- Lunenburg County. The boundaries of the land ran from the mouth of Ruine (Stony) Creek to a beech, then crossed the creek east 7' north 170 poles to a pine, then east 32' south 106 poles, then east 49' north 24 poles to the Little Creek, then down the creek to the river and up the river to the start. The two Mize brothers, James and Jeremiah, had a falling out, and decided to go their separate ways., so on 4 Dec, 1734, the original 118 acres granted by King George II to James and Jeremiah Mize was divided equally between the two. [BD/W1:142:3] with Jeremiah receiving the lower half, along the Meherrin River and up to Little Creek where he was already living which he named Mize's Mill and Mize's Ford. James received the upper section along the river up the Ruine (Stony) Creek. Deeds witnessed by William Maclin and Henry Embry. His will dated 2/2/1761 and probated 4/7/1761 named wife Elizabeth (Hamlin), sons Stephen, William, & James, and grandson Joseph Wright and John Wright. Thomas Lowe was brought to Henrico by John Wilson in 1639 (Cavaliers and Pioneers). John Wilson was probably married to Thomas Lowe's mother (Jo)Hannah. In 1663, John Wilson refers to Thomas Lowe as his son-in-law which in those times usually meant stepson rather than daughter's husband. In 1663, Thomas Lowe published notice of his intention to depart from Charles City, Va to "olde England" (Charles City records) and left the yoke of oxen which his son William Lowe had received from John Wilson in Wilson's care. At about the same time a Mr Lowe from Charles City arrived in England where he later married Mary Perry, sister of Micajah and Peter Perry (Perry family history). They were the parents of 5 children: 1. Susanna Lowe - never married - mentioned in the will of her uncle Micajah Perry in 17202. Johanna Lowe b 1670 came to Va in 1688 (Cavaliers and Pioneers) married John Jarrett and lived at Jamestown with his uncle William Sherwooda. Notes for Thomas D Hamlin I:

By Ed Hamblin:

As of Jul 1996, our relationship to Thomas Hamlin is based on few records, and logical deduction. As always, with no wills or other specific legal documents which name relationships, no bible records, and no letters or other clues, there is room for error. I have used the spelling that is shown in most of the records. There are some places where the spelling of the name is Hamblin. Research by Virginia Davis, author of the book, "Tidewater Virginia Families" puts a birthdate of 1703 for Thomas Hamlin. He is named as a grandson in the will of his grandmother, Elizabeth Taylor Hamlin, wife of John Hamlin. In the Bristol Parish Vestry record, I found a birth record for Peter Hamlin, born to Thos. and Phebe Hamlin, 6 Aug 1732. There is also a record for daughter Ann, born to Thomas and Phebe Hamlin, Aug 21, 1733. Apr 18, 1732, Thomas Hamlin was called before the Virginia Council to give testimony as to being a witness while mate of a ship regarding plundering of other ships in the West Indies by crews of ships from the James River area of Virginia. One researcher has found a record of a marriage between Thomas Hamlin and Anne Flood in 1734. This is in some notes that were provided me by Mel Bosse of Cincinnati, OH. In Surry County records, there are several references to Mrs Ann Hamlin (see note Sheet on Ann Hamlin) the 1750 tax rolls of Lunenburg County, living as a family unit, Thomas Hamblin and Mackerness Goode, and five other titheables, not named. This "household" was enumerated in the part of Cornwall Parish of Lunenburg County between Sandy Creek and Bluestone Creek. In 1761 in Lunenburg County is a land grant for 330 acres to Peter Hamblin for militia service. Then in 1764, on the tax rolls just before Cornwall Parish became Charlotte County, both Mackerness Hamblin and Petter Hamblen show on the same page; they are living in the same area of Cornwall Parish as Thomas Hamblin and Mackerness Goode were 14 years earlier, with many of the same neighbors. The fact that Thomas Hamblin and Mackerness Goode were heads of the same household indicates that there was a family unit. Being of English heritage, Thomas probably would have named a son Mackerness, after the first Mackerness Goode, especially if that were not only a friend, but his father-in-law. Additionally, a marriage to a Goode could have been the reason Thomas Hamlin/Hamblin moved to Lunenburg County. The basis for this theory/possibility is that Thomas Hamlin, Samuel Goode (father of Mackerness Goode), and Mackerness Goode all owned property near each other in Amelia County, documented in Amelia County records

during the years 1743-1747. Mackerness Hamblin named one of his sons Thomas. It was customary to name sons for the grandparents, and other sons with the wife's family name. This is the only found evidence available as of Jul 1996 to show a probable relationship between Thomas Hamlin and Mackerness Hamblin. Surry County, Virginia Deed and Will Book

Nr. 7 page 869, the following entry, "Thomas Hamlin, Mariner, of Prince George County to William Heath of Surry County...145 acres on south side of main Blackwater Swamp and bounded by Pidgeon Swamp near the lower end of the Beaver Pond (being land granted Thomas Hamlin on 5 Sep 1723)."

Page 564 in the personal inventory for Benjamin Clary, Thomas Hamlin is named as an appraiser. The date is given as 23 Jan, 1735.

Page 696, the inventory for Thomas Hamlin, dated 19 Feb 1750 is recorded. This probably indicates that Thomas died shortly before. (All I saw was an abstract.) Further research in the southern Virginia counties failed to show a will. In Pasquotank County, NC, there is a will filed in 1758 for a Thomas Hamblin. In my examination of the 1758 will, I did not find any relationship to this Thomas Hamlin/Hamblin.

Page 701, in the will of Thomas Brown of Surry, Thomas Hamlin is named as witness. The date is 4 Sep 1735.

Page 734, Thomas Hamlin is named as executor in the will of Mary Brown of Southward Parrish, Surry, dated 22 Sep 1736. In the will he is also listed as a friend of the deceased husband.

Page 790, Thomas Hamlin is listed as executor for the personal inventory of Mary Brown. The date is given as 18 Jan 1737.

Will of Henry Floyd, dated 18 Dec 1739, Thomas Hamlin is named as witness. Amelia County records

Thomas Hamlin as received 200 acres of land on 17 Mar 1736.

Thomas Hamlin was appointed constable in 1738.

Prince George County land patent book of , it shows that Thomas Hamlin held land as of May 20, 1735. Based on the information I have researched, it appears that Thomas Hamlin/Hamblin probably had some education, as he could "appraise" estates. In none of the legal entries was it indicated that he had to "make his mark" which probably meant that he could read and write. He probably lived in Surry County for the convenience to his career as "mariner," for that is where the James River is; it was where the business of the James River fleet in the movement of tobacco, rum, and slaves was conducted. Many plantations along the river had their own docks for loading/unloading commerce. As mate of a ship, it was very common to have to know not only the sea, but to have expertise in loading various cargoes, to recruit hands, and to conduct other ship's business. In Thomas Hamlin's case, he may have not "earned" the title as mate the hard way' his grandmother, Elizabeth Hamlin (wife of John Hamlin), was named as shipowner of the "Virgin of Virginia." Later, he may have retired from the sea, and moved to Amelia County, which in 1740, was still very much a frontier. He had owned land there since 1736. It was there I suspect, where he started doing business with the Goode family, although he could have had some earlier dealings with them in his seagoing years. The Goodes had family interests on the island of Barbados in the Caribbean. It is probable that he married twice; it is possible he married a third time to a Goode while in Amelia County. There is no indication after 1739 that he was in Surry or Prince George County. Although it isn't conclusive, the information in the Lunenburg County tax rolls points to the likelihood that Thomas Hamlin was the father of Mackerness Hamblin. Besides the legal entry showing the family unit of Thomas Hamlin and Mackerness Goode, other later legal records indicate very close relationships between the Goode family and the Hamblin family in Lunenburg and Charlotte Counties. In researching other entries, the Goodes and Hamlins were always close. If you look at the Hamlin history as being ship-owners, it is likely that the Hamlins and Goodes had close business interests. It is well documented in the book, "Virginia Cousins" that the Virginia Goodes were major plantation owners (tobacco and slaves). The Goodes owned much property in Amelia County, Brunswick County, Lunenburg County, and Charlotte County. At this point it is unlikely for any unfound bible records or undiscovered wills to surface.

Notes for Peter Hamlin:

by Mary Poor Hoffer

Peter Hamlin was the son of Captain John Hamlin and Elizabeth Taylor. Peter apparently was an agent for William Byrd. In Byrd's diary, an entry for 6 Sep, 1709, was, "I sent Peter away who brought me a summons to the Council".(10) Then of 15 Jan, 1710, "I sent my English letters over the river to Peter Hamlin who will go Tue next to England.(11) On 13 Mar, 1711, "Mr Peter Hamlin came to see me and told me the Harrison was come in and had abundance of goods for me. I lent him a horse to go to Colonel Hill's". 1 Byrd wrote about Peter's health 24 Jun, 1711, "I went to church where I saw Peter Hamlin who had no letters from Barbadoes for me. People were afraid of him because one of his people (slaves) had the smallpox." Then 27 Jun, 1711, "when my wife heard that Peter Hamlin had the smallpox she said that she should have them likewise because his mother had been here two nights and she had laid on her sheets".(2) On the 5th of Jul, 1711, Byrd wrote, "Poor Peter Hamlin died of the smallpox, for want of attention."3. 24. Charles⁴ Hamlin (Stephen³ III, Stephen² II, Stephen¹ Hamlyn I) was born in 1689 in Surry, Surry County, Virginia, USA. He died on 16 Aug 1721 in Surry, Surry County, Virginia, USA. She was born in 1693 in Surry County, Virginia, USA. She died in 1779 in Surry, Surry County, Virginia, USA.

Notes for Charles Hamlin:

There are some existent records of this family to be found in the following sources. A. Library of Virginia - Hereafter referred to as LVA B. R. Bolling Batte Papers in the LVA - Hereafter referred to as Bolling papers. While this is likely an accurate genealogical link, the author deems it presumptive pending receipt of further documents. The LVA Page 108 of Charles City Co Orders 1687-1695, 457 lists the following apprentice record as follows: Hamlin, Charles Master: John Hamlin Beginning date: 4/13/1693. Sex: Male. Occupation: Carpenter. Ending Date: Unspecified. Race: White. With the early death of father Stephen, it would appear that son Charles was apprenticed out to his uncle, John Hamlin. The Bolling papers list this Stephen as the husband of Susannah Rookings placing him in position to be the father of Stephen. A will may or may not exist for this Charles, however, LVA does have two documents helpful in establishing his death. There exists an inventory of his estate for 1721 as well as an estate administration record for 1723. The 1721 inventory of this estate is interesting. It lists Susannah with a new last name of Bridges. It is likely that she married Timothy Bridges, an administrator of Stephen's estate after her husband Stephens death. Timothy Bridges is then listed as the deceased administrator in the 1723 administration record that settled the estate, leaving Susannah a widow for the second time by the age of 30.

By Mary E Stoll:

Stephen, Jr died while Charles was still a minor child. In Dec 1687, Capt. Thomas Cocke, a guardian of the orphan of Stephen Hamblin, sued James Bisse. Abraham Hinton cared for young Charles for a while and then John Jones took Charles in 1690.(1) Charles died previous to the 16th of Aug, 1721.(2). Charles Hamlin married: Susannah Rookings, the daughter of William Rookings III, and his wife, Ann. Digests of court proceedings substantiate the relationships given above: Order Book (1713-1718), p. 20, Surry Co. Virginia: On the 17th of Dec, 1713, Charles Hamlin, next of kin to William Stringer, deceased, made an oath that William Stringer died without making a will and Charles gave Security to become the administrator of the estate of the deceased. William Rookings, 1 Feb, 1715; proved 16 Mar, 1715, To my daughter, Susannah, and to her husband, Charles Hamlin, the property known as the "Greens" for their lives and at their deaths to return to my son, William Rookings (IV)..(also mentions James Rookings and Elizabeth, Mary, Ann and Jane and wife, Ann.) Deeds and Wills, Book 7 (1715 1730), Part 2, p. 355, Surry Co, VA: On the 16th of Aug, 1721, the inventory and account of the estate of Charles Hamlin, dec'd was returned to the Court by Timothy Bridges and Susannah, his wife, Administrators. Deeds and Wills, No. 7 (1715 1730), Part 2, p. 488, recorded 20 Nov, 1723: Account of the estate of Charles Hamlin, dec'd, returned to court by William Hamlin, (3) Administrator of Timothy Bridges dec'd who was the administrator. Besides the records quoted above, Charles purchased and sold other land. After the death of Charles, Susannah married Timothy Bridges who died previous to the 20th of Nov, 1723.(4). The proof that Charles Hamlin and his wife, Susannah Rookings, had a son named Stephen can be found in Surry County, Virginia, Deed Book, 4 (1741-1746) pages 138-139. In an indenture dated 19 Jul, 1743, Stephen sells to James Rookings of Surry County, 126 acres of land, the land being the same land "sold and conveyed by Gregory Rawlins to Charles Hamlin, father of the aforesaid Stephen Hamlin, and by the Said Charles Hamlin devised to his aforesaid son, Stephen Hamlin....." The deed was recorded on the 20th of Jul, 1743. As yet records have not been located which name the other children of Charles Hamlin and Susannah Rookings. Charles Hamlin left a will but the will has not been found. Many of the Virginia Records were destroyed during the Civil War. Susannah's great grandfather, William Rookings, an emigrant from England, arrived in Jamestown, Virginia, on the Bona Nova in 1619. More can be found about Susannah's ancestors in the appendix of this Hamlin genealogy. The records of the Rookings family provide eligibility for their descendants to become members of the First Families of Virginia and The Jamestown Society.

(2) Charles Hamlin's widow, Susannah, had married Timothy Bridges before that date. (Surry Co. Deeds & Wills, Book 7 (1715 1730) Part 2, p. 355.)

(3) This William Hamlin was a nephew of Charles Hamlin. of the said Charles Hamlin dec'd. The inventory was proven by the oath of Susannah Bridges. The amount of the widow's third was itemized (31 pounds, 12 shillings and 3/4 pence) and what was left (114 pounds, 4 shillings and 1 1/4 pence) was due to the orphans of Charles Hamlin. Surry County, Virginia Records.

(4) Prince George County Deeds (1713 1728), p. 899: Apr, 1723, William Hamlin, administrator of the estate of Mr Timothy Bridges, gave a financial account to the court. Among the debits against the estate were "To the orphans of Charles Hamlin, deceased, 114 pounds, 4 shillings and 1 pence " and " By a negro man and a negro girl in his possession, belonging to the orphans of Charles Hamlin, dec'd valued to 51 pounds." The accounts prove that Susannah was the widow of Charles Hamlin and that her second husband, Timothy Bridges, also, was deceased.

Notes for Susannah Rookings:

By Jay Hamlin:

Susannah Rookings was the daughter of William and Ann Rookings. Susannah was married previous to her father's death in 1714. She was married first to Charles Hamlin, the son of Stephen Jr, Charles died previous to 1721. Susannah and Charles had at least two children. Susannah was remarried by 1721 to Timothy Bridges.

Charles Hamlin and Susannah Rookings had the following child:

53. i. Stephen⁵ Hamlin was born in 1715 in Sussex County, Virginia, USA. He died on 20 Apr 1775 in Sussex, Sussex County, Virginia, USA. He married Sarah "Sally" Poythress, daughter of William Poythress and Sarah Eppes, in 1750 in Bristol, Independent Cities, Virginia, USA (this marriage ended upon his death 1788). She was born on 07 Aug 1731 in Prince George, Prince George County, Virginia, USA. She died on 25 Jun 1788 in Sussex County, Virginia, USA.

Notes for Stephen Hamlin:

This family is well documented in several reliable genealogy sources as noted below.

- A. The Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy (Volume 4, Ohio and Volume 6, Virginia) by William Wade Hinshaw

B. Library of Virginia (LVA) C. R. Bolling Batte Papers in the LVA .

This author accepts the birth date of 1715 for Stephen Hamlin and his marriage to Sarah Poythress in about 1750. This marriage date is an approximate estimation based on the birth dates of their last two children. According to Bolling, Sarah Poythress was born 8/7/1731 and baptized 10/7/1731 in Bristol Parish, Virginia. Bolling lists her as unmarried in his research notes. However, this was not the main focus of his research and many records had not been found for this family before his death. This author accepts this marriage with reservation. The Poythress family is not known to have been Quakers, however, Sarah married Stephen Hamlin whose family has a significant history recorded in the Quaker monthly meeting records, for this area of Virginia. In all likelihood, Sarah would have embraced the Quaker philosophies at about the time of her marriage to Stephen. Neither the marriage of this couple nor the birth of their children is recorded in any Quaker records. Prior to 1752, Quaker records are very scanty. It is believed that prior to 1752, this Quaker group met under the name of Pagan Creek Monthly Meeting. Hinshaw addresses this in (Vol 6, Virginia) his discussion of the "Black Water Monthly Meeting" as follows: Page 93 "The above constitutes the little of what we can know for certain of this ancient church court in its earliest days. However, from 1752 to the day the monthly meeting was laid down we need only refer to existing records to know what transpired in detail. In the tattered and torn volume of 1752 we find the family names of the early members of the meeting. They are: Briggs, Butler, Thorp, Pretlow, Bailey, Denson, Hollowell, Sebrell, Hunnicutt, Newby, Kitchen, Watkins, Hargrave, Clary, Simmons, Peebles, Brock, Hamlin, Chappell and others. These names are singular in their similarity with the families of Pagan Creek Monthly Meeting." As Hinshaw indicates, after 1752 records of these Monthly Meeting proceedings are well documented. Page 39 "We have only one torn dilapidated volume of the Pagan Creek Monthly Meeting left us. It opens 1738-7th month and ends 1752-4th month. Pages are missing from the front. But even this volume gives some little information on the monthly meeting that it is almost negligible. No Particular meetings are mentioned nor anything that aids in defining its limits and status. However, it must be seriously considered that on the page that contains the first minute (dated 1738-7th month) there is a list of representatives to or from some meetings. This paragraph reads thus, 'Rebecca Pretlow for Surry and Elizabeth Cornwell and Sarah Hunnicutt for Burley, Tabitha Butler and A Butler for Butler's meeting; Mary Bailey and Martha Hargrave for Black Water, Sarah Hamlin, Christian Stanton' (for Stantons Meeting). Sarah gave birth to six children (three sons and three daughters) after her marriage to Stephen. The first record for this family is interesting. It would appear that Stephen approached the Virginia court on his wife's behalf and at the recommendation of the Quaker Monthly Meeting (Frs eg. Friends) in regard to a child (or children) that were born to her in a previous marriage. He is asking for reimbursement from the monthly meeting for his expenditures. There is no further record of this event or a previous marriage found at this time. Thomas Cryer may be a first husband for Sarah Poythress. Hinshaw Vol 6 Virginia: 1758, 5, 13. Stephen request requests requested to be repaid the costs of an appeal to the general court in a suit brought by his w's former h's brother for taking away her child to whom he had been appointed guardian by the court, he proceeded by advice of Frs. Little else is recorded of Stephen and Sarah. The following entry does give us Stephen's date of death. Hinshaw Vol 6 Virginia: 1775, 3, 18. Stephen, an elder Overseer of Stanton's particular or preparative meeting, Sussex Co, mentioned as being deceased: another co in his place. Stephen left a will dated 1/8/1773 and probated 4/20/1775 (LVA Wills, Book C Pg 162 Sussex County Virginia). Unlike most wills at that time, it appears to be straightforward and remarkably uncomplicated. See transcription of will in Mary Hoffer's book.

By Mary E Stoll:

Stephen sold to his cousin, James Rookings, of Surry County, 126 acres of land which had been sold by Gregory Rawlins to Stephen's father, Charles Hamlin, the 10th of Apr, 1714.(2) The land had been willed to Stephen by his father.(3) Surry County was divided in 1753 (4) to form Sussex County and then Stephen's land became part of the new county. The only record on file in Sussex County, of purchases of land by Stephen was the deed dated the 19th of Aug, 1772, when

Stephen Hamlin bought about 200 acres in Sussex County from John Murphy of Bute County, Province of North Carolina, the new acreage being bounded in part by Stephen's own land. However, in Dinwiddie County, VA, the estate of Stephen Hamlin was taxed on 2,200 plus 850 acres in 1787 and 2200, 850 plus 303 acres in 1788-1800.⁴ The Dinwiddie land records were lost during the War Between The States. Although other Virginia Hamlin families belonged to the state church, Stephen was a Quaker. On the 16th of May, 1767, he was granted a certificate excusing him from military service. (Probably Virginia Militia.) At the time of his death he was an elder overseer of Stanton's Particular (Preparatory) Meeting. Stephen died before the 18th of Mar, 1775, in Sussex County.⁽⁵⁾ He had married prior to 1749: Mrs Sarah Cryer,⁽⁶⁾ the widow of Robert Cryer. Sarah and Robert were the parents of a daughter, Elizabeth Cryer, born circa 1746. William Cryer, a brother of Robert Cryer,⁽⁷⁾ instigated a suit against Stephen and Sarah Hamlin because Stephen had not given him a financial statement of the estate of Elizabeth Cryer. The original court papers have been lost, but the suit was continued Apr 15, 1757. At the Virginia Yearly Meeting May 13, 1758, Stephen Hamlin "requested to be repaid the costs of an appeal to the general court in a suit brought by his wife's former husband's brother for taking away her child to whom he had been appointed guardian by the court. He proceeded by advice of Friends."⁽⁸⁾ May 16, 1760, the case in Sussex County order book was marked "Dismissed."⁽⁹⁾ The accounting of the Estate of Elizabeth Cryer, infant, orphan of Robert Cryer, dec'd, by Stephen Hamlin was recorded Sep 17, 1761, in Book 1754 89, page 44 and Sep 16, 1762, in same Guardian Account Book, p. 64 as follows: (see copy of document in Mary Hoffer's book) After Stephen's death an inventory was taken of his estate the 1st of Jun, 1775: (estate inventory document in Mary Hoffer's book). Although, as Quakers, the Stephen Hamlin sons and son in laws did not join the Continental Army, they did furnish some provisions for the army. In the "claims" against the new State of Virginia are:⁽¹⁰⁾ Apr 8, 1782 William Hamlin 225 lbs beef 2 pounds 5 shillings Sarah Hamlin 169 gals brandy 82 pounds 5 shillings Dec 2, 1783 (By the Court of Sussex County, VA)⁽¹¹⁾ Paid William Hamlin, for brandy furnished CAL 10 pounds 8 shillings. Paid Sarah Hamlin for beef furnished CAL 2 pounds 16 shillings 3 pence. Sarah Hamlin emancipated her slaves Jun 25, 1788 (emancipation document in Mary Hoffer's book). It is interesting to note that Sarah had been asked by the Quakers to free her slaves in 1782. It is recorded in the Black Water Monthly Meeting, the 19th of Oct, 1782, that "Sarah, an elder, refused to free her slaves at this time, 'saying she does not see it to be her duty at present'." (Hinshaw, Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy, Vol. VI, p. 107 under Hamlin). Both William and Charles had emancipated their slaves before Sarah did. Since the estate had not been settled at the time that Sarah relinquished her slaves, another legal document ensued: (see emancipation document in Mary Hoffer's book). Sarah Hamlin died after 25 Jun, 1788, and probably before the Stephen Hamlin estate was divided the 29th of Nov, 1790. The land in Stephen Hamlin's estate was not divided until 1790, probably following the death of Sarah. The legal document concerning this division can be found in Sussex County, Deed Book G, page 592. In a Historical Sketch of the Hamlin Family written by E. L. Sebrell, Limaville, OH, Aug 25th, 1894, and copied by Daisy Wood the 15th of Aug, 1899, Stephen Hamlin's wife was said to be "a widow lady by the name of Sarah Portress (one of the several spellings for Poythress) whose maiden name was Cryer." It has been proven that the widow was Sarah Cryer; so Poythress could have been Sarah's maiden name. Andrews, in his study of the Hamlin family, stated "Sarah Cryer nee Poythress". Because many of his statements were not documented the information given is not necessarily authentic. In Virginia Tax Papers, 1782-1787, on page 54, Stephen Hamlin had 30 slaves in Dinwiddie County. Could this be the estate of the Stephen Hamlin who married Sarah Cryer since the land was not divided until 1790? Practically all the records in Dinwiddie County were destroyed during the War Between The States, as were some of the records of Surry, Sussex and Prince George County, making it very difficult to obtain a complete history of the legal transactions of the Hamlin Family.

(1) Since Charles and Susannah Hamlin lived in Surry County, it is presumed that Stephen was born there. Proof for the parentage of Stephen can be found on page 11. He had to be born no later than 1719 as he was a godparent by 1740 and a godparent and sponsor at the baptism of George Briggs, Jun 14, 1741; so had to

- be at least 21 years of age at that time. (Register of Albermarle Parish, Colonial Dames, p. 31) He probably was born about 1715.

- (6) Although the maiden name of Sarah Cryer Hamlin can not be proven, it is possible that she was Sarah Poythress who was born the 7th of Aug, 1731, to William Poythress and Sarah Eppes in Bristol Parish, Prince George Co, VA The reason for this supposition is that Sarah Hamlin's grandson, William, had Poythress as his middle name as did another descendent. William Poythress was the son of John Poythress; the grandson of Major Francis Poythress and wife, Rebecca; and the great grandson of Capt. Francis Poythress who arrived in Virginia in 1733. (The Virginia Magazine of History and Biography, Vol. VII, p. 71 and Vol. 33, p. 32) Sarah Eppes was the daughter of Francis Eppes. If Sarah Cryer was the former Sarah Poythress, she was about sixteen when she married Robert Cryer. Their daughter, Elizabeth Cryer, probably was born in 1747. Elizabeth probably was married when she was sixteen, also.
- (7) In the Bothwell graveyard in Dinwiddie Co, VA there is a tombstone inscribed, "Here lies the mortal remains of John, William and Robert Cryer, Three brothers who were born in the County of Prince George sometime before the American Revolution. This testimonial of affection and gratitude is placed to their memory by their nephew, Robert Cryer Booth." Robert Cryer Booth was born the 3rd of Nov, 1790, and died the 13th of Nov, 1850.

The Virginia Magazine of History and Biography, XXVIII, p. 211; Henrico County Deeds and Wills 1725-37, pp. 193, 277, 392

Francis owned 444 acres in Henrico County in 1704. He was appointed surveyor of Henrico County, Apr 23, 1708 and was Burgess from Henrico County in 1711-1714, and was referred to as Colonel in 1728; he was appointed sheriff Jun 3, 1728 and Apr 23, 1728. He and his wife Sarah lived on Bermuda Hundred. He was a trustee of the town of Bermuda, which was established there. His will was dated Nov 7, 1733 and proved Dec 1734, as Francis Eppes of the parish and County of Henrico, mentioning his wife Sarah, son Francis, and the remaining (underage) children: Anne, Martha, Richard, and William. The widow Sarah Eppes of Dale Parish, Henrico County, left a will dated Feb 28, 1747/8 and proved Jul 1748, which named sons Richard and William Eppes, daughters Ann Harris), Francis Eppes, V, Martha Wayles, and Amy Worsham.

Notes for Anne Isham Eppes:
Re-connecting to the correct Benjamin Harris. Recently a researcher disconnected Anne Isham Eppes from spouse Benjamin Harris, leaving the family "fatherless". I was initially concerned but in researching it myself found that was a valid change, and that Anne Isham Eppes had married a different Benjamin Harris. Her spouse was Benjamin Harris the son of Mary Jefferson and Thomas Harris, and Mary is the sister of President Thomas Jefferson. Now I understand why Thomas Jefferson authored Anne's will (cited below), and why she and Benjamin are cited as Patriots of the Revolution. So those looking for ancestors that are Patriots of the Revolution, here are two. I am also reconnecting Col. William Kennon to his proper Ann Eppes spouse. That was linked here but an obvious error as they are a full generation different. I found that Col. Kennon did marry an Ann Eppes but rather married the sister of father Francis Isham Eppes who is also named Ann.

Notes for Thomas D Hamlin I:

By Ed Hamblin:

As of Jul 1996, our relationship to Thomas Hamlin is based on few records, and logical deduction. As always, with no wills or other specific legal documents which name relationships, no bible records, and no letters or other clues, there is room for error. I have used the spelling that is shown in most of the records. There are some places where the spelling of the name is Hamblin. Research by Virginia Davis, author of the book, "Tidewater Virginia Families" puts a birthdate of 1703 for Thomas Hamlin. He is named as a grandson in the will of his grandmother, Elizabeth Taylor Hamlin, wife of John Hamlin. In the Bristol Parish Vestry record, I found a birth record for Peter Hamlin, born to Thos. and Phebe Hamlin, 6 Aug 1732. There is also a record for daughter Ann, born to Thomas and Phebe Hamlin, Aug 21, 1733. Apr 18, 1732, Thomas Hamlin was called before the Virginia Council to give testimony as to being a witness while mate of a ship regarding plundering of other ships in the West Indies by crews of ships from the James River area of Virginia. One researcher has found a record of a marriage between Thomas Hamlin and Anne Flood in 1734. This is in some notes that were provided me by Mel Bosse of Cincinnati, OH. In Surry County records, there are several references to Mrs Ann Hamlin (see note Sheet on Ann Hamlin) the 1750 tax rolls of Lunenburg County, living as a family unit, Thomas Hamblin and Mackerness Goode, and five other titheables, not named. This "household" was enumerated in the part of Cornwall Parish of Lunenburg County between Sandy Creek and Bluestone Creek. In 1761 in Lunenburg

County is a land grant for 330 acres to Peter Hamblin for militia service. Then in 1764, on the tax rolls just before Cornwall Parish became Charlotte County, both Mackerness Hamblin and Petter Hamblen show on the same page; they are living in the same area of Cornwall Parish as Thomas Hamblin and Mackerness Goode were 14 years earlier, with many of the same neighbors. The fact that Thomas Hamblin and Mackerness Goode were heads of the same household indicates that there was a family unit. Being of English heritage, Thomas probably would have named a son Mackerness, after the first Mackerness Goode, especially if that were not only a friend, but his father-in-law. Additionally, a marriage to a Goode could have been the reason Thomas Hamlin/Hamblin moved to Lunenburg County. The basis for this theory/possibility is that Thomas Hamlin, Samuel Goode (father of Mackerness Goode), and Mackerness Goode all owned property near each other in Amelia County, documented in Amelia County records during the years 1743-1747. Mackerness Hamblin named one of his sons Thomas. It was customary to name sons for the grandparents, and other sons with the wife's family name. This is the only found evidence available as of Jul 1996 to show a probable relationship between Thomas Hamlin and Mackerness Hamblin.

Nr. 7 page 869, the following entry, "Thomas Hamlin, Mariner, of Prince George County to William Heath of Surry County...145 acres on south side of main Blackwater Swamp and bounded by Pidgeon Swamp near the lower end of the Beaver Pond (being land granted Thomas Hamlin on 5 Sep 1723)."

Page 564 in the personal inventory for Benjamin Clary, Thomas Hamlin is named as an appraiser. The date is given as 23 Jan, 1735.

Page 696, the inventory for Thomas Hamlin, dated 19 Feb 1750 is recorded. This probably indicates that Thomas died shortly before. (All I saw was an abstract.) Further research in the southern Virginia counties failed to show a will. In Pasquotank County, NC, there is a will filed in 1758 for a Thomas Hamblin. In my examination of the 1758 will, I did not find any relationship to this Thomas Hamlin/Hamblin.

Will of Henry Floyd, dated 18 Dec 1739, Thomas Hamlin is named as witness.
Amelia County records

Thomas Hamlin as received 200 acres of land on 17 Mar 1736.

Thomas Hamlin was appointed constable in 1738.

Prince George County land patent book of , it shows that Thomas Hamlin held land as of May 20, 1735. Based on the information I have researched, it appears that Thomas Hamlin/Hamblin probably had some education, as he could "appraise" estates. In none of the legal entries was it indicated that he had to "make his mark" which probably meant that he could read and write. He probably lived in Surry County for the convenience to his career as "mariner," for that is where the James River is; it was where the business of the James River fleet in the movement of tobacco, rum, and slaves was conducted. Many plantations along the river had their own docks for loading/unloading commerce. As mate of a ship, it was very common to have to know not only the sea, but to have expertise in loading various cargoes, to recruit hands, and to conduct other ship's business. In Thomas Hamlin's case, he may have not "earned" the title as mate the hard way' his grandmother, Elizabeth Hamlin (wife of John Hamlin), was named as shipowner of the "Virgin of Virginia." Later, he may have retired from the sea, and moved to Amelia County, which in 1740, was still very much a frontier. He had owned land there since 1736. It was there I suspect, where he started doing business with the Goode family, although he could have had some earlier dealings with them in his seagoing years. The Goodes had family interests on the island of Barbados in the Caribbean. It is probable that he married twice; it is possible he married a third time to a Goode while in Amelia County. There is no indication after 1739 that he was in Surry or Prince George County. Although it isn't conclusive, the information in the Lunenburg County tax rolls points to the likelihood that Thomas Hamlin was the father of Mackerness Hamblin. Besides the legal entry showing the family unit of Thomas Hamlin and Mackerness Goode, other later legal records indicate very close relationships between the Goode family and the Hamblin family in

Lunenburg and Charlotte Counties. In researching other entries, the Goodes and Hamlins were always close. If you look at the Hamlin history as being ship-owners, it is likely that the Hamlins and Goodes had close business interests. It is well documented in the book, "Virginia Cousins" that the Virginia Goodes were major plantation owners (tobacco and slaves). The Goodes owned much property in Amelia County, Brunswick County, Lunenburg County, and Charlotte County. At this point it is unlikely for any unfound bible records or undiscovered wills to surface.

Notes for Phebe Goode:

By Becky Hamlin Morris:

As of the summer of 1996, there is no clear evidence that points to Thomas Hamlin having a second wife with the last name of Goode. This thought is based on findings by Ed Hamblin of Virginia Beach. Research in the Lunenburg County tax rolls indicate a family relationship between Thomas Hamlin and Mackerness Goode. The 1750 tax list puts Thomas Hamlin and Mackerness Goode as a family unit. Fourteen years later, Mackerness Hamblin is found in Lunenburg County, living very close to Mackerness Goode. Research in the Goode family, primarily through the book "Virginia Cousins" which is about the Goodes, is very vague on early female family members. Some of the early generations show no females. In the early years of our country, females knew no rights, and were rarely named except in certain church and legal records. It is possible that a female family member could have been skipped over. I believe this is what happened in this case.

Thomas D Hamlin I and Phebe Goode had the following children:

66. i. Peter⁵ Hamlin was born on 06 Aug 1732 in Bristol Parish, Prince George County, Virginia, USA. He died on 18 Nov 1802 in Wentworth, Rockingham County, North Carolina, USA. He married Sarah Wooten before 1771 in Unknown. She was born (date & place unknown). She died date Unknown in Rockingham County, North Carolina, USA.
- ii. Anne Hamlin was born on 21 Aug 1733 in Amelia County, Virginia, USA. She died (date & place unknown).
67. iii. Thomas D Hamlin II was born in 1741 in Virginia, USA. He died on 20 Feb 1811 in Mecklenburg County, Virginia, USA. He married (1) Elizabeth Seat, daughter of Josiah Seat and Martha Bottom, in 1760 in Lunenburg County, Virginia, USA. She was born in 1740 in Halifax, Halifax County, Virginia, USA. She died on 08 Aug 1806 in Mecklenburg County, Virginia, USA. He married (2) Jean Burton, daughter of Robert Hutchins Burton and Judith Laforce, on 10 Nov 1806 in Mecklenburg County, Virginia, USA. She was born on 29 Mar 1765 in Goochland County, Virginia, USA. She died in 1810 in Virginia, USA.
68. iv. Mackerness Hamblin was born in 1748 in Virginia, USA. He died in 1815 in Franklin County, Virginia, USA. He married Mary Coleman, daughter of James Jeremiah Coleman and Elizabeth Leake, in 1772 in Charlotte County, Virginia, USA. She was born on 10 Apr 1757 in Prince George, Prince George County, Virginia, USA. She died in 1825 in Franklin County, Virginia, USA.

Notes for Mackerness Hamblin:

By Eddie Hamblin of Virginia Beach, VA:

The relationship with Mackerness Hamblin is not proved by a will or legal document. What is available are marriage records of the sons and daughters of Mackerness Hamblin and wife, Mary. As of Jul 1996, our relationship to Mackerness Hamblin is probably based on those marriage records, census records, and logic. The name Mackerness comes from Lady Mackerness who married John Goode in Barbados in 1650. Their grandson, Mackerness Goode, born about 1700 was the first of three generations of Mackerness Goodes in Southside Virginia from about 1700 to 1815. The Hamblins and Goodes were very close, and probably related with Mackerness Hamblin's mother, likely being a Goode. Callihan Hamblin, the proven older brother of our documented ancestor Smith T. Hamblin stated in a county history, and was an Englishman. Research indicates there were only 2 "M" Hamblins in the southern colonies at this time, Maddox Hamblin of Maryland, and Mackerness Hamblin of Virginia. Based on tax records, it is likely that Mackerness Hamblin died in early 1815 in Franklin County, VA. Callihan Hamblin was not born until 1824, so any information he had of his grandfather was passed to him by his father, Thomas

Hamblin . One of Mackerness Hamblin's sons, Stephen Hamblin, did live in Giles County, VA, for a period of time. In my research, I uncovered no evidence that Mackerness ever lived in Giles County. At this time, evidence points to Mackerness Hamblin as a direct descendant of Captain Stephen Hamblin, an Englishman who settled in Virginia around 1655. The thing that makes it nearly impossible to prove who Mackerness Hamblin was is that the area of Virginia where he lived was known as the Southside (south of the James River). During the Civil War, the southside county records which had been moved to Richmond for safekeeping were destroyed. No records may exist today that can prove the relationship to Mackerness Hamblin and his ancestors, I can only use what is available. It would be much easier if there were only one Thomas Hamblin to deal with, but besides our ancestor Thomas Hamblin, it is likely that Mackerness also had a brother Thomas, and that his father's name was Thomas. To date, the first record of Mackerness Hamblin is in the Chesterfield County tax records in 1762, tithed with the family of George Coussens. In 1764, he is shown on the Lunenburg County (Cornwall Parish) tax rolls as tithable (taxable), no land, no carriages, no other family males (males became taxable at the age of 16, which would put Mackerness' birth at 1748, or earlier). It is likely that he was living on land owned by brother, Peter. There is a listing for Petter (Peter) Hamblen further down the page on the same tax record. A very careful examination of the tax records show a family unit of Thomas Hamblin/ Mackerness Goode living in Lunenburg County in 1750. It identifies them as living between Sandy Creek and Bluestone Creek. A birth entry in church records, identifies Thomas Hamblin and wife Phebe as parents of Peter Hamblin (born 1732). In 1764 the record shows Peter Hamblen and Mackerness Hamblin living in the same area of Lunenburg County that Thomas Hamblin and Mackerness Goode had been living in 14 years earlier. This information is the proof that indicates Thomas Hamblin as the father of Mackerness Hamblin, and solidifies the link between Mack and Peter Hamblin . Over the following years, the tax rolls never indicate Mackerness as owning property, so I believe he was living on Peter's land. (I have a record showing Peter Hamblin owning an 'ordinary' which was another word for inn or tavern - I would say it is likely that Mackerness and his wife ran the tavern for his brother...his brother had interests in other counties). In 1788, it is indicated that Peter moved to Halifax County

Martha Claiborne Jarratt was the wife of Rev Devereux Jarratt. Her father was Burnell Claiborne and her mother Hannah Ravenscroft. Martha and Devereux had no children, but were reported to have reared her nephew, Devereux Jarratt Claiborne. In Rev Devereux Jarratt's autobiography, he described his family as "my wife, her cousin, and myself." Rev John Coleman wrote in the introduction of Jarratt's book that Martha had an affectionate husband. In 1763 after Jarratt returned from ordination in England, he wanted a church. His job interview with Leonard Claiborne, Jr culminated with Jarratt's election as Rector of Bath Parish, Dinwiddie County, Virginia. Mr Claiborne was the uncle of Martha Claiborne. Martha may not have gotten just a new minister for her parish, but also a life-long partner. Rev Devereux's account of the first meeting with the Claiborne family was as follows: "I met with a civil reception from Mr Claiborne and his family, and we were presently free and sociable, as if we had been acquainted all our lives." Martha loved a man who risked ridicule for the sake of the Body of Christ in obedience to his Lord and Savior Christ Jesus. Martha served this preacher whose bounds of ministering had a diameter of 600 miles plus the three churches he alternated each Sunday. Martha would have to see him off as he preached in five counties of North Carolina and in twenty one counties of Virginia. Martha suffered when he suffered. When funds were cut off from the Revolution for years, Martha guarded the home expenses. Martha supported a man who sacrificed much in the "Great Awakening" in service to God. However, Martha also sacrificially gave of herself in her devotion to her husband and God's work.

Notes for Stephen Hamlin:

This family is well documented in several reliable genealogy sources as noted below.

A. The Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy (Volume 4, Ohio and Volume 6, Virginia) by William Wade Hinshaw

B. Library of Virginia (LVA) C. R. Bolling Batte Papers in the LVA .

This author accepts the birth date of 1715 for Stephen Hamlin and his marriage to Sarah Poythress in about 1750. This marriage date is an approximate estimation based on the birth dates of their last two children. According to Bolling, Sarah Poythress was born 8/7/1731 and baptized 10/7/1731 in Bristol Parish, Virginia. Bolling lists her as unmarried in his research notes. However, this was not the main focus of his research and many records had not been found for this family before his death. This author accepts this marriage with reservation. The Poythress family is not known to have been Quakers, however, Sarah married Stephen Hamlin whose family has a significant history recorded in the Quaker monthly meeting records, for this area of Virginia. In all likelihood, Sarah would have embraced the Quaker philosophies at about the time of her marriage to Stephen. Neither the marriage of this couple nor the birth of their children is recorded in any Quaker records. Prior to 1752, Quaker records are very scanty. It is believed that prior to 1752, this Quaker group met under the name of Pagan Creek Monthly Meeting. Hinshaw addresses this in (Vol 6, Virginia) his discussion of the "Black Water Monthly Meeting" as follows: Page 93 "The above constitutes the little of what we can know for certain of this ancient church court in its earliest days. However, from 1752 to the day the monthly meeting was laid down we need only refer to existing records to know what transpired in detail. In the tattered and torn volume of 1752 we find the family names of the early members of the meeting. They are: Briggs, Butler, Thorp, Pretlow, Bailey, Denson, Hollowell, Sebrell, Hunnicutt, Newby, Kitchen, Watkins, Hargrave, Clary, Simmons, Peebles, Brock, Hamilin, Chappell and others. These names are singular in their similarity with the families of Pagan Creek Monthly Meeting." As Hinshaw indicates, after 1752 records of these Monthly Meeting proceedings are well documented. Page 39 "We have only one torn dilapidated volume of the Pagan Creek Monthly Meeting left us. It opens 1738-7th month and ends 1752-4th month. Pages are missing from the front. But even this volume gives some little information on the monthly meeting that it is almost negligible. No Particular meetings are mentioned nor anything that aids in defining its limits and status. However, it must be seriously considered that on the page that contains the first minute (dated 1738-7th month) there is a list of representatives to or from some meetings. This paragraph reads thus, 'Rebecca Pretlow for Surry and Elizabeth Cornwell and Sarah Hunnicutt for Burley, Tabitha Butler and A Butler for Butler's meeting; Mary Bailey and Martha Hargrave for Black Water, Sarah Hamlin, Christian Stanton" (for Stantons Meeting). Sarah gave birth to six children (three sons and three daughters) after her marriage to Stephen. The first record for this family is interesting. It would appear that Stephen approached the Virginia court on his wife's behalf and at the recommendation of the Quaker Monthly Meeting (Frs eg. Friends) in regard to a child (or children) that were born to her in a previous marriage. He is asking for reimbursement from the monthly meeting for his expenditures. There is no further record of this event or a previous marriage found at this time. Thomas Cryer may be a first husband for Sarah Poythress. Hinshaw Vol 6 Virginia: 1758, 5, 13. Stephen request requests requested to be repaid the costs of an appeal to the general court in a suit brought by his w's former h's brother for taking away her child to whom he had been appointed guardian by the court, he proceeded by advice of Frs. Little else is recorded of Stephen and Sarah. The following entry does give us Stephen's date of death. Hinshaw Vol 6 Virginia: 1775, 3, 18. Stephen, an elder Overseer of

Stanton's particular or preparative meeting, Sussex Co, mentioned as being deceased: another co in his place. Stephen left a will dated 1/8/1773 and probated 4/20/1775 (LVA Wills, Book C Pg 162 Sussex County Virginia). Unlike most wills at that time, it appears to be straightforward and remarkably uncomplicated. See transcription of will in Mary Hoffer's book.

By Mary E Stoll:

Stephen sold to his cousin, James Rookings, of Surry County, 126 acres of land which had been sold by Gregory Rawlins to Stephen's father, Charles Hamlin, the 10th of Apr, 1714.(2) The land had been willed to Stephen by his father.(3) Surry County was divided in 1753 (4) to form Sussex County and then Stephen's land became part of the new county. The only record on file in Sussex County, of purchases of land by Stephen was the deed dated the 19th of Aug, 1772, when Stephen Hamlin bought about 200 acres in Sussex County from John Murphy of Bute County, Province of North Carolina, the new acreage being bounded in part by Stephen's own land. However, in Dinwiddie County, VA, the estate of Stephen Hamlin was taxed on 2,200 plus 850 acres in 1787 and 2200, 850 plus 303 acres in 1788-1800.(4) The Dinwiddie land records were lost during the War Between The States. Although other Virginia Hamlin families belonged to the state church, Stephen was a Quaker. On the 16th of May, 1767, he was granted a certificate excusing him from military service. (Probably Virginia Militia.) At the time of his death he was an elder overseer of Stanton's Particular (Preparatory) Meeting. Stephen died before the 18th of Mar, 1775, in Sussex County.(5) He had married prior to 1749: Mrs Sarah Cryer,(6) the widow of Robert Cryer. Sarah and Robert were the parents of a daughter, Elizabeth Cryer, born circa 1746. William Cryer, a brother of Robert Cryer,(7) instigated a suit against Stephen and Sarah Hamlin because Stephen had not given him a financial statement of the estate of Elizabeth Cryer. The original court papers have been lost, but the suit was continued Apr 15, 1757. At the Virginia Yearly Meeting May 13, 1758, Stephen Hamlin "requested to be repaid the costs of an appeal to the general court in a suit brought by his wife's former husband's brother for taking away her child to whom he had been appointed guardian by the court. He proceeded by advice of Friends."(8) May 16, 1760, the case in Sussex County order book was marked "Dismissed."(9) The accounting of the Estate of Elizabeth Cryer, infant, orphan of Robert Cryer, dec'd, by Stephen Hamlin was recorded Sep 17, 1761, in Book 1754 89, page 44 and Sep 16, 1762, in same Guardian Account Book, p. 64 as follows: (see copy of document in Mary Hoffer's book) After Stephen's death an inventory was taken of his estate the 1st of Jun, 1775: (estate inventory document in Mary Hoffer's book). Although, as Quakers, the Stephen Hamlin sons and son in laws did not join the Continental Army, they did furnish some provisions for the army. In the "claims" against the new State of Virginia are:(10) Apr 8, 1782 William Hamlin 225 lbs beef 2 pounds 5 shillings Sarah Hamlin 169 gals brandy 82 pounds 5 shillings Dec 2, 1783 (By the Court of Sussex County, VA)(11) Paid William Hamlin, for brandy furnished CAL 10 pounds 8 shillings. Paid Sarah Hamlin for beef furnished CAL 2 pounds 16 shillings 3 pence. Sarah Hamlin emancipated her slaves Jun 25, 1788 (emancipation document in Mary Hoffer's book). It is interesting to note that Sarah had been asked by the Quakers to free her slaves in 1782. It is recorded in the Black Water Monthly Meeting, the 19th of Oct, 1782, that "Sarah, an elder, refused to free her slaves at this time, 'saying she does not see it to be her duty at present'." (Hinshaw, Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy, Vol. VI, p. 107 under Hamlin). Both William and Charles had emancipated their slaves before Sarah did. Since the estate had not been settled at the time that Sarah relinquished her slaves, another legal document ensued: (see emancipation document in Mary Hoffer's book). Sarah Hamlin died after 25 Jun, 1788, and probably before the Stephen Hamlin estate was divided the 29th of Nov, 1790. The land in Stephen Hamlin's estate was not divided until 1790, probably following the death of Sarah. The legal document concerning this division can be found in Sussex County, Deed Book G, page 592. In a Historical Sketch of the Hamlin Family written by E. L. Sebrell, Limaville, OH, Aug 25th, 1894, and copied by Daisy Wood the 15th of Aug, 1899, Stephen Hamlin's wife was said to be "a widow lady by the name of Sarah Portress (one of the several spellings for Poythress) whose maiden name was Cryer." It has been proven that the widow was Sarah Cryer; so Poythress could have been Sarah's maiden name. Andrews, in his study of the Hamlin family, stated "Sarah Cryer nee Poythress". Because many of his statements were not documented the information given is not necessarily authentic. In Virginia Tax Papers, 1782-1787, on page 54, Stephen Hamlin had 30 slaves in Dinwiddie County. Could this be the estate of the Stephen Hamlin who married Sarah Cryer since the land was not divided until 1790? Practically all the records in Dinwiddie County were destroyed during the War Between The States, as were some of the records of Surry, Sussex and Prince George County, making it very difficult to obtain a complete history of the legal transactions of the Hamlin Family.

(1) Since Charles and Susannah Hamlin lived in Surry County, it is presumed that Stephen was born there. Proof for the parentage of Stephen can be found on page 11. He had to be born no later than 1719 as he was a godparent by 1740 and a godparent and sponsor at the baptism of George Briggs, Jun 14, 1741; so had to be at least 21 years of age at that time.

(Register of Albermarle Parish, Colonial Dames, p. 31) He probably was born about 1715.

(3) Although the will is lost, the deeds make clear that Stephen had received the land through the will of his father, Charles .

(5) Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy, Hinshaw, Vol. 6, p. 10

(6) Although the maiden name of Sarah Cryer Hamlin can not be proven, it is possible that she was Sarah Poythress who was born the 7th of Aug, 1731, to William Poythress and Sarah Eppes in Bristol Parish, Prince George Co, VA The reason for this supposition is that Sarah Hamlin's grandson, William, had Poythress as his middle name as did another descendent.

William Poythress was the son of John Poythress; the grandson of Major Francis Poythress and wife, Rebecca; and the great grandson of Capt. Francis Poythress who arrived in Virginia in 1733. (The Virginia Magazine of History and Biography, Vol. VII, p. 71 and Vol. 33, p. 32)

Sarah Eppes was the daughter of Francis Eppes. If Sarah Cryer was the former Sarah Poythress, she was about sixteen when she married Robert Cryer. Their daughter, Elizabeth Cryer, probably was born in 1747. Elizabeth probably was married when she was sixteen, also.

(7) In the Bothwell graveyard in Dinwiddie Co, VA there is a tombstone inscribed, "Here lies the mortal remains of John, William and Robert Cryer, Three brothers who were born in the County of Prince George sometime before the American Revolution. This testimonial of affection and gratitude is placed to their memory by their nephew, Robert Cryer Booth." Robert Cryer Booth was born the 3rd of Nov, 1790, and died the 13th of Nov, 1850.

Notes for Sarah "Sally" Poythress:

By Jay Hamlin:

Sarah Poythress was the daughter of William Poythress and Sarah Eppes. She was born the 7th of Aug, 1731. Was she the Sarah who married first, Robert Cryer, and after his death became the wife of Stephen Hamlin? This question has been asked many times in the latter nineteenth century and the twentieth century. Honorable H Franklin Andrews when writing about the Hamlins in America gave Sarah Hamlin's name as Poythress. As he did not document where he found that name, it is not authentic. The Poythress name was spelled many ways in official records, including Poythers and Porthress. Robert Poythress, a grandson of Captain Francis Poythress had one son and nine daughters. Hence family connections over Virginia were said to be descendants of the "nine Mis Poythress" or the "eight Mis Poythress".

By Camille Hamlin Allen:

Stephen Hamlin and Sarah "Sally" Poythress had the following children:

81. i. William Poythress⁶ Hamlin I was born in 1750 in Prince George, Prince George County, Virginia, USA. He died on 17 Aug 1829 in Lexington, Stark County, Ohio, USA. He married Elizabeth Bridges, daughter of Samuel Bridges I and Sarah Stickney, on 20 Nov 1795 in Sussex County, Virginia, USA (this marriage ended upon her death 1815). She was born in 1775 in Wythe County, Virginia, USA. She died on 15 Apr 1815 in Lexington, Stark County, Ohio, USA.

Notes for William Poythress Hamlin I:

William's birth and marriage were not found in Quaker records, however, it is assumed from his father's will in 1771 that he had reached his majority. We can place his birth at about 1751 or 1753 given this information. He married Elizabeth (Betsy) Bridges about 1795 in Virginia. William filed emancipation deeds at two separate times. The first deed, dated 7 Aug 1782 was filed within a week of a deed filed by his brother-in-law, Jessie Hargrave. William's deed was proven in court on 21 Nov 1782. (see LVA Deed Book F, page 148, Sussex Co.VA) At a Court held for Sussex County the 21 day of Nov 1782. This Deed of Emancipation was acknowledged by William Hamlin a party thereto to be his act and deed and ordered to be recorded. Teste Jno.Cocke CC Cur. This first deed appears to have freed the two negros that William inherited in his father's will as well as a 6 month old child which may well have been issue from this pair. The author speculates that this deed was filed before William was married. It is entirely possible that upon his marriage, he acquired additional slaves through his wife and subsequently freed them as well. The second Deed of Emancipation (as follows) is dated 2 Feb 1787; nearly four and one half years after the first and was proven in court 17 Apr 1788. (see LVA Deed Book G, page 169, Sussex Co VA). At a Court held for Sussex County the 17th day of Apr 1788. This Deed of Emancipation was acknowledged by William Hamlin a party thereto to be his act & deed & ordered to be recorded. Teste Michael Bailey C.Cur. While William may have adhered to the Quaker edict in regard to slavery, he must have had other issues of conflict with his beliefs. The following entry in the Quaker records tells us that William was disowned over a conduct issue. Whatever the issue may have been, William seems to have been adequately remorseful and was promptly reinstated. Within two months of this event, William was granted a certificate of removal to Ohio indicating his good standing in the Quaker faith at the time of his migration. Hinshaw Vol 6 Virginia 1807, 3, 25. William condemned conduct & reinstate reinstated 1807,5, 23. William granted certificate to Salem monthly meeting which certificate is lodged in the hands of Wm. Wren to forward. William's wife and children were not recorded in regard to this migration and no further notes for this family appear in Virginia. The next Quaker monthly meeting notes are recorded in Ohio and indicate that William and his family did indeed establish themselves in this largely unpopulated and wild region of the country. According to these early Ohio Quaker records, William was rocf (received on certificate), however, his family was recr (received on request) without a transfer certificate nearly two years later. Hinshaw Vol 4 Ohio 1808, 6, 14. William rocf Blackwater MM, Val, dtd 1807, 5, 23 1811, 2, 12. Susannah, Charles, William, ch William & Elizabeth, recr. According to Hinshaw in his discussion of the Black Water Monthly Meeting, migration out of Virginia began about 1804 and may explain why William's wife Elizabeth and children were not transferred by certificate. There may have been too few Quakers left in the Virginia area to issue one. Hinshaw addresses this mass migration as follows. Hinshaw Vol 6 Virginia "This monthly meeting was so depleted in 1807 that the quarterly meeting directed that it should be dissolved. Only three of its once 14 congregations remained and they were exceedingly weak. Of these, Seacock and Stanton were united to the Upper Monthly Meeting, While Black Water was transferred to the Western Branch Monthly Meeting. The Upper Monthly Meeting was given the custody of the records and the long history of this ancient monthly meeting was at an end." 82. ii. Susannah Rookings Hamlin was born in 1753 in Prince George, Prince George County, Virginia, USA. She died date Unknown in Surry, Surry County, Virginia, USA. She married Jesse Hamilton Hargrave I, son of Joseph Hargrave and Martha Bailey, on 17 Aug 1771 in Sussex County, Virginia, USA. He was born on 08 Jul 1752 in Sussex, Sussex County, Virginia, USA. He died on 02 Jul 1807 in Sussex, Sussex County, Virginia, USA.

Notes for Susannah Rookings Hamlin:

Susannah was born in Virginia (most likely Bristol Parish) about 1752 or 1753. No Quaker records were found for her birth, however, her marriage to Jessie Hargrave is noted. Hinshaw Vol 6 Virginia 1771, 8, 17. Susannah reported married to Jesse Hargrave. According to father Stephen's will, Susannah was already married at the time it was written. Stephen left his daughter two negros named Tom and Rose as well as sundry other items. At some point in time, Susannah must have deeded these negros to her husband since ultimately, husband Jessie is the one to emancipate them. Jessie and Susannah appear to have leaned heavily in favor of Quaker philosophies. They not only emancipated Susannah's two slaves, but several others as well. Additionally, the Deed of Emancipation is dated 5/15/1782 and proved in court 10/17/1782, fully six years before the edict of disownment for slave holding was issued by the Quakers. (see LVA Deed Book F, page 137, Sussex Co.VA) At a Court held for Sussex County the 17th day of Oct 1782. This Deed of Emancipation was proved by the affirmations of Edmund Bailey and James Brock the witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded. Teste Jno.Cocke Cl.Cur. Most of Susannah's siblings, with the exception of William, did not act on the slavery issue for several years and appear to have resisted doing so until faced with disownment. Susannah and Jessie remained in Virginia throughout their lives.

- iii. Nancy Sarah Hamlin was born in 1755 in Prince George, Prince George County, Virginia, USA. She died in 1841 in Lincoln County, Tennessee, USA. She married James Abraham Hanks I, son of Luke Hanks and Elizabeth Glascock, in 1775 in Loudoun County, Virginia, USA. He was born in 1739 in Farnham, Richmond County, Virginia, USA. He died in 1800 in Pittsylvania County, Virginia, USA.

Notes for Nancy Sarah Hamlin:

As with most of the other children of Stephen and Sarah, Nancy's exact birth date has not been located at this time. Nancy (Nanny, Nan, Ann) did not appear to have the same conviction to the Quaker principles as her sister Sussanah and her brothers. We do know, that Nancy did not marry and did not migrate to Ohio with her brothers. She remained in Virginia with her two sisters after having been disowned by the Quakers for deviation from plainness in 1807. It is very likely that Nancy did free her slaves or at least ceased to own them by the 1788 Quaker deadline for emancipation of slaves since she was not disowned until 1807. Hinshaw Vol 6 Virginia 1782, 10, 19. Ann refused to set her slaves free saying she does not see it to be her duty at present 1807, 4, 22. Nancy disowned non-attendance & deviating from plainness. The first entry listed above for 1782, 10, 19 in the Quaker record is interesting. Two other entries for the same date have nearly identical wording and are listed for Mother Sarah and brother Charles. Nancy's biographical information (what little we have) is found in Stark County, OH.

- iv. Mary 1757 "Molly" Hamlin was born on 10 Apr 1757 in Prince George, Prince George County, Virginia, USA. She died on 07 Feb 1825 in Franklin County, Virginia, USA. She married Nicholas Jarrett on 22 Aug 1777 in Virginia, USA. He was born in 1755. He died in 1810 in Sussex, Sussex County, Virginia, USA.

Notes for Mary 1757 "Molly" Hamlin:

Mary's birth date, as with most of her siblings is assumed. According to Hinshaw, in his discussion of the Black Water Monthly Meeting, Mary was not a Quaker even though she married Nicholas Jarrot who was one. Hinshaw cites this couple in his discussion of slave emancipation as follows. Hinshaw Vol 6 Virginia "Nicholas Jarrot was willing to let his {slaves} have their freedom but he owned them through his wife who was not a Quakeress and objected:" It would seem that Mary's nonconformity to the family faith would have been wholly unacceptable if not for the fact that her mother, Sarah was most likely not a Quaker before her marriage. Mary's father, in his will does not seem to have seriously objected to his daughters lack of faith since he left her the same bequest as her other two Quaker sisters. One can only imagine what conflicts in their lives must have ensued from the differing philosophies of Mary and her husband Nicholas. While Mary is not mentioned in Quaker records, two entries are found for Nicholas. At the eleventh hour, Nicholas does free his (or his wife's) slaves just before the deadline mandated by the monthly meeting. The record infers that he was pressured into doing so. However, he changed his mind and retracted the emancipation of his slaves and was subsequently disowned. Hinshaw Vol 6 Virginia 1788, 4, 19. Nicholas [Jarred] still continued to hold slaves & seemed mostly determined to do so; he later freed them under the warning that he would be disowned if he did not 1789, 7, 18. Nicholas [Jarrad], member of Stanton's particular or preparative meeting, Sussex Co, "did some time past execute a manumission for all his slaves but very soon afterwards he refused to let them go free & demanded the papers", the said papers are not returned & he is disowned. This family appears to have maintained their way of life without benefit of the Quaker religion and in possession of their slave. They remained in Virginia as noted in Stark County, OH.

83. v. Charles L Hamlin was born on 22 Apr 1760 in Prince George, Prince George County, Virginia, USA. He died on 22 Apr 1809 in Salem, Columbiana County, Ohio, USA. He married Martha L Moore, daughter of Joshua Moore and Hannah Hargrave, on 07 Mar 1781 in Perquimans County, North Carolina, USA (this marriage ended upon her death 1803). She was born on 20 Feb 1761 in Perquimans County, North Carolina, USA. She died in 1803 in Sussex, Sussex County, Virginia, USA.

Notes for Charles L Hamlin:

Charles was born 4/22/1760 in Virginia and was granted a certificate to marry Martha Moore 4/14/1781. He and Martha were both Quakers and their births, marriage and deaths are, for the most part recorded in the Quaker records. Martha died in 1803 in Virginia and left Charles with five children; Stephen, Nancy, William, Mary and Joshua. No second marriage is listed for Charles. However, Charles, as well as son Stephen are noted in several records. Father and son did not seem to be wholly in unity with their religion on several occasions. Charles seems to have had a change of heart in regard to the manumission of slaves before the Quaker deadline for this action resulted in disownment and filed a Deed of Emancipation in court on 12/14/1787 and proved on 1/17/1788. (see LVA Deed Book G, page 139, Sussex Co.VA) At a Court held for Sussex County the 17th day of Jan 1788. This Deed of Emancipation was acknowledged by Charles Hamlin a party thereto to be his act & Deed & ordered to be Recorded. Teste M.Bailey C.Cur. After the death of Martha in 1803, Charles and his 22 year old son, Stephen seem to have thrown Quaker philosophy to the winds and enlisted in the local militia. The following entry is recorded by Hinshaw. Hinshaw Vol 6 Virginia 1804, 9, 19. Charles & Stephen, member of Stanton's Mtg, disowned for taking oaths & attending muster & enlisting in service. LVA Deeds listed for Sep 26, 1804 - records the transfer of 101 acres in Sussex County owned by Charles Hamlin to John Jarrett. Note that sister Mary, married into the Jarrett family and remained in Virginia. Charles, most likely accompanied by son Stephen migrated to Ohio shortly after having been disowned by the Quakers. Nothing further is known, at this time of Charles's second child Nancy. A History of Stark County OH, under the heading of "Early Lexington Twp Settlers" lists Charles Hamlin as amongst those who were early arrivals. Lexington Twp in Ohio had a large number of Quakers listed in this category and illustrates the discontent of these pioneer migrants in their previous locations. The History of Stark County by Baskin & Battery, 1881 also mentions Charles as an early pioneer in Lexington Twp on page 423. Charles did not live long after this migration. He died 4/22/1809 in Salem, OH at the age of 51. The other three children, still in their minority remained in Virginia for a time, most likely in the care of friends or family and remained in good standing with the Quaker Monthly Meeting. A few months after their father's death, these minor children of Charles are noted in the Quaker monthly meeting. It is probable that they migrated to Ohio under the guardianship of brother Stephen or one of their relatives. Uncles John and William also removed to Ohio. Hinshaw Vol 6 Virginia 1809, 12, 17. William, Mary & Joshua, child Charles, deceased, now in their minority & removed, granted certificate to Salem monthly meeting, Columbeary Co, OH. These minor children of Charles and Martha did not immediately remove to Ohio. They remained in Virginia for a further span of time. Upon arrival in Ohio, the Salem monthly meeting documents the following entry. Hinshaw Vol 4 Ohio 1810, 10, 16. William, Mary & Joshua, ch Charles, dec'd, rocf Upper MM, VA, dtd 1810, 12, 16 (The author notes a probable transcription error for either the date of the original certificate of removal from Virginia or the second entry referencing the same certificate in Ohio upon children's arrival.) A further history of this family can be found in Stark County, OH.

By Mary E Stoll:

Charles was willed land by his father and had slaves. He was a Quaker, and was asked by the members on the 19th of Oct, 1782, to free his slaves but he refused, saying he could not see that it was his duty at that time.(2) However, he did emancipate his slaves in 1788: (see emancipation document in Mary Hoffer book). In the Perquimans MM, Perquimans County, NC, it was reported the 4th of Apr, 1781, that Charles Hamlin had married: (4) Martha Moore, who was born in Perquimans County, NC, the daughter of Joshua Moore and Hannah Hargrave. Martha died in Virginia in 1803.(5)

84. vi.

John D Hamlin I was born on 08 Mar 1763 in Sussex County, Virginia, USA. He died on 26 Sep 1836 in Marlboro, Stark County, Ohio, USA. He married Elizabeth Johnson, daughter of Jesse Johnson and Phoebe Law, on 20 Sep 1794 in West Branch, Norfolk County, Virginia, USA (Western Branch Meeting House; this marriage ended up his death in 1836). She was born on 24 May 1775 in Suffolk, Independent Cities, Virginia, USA. She died on 01 Jan 1840 in Marlboro, Stark County, Ohio, USA.

Notes for John D Hamlin I:

John Hamlin, the youngest child of Sarah (Poythress) and Stephen Hamlin was born in Sussex Co, Virginia 3/8/1763. In his father's will, 12 year old John was left his inheritance. No guardian was mentioned in his father's will and it may be assumed, he remained on the family plantation with his mother until he came of age. John, like most of his family was a Quaker. On 12/14/1787 he filed a Deed of Emancipation (LVA Deed Book G, Pg 140, Sussex Co, Virginia) which was proved in court 1/17/1788. The text of this deed follows (see transcription of deed in below). At a Court held for Sussex County the 17th Day of Jan 1788. This Deed of Emancipation was acknowledged by John Hargrave a party hereto to be his act & Deed and ordered Recorded. Teste Michael Bailey ClCur. In this deed, he freed one female adult negro and five minor negro children. Hinshaw (Vol 6 Virginia and Vol 4 Ohio) lists some of the details of John's life as they were recorded by the Quakers. He married Elizabeth Johnson 6/20/1794 in Virginia. After their marriage, Elizabeth was transferred into husband John's Monthly Meeting and a record of the birth of their first three children is recorded. Hinshaw Vol 6 Virginia Records:

John had taken from him "under militia laws during the past year", 1 blanket & sheet. By early 1807, John made his decision to follow his brothers and migrate to Ohio with his growing family. He applied for and received a certificate to transfer to the Salem monthly meeting in Stark Co, OH. His arrival with Elizabeth and five children was recorded in the Quaker monthly meeting in Salem, OH. A further undated entry in these records lists the genealogy of the entire family. The 1830 Federal Census for Marlboro Twp, Stark County, OH lists John and his family. All ages are appropriate for this family. His nearest neighbor in William Nash, the husband of his daughter Lydia. John died 9/20/1836 in Marlboro Twp, Stark County, OH at the age of 73 and Elizabeth died a little over 3 years later at the age of 64. They are buried together in Old Friends Cemetery, Marlboro, Stark County, OH. John and Elizabeth's son, John Jr remained on the family homestead with his wife Lydia (Haines) and family. It appears that he did not survive his parents long and died 11/30/1842 after having been injured in a farming accident. Daughter Lydia and son-in-law William Nash migrated to Wells County, Indiana before the 1850 Federal Census was enumerated. Picture: "Sweet Hall," the ancestral home of several generation of Ruffins and their Claiborne kinsmen. This is a view of the side of the house. One can see that the old kitchen on the right has been incorporated into the main house. "Sweet Hall" has obtained a Virginia Historic Landmark designation and is one of the oldest ancestral homes of the American Ruffins. It is located on Sweet Hall Road (634 South) just outside of West Point, Virginia in King William County off Highway 30 West. Known to be buried in the little cemetery to the right of the kitchen is Thomas Claiborne, Jr (1703/04-1735), and his parents, Thomas Claiborne Sr (1681-1732) and his wife, Ann Fox. There are four tombstones remaining, but only Thomas Jr's can still be read.

Robert B Ruffin and Mary Elizabeth "Molly" Clack had the following children:

- i. William Hopper⁶ Ruffin I was born in 1752 in King William County, Virginia, USA. He died on 06 Sep 1825 in Raleigh, Wake County, North Carolina, USA. She died on 26 Feb 1827 in Hanover County, Virginia, USA.

Notes for William Hopper Ruffin I:

William Ruffin married Margaret Ritchie, daughter of Mary Ritchie and sister of Thomas and Archibald Ritchie, in Virginia in 1803.

Of the truth of this, we have had, during the past week, a most melancholy illustration. In our last paper we mentioned the death of Mr John J. S. Ruffin, and now it is our mournful task to record the decease of his father, our venerated friend, Mr William Ruffin.-He died Tue last, after nine days illness, brought on, doubtless, by a fatiguing journey to Virginia, which he had just accomplished. Our city has lost one of its most valued inhabitants; has been deprived of a citizen, whose private virtues secured the affection, and whose general conduct commanded the respect, of every one who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. Mr Ruffin was a soldier of the Revolution, and was present at the capitulation of York-town. When General Lafayette visited Raleigh, he called upon his associate in arms, and when the deceased spoke of the service in which he was engaged in that affair, so honorable to our country, the General, (whose active memory seems to grasp every thing,) remembered perfectly every incident, and recounted every particular of the achievement in which they had been connected. Mr Ruffin possessed talents of the first order, though he was placed in no situation during his residence in this City fairly to develop them. He was a distinguished member of the Virginia Legislature, for many years, previous to his removal from that State, of which he was a native. His political information was perhaps surpassed by few, and his memory was a perfect chronicle of events connected with the history of the United States, He was an inflexible Republican, and in no breast did the amor patriae glow with more purity and fervor. In addition to the other traits in the character of this excellent man, he was an exemplary Christian, and one of the brightest ornaments of the Methodist Church, of which he was an old and most influential member; and in his dying moments, he bore testimony to the efficacy of that Religion which he had so zealously espoused. It was a singular, and to him and them a truly gratifying circumstance, that his children, some of whom lived in extreme parts of our country, were, at the time of his death, all collected together at his house, and were thus afforded an opportunity of administering to his wants, and receiving the blessing of their highly revered Parent.

- ii. James B Ruffin was born in 1754 in Dinwiddie County, Virginia, USA. He died on 11 Sep 1802 in King William County, Virginia, USA. He married Mary "Molly" E Roane, daughter of William Roane I and Sarah Upshaw, on 16 Mar 1782. She was born on 02 Nov 1761 in King William County, Virginia, USA. She died in Nov 1807 in King William County, Virginia, USA.

Notes for James B Ruffin:

James was one of seven children born to Col. Robert (1720-1777) and Mary "Molly" Clack (1724-abt 1807) at "Mayfield". This brick structure is the oldest surviving building in Dinwiddie County, Virginia and was probably constructed around 1750. About 1769, Robert Ruffin moved his family to King William County where they inhabited a former Claiborne home, "Sweet Hall" which consisted of about 400 acres on the Pamunky River at a place where a ferry took people across the river to the nearby courthouse. Nearby was an "ordinary" (like a tavern or inn) called Windsor Shades, about 8 miles from Sweet Hall where travelers could take their rest. The Marquis d'Lafayette wrote at least five letters from this home-turned-tavern at "Ruffin's Ferry", and George Washington was also known to have stayed there. James Ruffin was a member of the Virginia House of Burgesses and was a trustee for the Pamunkey Indians. He served as a Captain of Cavalry in Major Thomas Nelson's Virginia Light Dragoons during the Revolutionary War. Following his father's death in 1777, he inherited the family lands and home at Sweet Hall, which had grown in size to several thousand acres. He married Mary "Molly" Roane, daughter of John and Susannah Jones Roane, Mar 16, 1782. They became parents to seven children, three of whom ended up "moving west" to Tennessee and Mississippi following their parents' deaths: James, Lucy, and William Ruffin. The exact location of James and Molly Roane Ruffin's graves are unknown, but it is believed by most researchers that they are located somewhere in the vicinity of Sweet Hall in King William County, Virginia.

Phoebe Rimmer [1800-1860]

Please know that several Rimmers have researched this family thoroughly for years, and because of recent DNA results, I have just learned about the Rimmer family within the last few years. I am always looking for corrections and/or additions. It was only when the picture of the Memorial Stone was posted on ancestry did I realize that these pioneers did not have memorials on findagrave. I put James and Phoebe in the church's cemetery since they were members of the church. If someone knows of elsewhere, I will correct. But until then, we will assume they are here in unmarked graves. I am a Baptist preacher's daughter, and I know how Baptists work. If you're a member, you're most likely buried in the church's cemetery. If this needs correction or additional info, please let me know. Not trying to step on anybody's toes who are far more the experts, I just wanted a place where all could place flowers and remember them on Findagrave.

Notes for Mackerness Hamblin:

By Eddie Hamblin of Virginia Beach, VA:

The relationship with Mackerness Hamblin is not proved by a will or legal document. What is available are marriage records of the sons and daughters of Mackerness Hamblin and wife, Mary. As of Jul 1996, our relationship to Mackerness Hamblin is probably based on those marriage records, census records, and logic. The name Mackerness comes from Lady Mackerness who married John Goode in Barbados in 1650. Their grandson, Mackerness Goode, born about 1700 was the first of three generations of Mackerness Goodes in Southside Virginia from about 1700 to 1815. The Hamblins and Goodes were very close, and probably related with Mackerness Hamblin's mother, likely being a Goode. Callihan Hamblin, the proven older brother of our documented ancestor Smith T. Hamblin stated in a county history, and was an Englishman. Research indicates there were only 2 "M" Hamblins in the southern colonies at this time, Maddox Hamblin of Maryland, and Mackerness Hamblin of Virginia. Based on tax records, it is likely that Mackerness Hamblin died in early 1815 in Franklin County, VA. Callihan Hamblin was not born until 1824, so any information he had of his grandfather was passed to him by his father, Thomas Hamblin. One of Mackerness Hamblin's sons, Stephen Hamblin, did live in Giles County, VA, for a period of time. In my research, I uncovered no evidence that Mackerness ever lived in Giles County. At this time, evidence points to Mackerness Hamblin as a direct descendant of Captain Stephen Hamblin, an Englishman who settled in Virginia around 1655. The thing that makes it nearly impossible to prove who Mackerness Hamblin was is that the area of Virginia where he lived was known as the Southside (south of the James River). During the Civil War, the southside county records which had been moved to Richmond for safekeeping were destroyed. No records may exist today that can prove the relationship to Mackerness Hamblin and his ancestors, I can only use what is available. It would be much easier if there were only one Thomas Hamblin to deal with, but besides our ancestor Thomas Hamblin, it is likely that Mackerness also had a brother Thomas, and that his father's name was Thomas. To date, the first record of Mackerness Hamblin is in the Chesterfield County tax records in 1762, tithed with the family of George Coussens. In 1764, he is shown on the Lunenburg County (Cornwall Parish) tax rolls as tithable (taxable), no land, no carriages, no other family males (males became taxable at the age of 16, which would put Mackerness' birth at 1748, or earlier). It is likely that he was living on land owned by brother, Peter. There is a listing for Petter (Peter) Hamblin further down the page on the same tax record. A very careful examination of the tax records show a family unit of Thomas Hamblin/Mackerness Goode

living in Lunenburg County in 1750. It identifies them as living between Sandy Creek and Bluestone Creek. A birth entry in church records, identifies Thomas Hamblin and wife Phebe as parents of Peter Hamblin (born 1732). In 1764 the record shows Peter Hamblin and Mackerness Hamblin living in the same area of Lunenburg County that Thomas Hamblin and Mackerness Goode had been living in 14 years earlier. This information is the proof that indicates Thomas Hamblin as the father of Mackerness Hamblin, and solidifies the link between Mack and Peter Hamblin. Over the following years, the tax rolls never indicate Mackerness as owning property, so I believe he was living on Peter's land. (I have a record showing Peter Hamblin owning an 'ordinary' which was another word for inn or tavern - I would say it is likely that Mackerness and his wife ran the tavern for his brother...his brother had interests in other counties). In 1788, it is indicated that Peter moved to Halifax County

Notes for John Hamlin I:

This article was printed in the National Advocate, NY, NY volume XV, Issue 4131, pg. 2 Thu, Mar 29, 1827. I think one could conclude that John died 9 Mar, 1827. From the Petersburg, VA Intelligencer. The following details are almost too shocking for belief, but we feel an obligation to publish them, as they are derived from an authentic source: Horrid Murder. - One of the most shocking acts of murder which stains the catalogue of crime in this section of the country, was committed by his negroes on the person of Mr John Hamlin, of Lunenburg Co. VA Fri night the 9th last. It appears that the murder of Mr H. had been in contemplation for more than 12 months. Availing themselves of the absence of the overseer, the negroes carried into effect their horrid design; first by choaking him to death, and then a brush fire, prepared for burning tobacco plant patches, they consumed his body and to avoid detection, literally pulverized his bones, strewed them in field, and turned them in with the plough. Mr Hamlin was an enterprising and intelligent farmer, whose death will be much regreted by that class of the community particularly, and society generally. Seventeen of the negroes charged with that offence have been committed to the Jail of that county to await their trial before a special court to be impannelled Mon the 19th last. Lunenburg, Mar 17th.

Notes for Philadelphia Jones:

Brief Life History

Philadelphia Jones was the daughter of Col. Wood Jones and Unity Claiborne. She was born about 1750 in Amelia, Virginia where she married John Hamlin and had son Wood Jones Hamlin. She moved with them from Virginia to Halifax, NC; likely due to land grants from her husband, John Hamlin, serving in the Revolutionary War. He is listed as an American Patriot, just as her father, Col. Wood Jones was. Their son, Wood Jones Hamlin, married Frances "Fannie" Virginia Alston of Halifax, NC and raised his family in Halifax, NC.

John Hamlin and Philadelphia Jones had the following child:

112. i. Wood Jones⁶ Hamlin was born in 1769 in North Carolina, USA (aka Robert Wood Hamlin; birthdate in question). He died on 18 Dec 1837 in Halifax County, North Carolina, USA (at home). He married Fannie Virginia Alston, daughter of Willis Wilson Alston and Elizabeth Wright, on 29 Oct 1799 in Halifax, Halifax County, North Carolina, USA (this marriage ended upon his death 1837). She was born on 01 Dec 1786 in Halifax County, North Carolina, USA. She died in Feb 1838 in Halifax County, North Carolina, USA.

Notes for Wood Jones Hamlin:

Colonel Wood J. Hamlin, 68, died at his residence in Halifax County, Dec 18, 1837. Col Hamlin, although unambitious, always felt and manifested a lively interest in the important political measures and doctrines which have at different times engaged public attention; and in the early part of his life he represented his Country in the State Legislature, in a manner credible to himself, and to the entire satisfaction of his constituents. He was a Republican of the Jeffersonian school; and at important and interesting periods, the partiality of his political friends, and their confidence in his integrity, and the soundness of his political principles, pointed to him, as one whose services the times demanded ; but his modest unambitious, and unpretending character, and his fondness for private and domestic life, were always such, as to prevail on him to decline in favor of others , those public honors which the confidence and partiality of his political friends would have conferred. In private life he was most amiable and exemplary. He was a fond and affectionate husband, an affectionate father, and indulgent master, and a kind and benevolent neighbor. With a consort who reflected his own virtues, and a numerous and worthy family, he enjoyed a degree of domestic happiness, which has fallen to the lot of but few. His loss will be long felt, and sincerely deplored by his friends and relations, to whom it will be a consolation to know that in his last moments he exhibited a resignation, composure and firmness, which is rarely witnessed.

81. William Poythress⁶ Hamlin I (Stephen⁵, Charles⁴, Stephen³ III, Stephen² II, Stephen¹ Hamlyn I) was born in 1750 in Prince George, Prince George County, Virginia, USA. He died on 17 Aug 1829 in Lexington, Stark County, Ohio, USA. He married Elizabeth Bridges, daughter of Samuel Bridges I and Sarah Stickney, on 20 Nov 1795 in Sussex County, Virginia, USA (this marriage ended upon her death 1815). She was born in 1775 in Wythe County, Virginia, USA. She died on 15 Apr 1815 in Lexington, Stark County, Ohio, USA.

Notes for William Poythress Hamlin I:

William's birth and marriage were not found in Quaker records, however, it is assumed from his father's will in 1771 that he had reached his majority. We can place his birth at about 1751 or 1753 given this information. He married Elizabeth (Betsy) Bridges about 1795 in Virginia. William filed emancipation deeds at two separate times. The first deed, dated 7 Aug 1782 was filed within a week of a deed filed by his brother-in-law, Jessie Hargrave. William's deed was proven in court on 21 Nov 1782. (see LVA Deed Book F, page 148, Sussex Co.VA) At a Court held for Sussex County the 21 day of Nov 1782. This Deed of Emancipation was acknowledged by William Hamlin a party thereto to be his act and deed and ordered to be recorded. Teste Jno.Cocke CC Cur. This first deed appears to have freed the two negros that William inherited in his father's will as well as a 6 month old child which may well have been issue from this pair. The author speculates that this deed was filed before William was married. It is entirely possible that upon his marriage, he acquired additional slaves through his wife and subsequently freed them as well. The second Deed of Emancipation (as follows) is dated 2 Feb 1787; nearly four and one half years after the first and was proven in court 17 Apr 1788. (see LVA Deed Book G, page 169, Sussex Co VA). At a Court held for Sussex County the 17th day of Apr 1788. This Deed of Emancipation was acknowledged by William Hamlin a party thereto to be his act & deed & ordered to be recorded. Teste Michael Bailey C.Cur. While William may have adhered to the Quaker edict in regard to slavery, he must have had other issues of conflict with his beliefs. The following entry in the Quaker records tells us that William was disowned over a conduct issue. Whatever the issue may have been, William seems to have been adequately remorseful and was promptly reinstated. Within two months of this event, William was granted a certificate of removal to Ohio indicating his good standing in the Quaker faith at the time of his migration. Hinshaw Vol 6 Virginia 1807, 3, 25. William condemned conduct & reinstate reinstated 1807,5, 23. William granted certificate to Salem monthly meeting which certificate is lodged in the hands of Wm. Wren to forward. William's wife and children were not recorded in regard to this migration and no further notes for this family appear in Virginia. The next Quaker monthly meeting notes are recorded in Ohio and indicate that William and his family did indeed establish themselves in this largely unpopulated and wild region of the country. According to these early Ohio Quaker records, William was rocf (received on certificate), however, his family was recr (received on request) without a transfer certificate nearly two years later. Hinshaw Vol 4 Ohio 1808, 6, 14. William rocf Blackwater MM, Val, dtd 1807, 5, 23 1811, 2, 12. Susannah, Charles, William, ch William & Elizabeth, recr. According to Hinshaw in his discussion of the Black Water Monthly Meeting, migration out of Virginia began about 1804 and may explain why William's wife Elizabeth and children were not transferred by certificate. There may have been too few Quakers left in the Virginia area to issue one. Hinshaw addresses this mass migration as follows. Hinshaw Vol 6 Virginia "This monthly meeting was so depleted in 1807 that the quarterly meeting directed that it should be dissolved. Only three of its once 14 congregations remained and they were exceedingly weak. Of these, Seacock and Stanton were united to the Upper Monthly Meeting, While Black Water was transferred to the Western Branch Monthly Meeting. The Upper Monthly Meeting was given the custody of the records and the long history of this ancient monthly meeting was at an end." Notes for Charles Benjamin Hamlin:

Benjamin moved with his parents from Sussex County, VA, to Columbiana County, OH, in 1807, and, a year later to a farm in Lexington Township, Stark County, OH. He sold his land in Stark and Columbiana Counties and purchased land in Tippecanoe Township, Marshall County, IN, Oct 12, 1854,¹ where the family lived in a log cabin. Benjamin died Feb 29, 1860, at his home in Tippecanoe Township, Marshall County, IN, from pneumonia, weariness and depression. He had lost six members of his family from typhoid fever in five months, beginning with a granddaughter and a son-in-law in September. A grandson died in Dec, then in Jan of 1860, two of his daughters died. In Feb, a few days before Benjamin's death, a son died. The winter had been bitterly cold; so, he had had to dig the graves in frozen ground. Benjamin was buried in the Summit Chapel Cemetery, which was across the road from the Summit Chapel Methodist Church of which he was a member. His estate was settled Jan 14, 1873. Benjamin was married Dec 11, 1828, in Stark County, OH, by John Green, J. P., to Susannah Snyder, who was born the May 2, 1812, in Hempfield Township, Westmoreland County PA, daughter of Benjamin Snider and Christenia Philippina Wilhelmina Catharina Hobaugh. 82. Susannah Rookings⁶ Hamlin (Stephen⁵, Charles⁴, Stephen³ III, Stephen² II, Stephen¹ Hamlyn I) was born in 1753 in Prince George, Prince George County, Virginia, USA. She died date Unknown in Surry, Surry County, Virginia, USA. She married Jesse Hamilton Hargrave I, son of Joseph Hargrave and Martha Bailey, on 17 Aug 1771 in Sussex County, Virginia, USA. He was born on 08 Jul 1752 in Sussex, Sussex County, Virginia, USA. He died on 02 Jul 1807 in Sussex, Sussex County, Virginia, USA.

Notes for Susannah Rookings Hamlin:

Susannah was born in Virginia (most likely Bristol Parish) about 1752 or 1753. No Quaker records were found for her birth, however, her marriage to Jessie Hargrave is noted. Hinshaw Vol 6 Virginia 1771, 8, 17. Susannah reported married to Jesse Hargrave. According to father Stephen's will, Susannah was already married at the time it was written. Stephen left his daughter two negros named Tom and Rose as well as sundry other items. At some point in time, Susannah must have deeded these negros to her husband since ultimately, husband Jessie is the one to emancipate them. Jessie and Susannah appear to have leaned heavily in favor of Quaker philosophies. They not only emancipated Susannah's two slaves, but several others as well. Additionally, the Deed of Emancipation is dated 5/15/1782 and proved in court 10/17/1782, fully six years before the edict of disownment for slave holding was issued by the Quakers. (see LVA Deed Book F, page 137, Sussex Co.VA) At a Court held for Sussex County the 17th day of Oct 1782. This Deed of Emancipation was proved by the affirmations of Edmund Bailey and James Brock the witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded. Teste Jno.Cocke Cl.Cur. Most of Susannah's siblings, with the exception of William, did not act on the slavery issue for several years and appear to have resisted doing so until faced with disownment. Susannah and Jessie remained in Virginia throughout their lives.

He married Catherine Bedolph Parker, daughter of William C Parker and Mary Ann Catherine Bedolph McKie, on 02 Mar 1826 in Surry County, Virginia, USA. She was born on 19 Aug 1808 in Cabin Point, Surry County, Virginia, USA. She died on 28 May 1888 in Cabin Point, Surry County, Virginia, USA.
83. Charles L⁶ Hamlin (Stephen⁵, Charles⁴, Stephen³ III, Stephen² II, Stephen¹ Hamlyn I) was born on 22 Apr 1760 in Prince George, Prince George County, Virginia, USA. He died on 22 Apr 1809 in Salem, Columbiana County, Ohio, USA. He married Martha L Moore, daughter of Joshua Moore and Hannah Hargrave, on 07 Mar 1781 in Perquimans County, North Carolina, USA (this marriage ended upon her death 1803). She was born on 20 Feb 1761 in Perquimans County, North Carolina, USA. She died in 1803 in Sussex, Sussex County, Virginia, USA.

Notes for Charles L Hamlin:

Charles was born 4/22/1760 in Virginia and was granted a certificate to marry Martha Moore 4/14/1781. He and Martha were both Quakers and their births, marriage and deaths are, for the most part recorded in the Quaker records. Martha died in 1803 in Virginia and left Charles with five children; Stephen, Nancy, William, Mary and Joshua. No second marriage is listed for Charles. However, Charles, as well as son Stephen are noted in several records. Father and son did not seem to be wholly in unity with their religion on several occasions. Charles seems to have had a change of heart in regard to the manumission of slaves before the Quaker deadline for this action resulted in disownment and filed a Deed of Emancipation in court on 12/14/1787 and proved on 1/17/1788. (see LVA Deed Book G, page 139, Sussex Co.VA) At a Court held for Sussex County the 17th day of Jan 1788. This Deed of Emancipation was acknowledged by Charles Hamlin a party thereto to be his act & Deed & ordered to be Recorded. Teste M.Bailey C.Cur. After the death of Martha in 1803, Charles and his 22 year old son, Stephen seem to have thrown Quaker philosophy to the winds and enlisted in the local militia. The following entry is recorded by Hinshaw. Hinshaw Vol 6 Virginia 1804, 9, 19. Charles & Stephen, member of Stanton's Mtg, disowned for taking oaths & attending muster & enlisting in service. LVA Deeds listed for Sep 26, 1804 - records the transfer of 101 acres in Sussex County owned by Charles Hamlin to John Jarrett. Note that sister Mary, married into the Jarrett family and remained in Virginia. Charles, most likely accompanied by son Stephen migrated to Ohio shortly after having been disowned by the Quakers. Nothing further is known, at this time of Charles's second child Nancy. A History of Stark County OH, under the heading of "Early Lexington Twp Settlers" lists Charles Hamlin as amongst those who were early arrivals. Lexington Twp in Ohio had a large number of Quakers listed in this category and illustrates the discontent of these pioneer migrants in their previous locations. The History of Stark County by Baskin & Battery, 1881 also mentions Charles as an early pioneer in Lexington Twp on page 423. Charles did not live long after this migration. He died 4/22/1809 in Salem, OH at the age of 51. The other three children, still in their minority remained in Virginia for a time, most likely in the care of friends or family and remained in good standing with the Quaker Monthly Meeting. A few months after their father's death, these minor children of Charles are noted in the Quaker monthly meeting. It is probable that they migrated to Ohio under the guardianship of brother Stephen or one of their relatives. Uncles John and William also removed to Ohio. Hinshaw Vol 6 Virginia 1809, 12, 17. William, Mary & Joshua, child Charles, deceased, now in their minority & removed, granted certificate to Salem monthly meeting, Columbeary Co, OH. These minor children of Charles and Martha did not immediately remove to Ohio. They remained in Virginia for a further span of time. Upon arrival in Ohio, the Salem monthly meeting documents the following entry. Hinshaw Vol 4 Ohio 1810, 10, 16. William, Mary & Joshua, ch Charles, dec'd, rocf Upper MM, VA, dtd 1810, 12, 16 (The author notes a probable transcription error for either the date of the original certificate of removal from Virginia or the second entry referencing the same certificate in Ohio upon children's arrival.) A further history of this family can be found in Stark County, OH.

By Mary E Stoll:

Charles was willed land by his father and had slaves. He was a Quaker, and was asked by the members on the 19th of Oct, 1782, to free his slaves but he refused, saying he could not see that it was his duty at that time.(2) However, he did emancipate his slaves in 1788: (see emancipation document in Mary Hoffer book). In the Perquimans MM, Perquimans County, NC, it was reported the 4th of Apr, 1781, that Charles Hamlin had married: (4) Martha Moore, who was born in Perquimans County, NC, the daughter of Joshua Moore and Hannah Hargrave. Notes for John D Hamlin I:

John Hamlin, the youngest child of Sarah (Poythress) and Stephen Hamlin was born in Sussex Co, Virginia 3/8/1763. In his father's will, 12 year old John was left his inheritance. No guardian was mentioned in his father's will and it may be assumed, he remained on the family plantation with his mother until he came of age. John, like most of his family was a Quaker. On 12/14/1787 he filed a Deed of Emancipation (LVA Deed Book G, Pg 140, Sussex Co, Virginia) which was proved in court 1/17/1788. The text of this deed follows (see transcription of deed in below). At a Court held for Sussex County the 17th Day of Jan 1788. This Deed of Emancipation was acknowledged by John Hargrave a party hereto to be his act & Deed and ordered Recorded. Teste Michael Bailey CICur. In this deed, he freed one female adult negro and five minor negro children. Hinshaw (Vol 6 Virginia and Vol 4 Ohio) lists some of the details of John's life as they were recorded by the Quakers. He married Elizabeth Johnson 6/20/1794 in Virginia. After their marriage, Elizabeth was transferred into husband John's Monthly Meeting and a record of the birth of their first three children is recorded. Hinshaw Vol 6 Virginia Records: 1794, 9, 20. Like all Quakers, John had his problems with political and religious conflicts. The following entry illustrates this. Hinshaw Vol 6 Virginia Records: 1805, 4, 25. John had taken from him "under militia laws during the past year", 1 blanket & sheet. By early 1807, John made his decision to follow his brothers and migrate to Ohio with his growing family. He applied for and received a certificate to transfer to the Salem monthly meeting in Stark Co, OH. His arrival with Elizabeth and five children was recorded in the Quaker monthly meeting in Salem, OH. A further undated entry in these records lists the genealogy of the entire family. The 1830 Federal Census for Marlboro Twp, Stark County, OH lists John and his family. All ages are appropriate for this family. His nearest neighbor in William Nash, the husband of his daughter Lydia. John died 9/20/1836 in Marlboro Twp, Stark County, OH at the age of 73 and Elizabeth died a little over 3 years later at the age of 64. They are buried together in Old Friends Cemetery, Marlboro, Stark County, OH. John and Elizabeth's son, John Jr remained on the family homestead with his wife Lydia (Haines) and family. It appears that he did not survive his parents long and died 11/30/1842 after having been injured in a farming accident. Daughter Lydia and son-in-law William Nash migrated to Wells County, Indiana before the 1850 Federal Census was enumerated. Notes for Mary Jane Hamlin:

By Lyle Borton:

I found a tintype of Mary Hamlin and her son Silas (and a child). I also have the Divorce record from Stark County in Oct 1859 and other legal documents contained in Mary's civil war pension application. These plus the 250 civil war letters and papers known as the Lincoln Borton collection provide the following information.

Mary and Isaiah was divorced in Oct 1859, shortly after Isaiah's niece (Evangeline Borton) gave birth to Isaiah's illegitimate son (Wendell Borton) in Stark County, OH. In the divorce Mary cited extreme cruelty and gross neglect as her grounds not infidelity. But as Quakers seldom divorced for reasons other than infidelity, you have to think that that was the final straw. The divorce was granted and Isaiah ordered to pay specified settlement to Mary.

Mary was invited to move to Fulton County by Isaiah's Brothers Asa and Ezra, they sided with her in the break. She moved to Fulton County with all of her family, less Isaiah, (both adult and minor children). The 1860 census shows her living in Fulton County Franklin Twp near brother-in-laws Ezra and Asa and their families. Angeline Moved to Fulton County with Wendell, staying with her father Ezra and his wife in Franklin Twp. In Apr 1861 Angeline left her son Wendell with her father and stepmother and went to Adrian MI where she married James Richards and later moved to Nebraska. While Mary divorced Isaiah she still adhered to Quaker beliefs and did not re-marry (based on literal teachings of Christ on divorce and re-marriage). Isaiah felt no such compulsion

In 1863 Ezra's second wife died, he was nearly blind and could not keep Wendell, of all people Mary Hamline-Borton took him in for the duration of the War. While Wendell may have been half-brother to her children, his birth was a big contributor to the break-up of her family. Her daughter Rhoda strongly advised her against it, but Mary did what she considered right. Mary comes across as a strong woman. The letters show that while his children still loved Isaiah, they were pretty much estranged from him (they hated his new wife). They especially were angry that he delayed payment for Mary's 1/2 of the Stark County farm that Isaiah and Mary still owned. He did not even make interest payment until his full payment in 1863. Meanwhile Mary and her children tried to hold on to and maintain their Fulton County farm. In 1862 Elwood went to Stark County to get Isaiah to at least make an interest payment to Mary. Isaiah did not, and their son Silas agreed to pay the interest payments to Mary with the understanding that Isaiah would pay Silas back,

Isaiah even fudged on that.

In 1860 Mary and Isaiah's son John died. During the War she lost 2 more sons (James Elwood and Simeon). Her letters (Wrote through her daughters, as Mary could not write) show she never became bitter but was totally invested in her family. There were numerous letters to her Hamlin Sisters, Ann Milligan and Jane Marmon. Some returning letters are very poignant as Jane describes the death of her husband and later death of their sister. These letters reside in the Fulton County museum (the Lincoln Borton collection).

I have always questioned rather Isaiah was really buried in the Tedrow cemetery with Mary. But I am now fairly sure that he is. While we think that he died in Stark County, Mary and Isaiah each have a separate small stone next to their family marker in the Tedrow cemetery. Cemetery records also have him buried there. It took a lot of Grace for her to allow him to be buried next to her, but in her belief, marriage was forever, and in God's eyes they were still married (A literal translation of Jesus's teaching in Mathew 19). You really have to admire Mary Hamlin-Borton.

Notes for Callahan H Hamblin:

Dr C. M. Hamblin was born in Franklin County, Virginia, Mar 4, 1824. His father, Thomas Hamblin, was a native of Giles County, Virginia, and his grandfather, M. Hamblin, came with his wife from England. The former died in Kentucky, in 1847, his widow surviving until 1858. They had seven children. C.M. grew up on a farm, and by study at home and attending the common schools, obtained a good education. The family moved to Kentucky in 1833. In 1856, he came to Missouri and settled in Vernon County, entering 900 acres of land, which he commenced to improve. When the war broke out he joined the Fifteenth Missouri Cavalry, was appointed hospital steward, and acted as assistant surgeon with Surgeon Maynard. He had studied medicine previous to entering the army, and he was necessarily obliged to prescribe for the sick. Having the advice of the surgeon, and assisting in many surgical operations, it proved a good school, of which he at once took advantage. At the close of the war he returned to Kentucky, where he remained until 1872, then came to Osceola, and engaged in the practice of medicine. He has had charge of the sick at the poor farm for five years by appointment, and is the present county physician. Dr H. married Miss Lucinda Sutherland in 1846. She was the daughter of David Sutherland, of Kentucky, originally from Scotland. They have five children living: John Robert, Daniel, Mollie, Callahan and Minnis. The doctor is a Republican. He has belonged to the Christian Church for thirty years, and he is a Mason.

By Amy Kay Hamlin

Thomas Vestal Hamlin was Clerk of Court in Surry County. His picture is actually up in the courthouse. He is my great, great grandfather. He played the fiddle. The story goes that he played so well that there were competitions around the area. On his deathbed, his 8(?) sons and the rest of the family gathered around his bed and one asked who would get the fiddle. He said that they had to compete for it. The sons competed. The youngest son, Crawley Stephen, my great grandfather, won. Recently, I made acquaintance with a first cousin, the son of my aunt, Judy Hamlin Brendle. He had a CD of ggpa's son, Tom Hamlin, fiddlin'. I've never heard anything like it! (Tom was Crawley Steven Hamlin's son, my gpa w. Claude's brother.) Tom won multiple competitions, including the infamous Union Grove Fiddler's Convention

Notes for John Hamlin I:

This article was printed in the National Advocate, NY, NY volume XV, Issue 4131, pg. 2 Thu, Mar 29, 1827. I think one could conclude that John died 9 Mar, 1827. From the Petersburg, VA Intelligencer. The following details are almost too shocking for belief, but we feel an obligation to publish them, as they are derived from an authentic source: Horrid Murder. - One of the most shocking acts of murder which stains the catalogue of crime in this section of the country, was committed by his negroes on the person of Mr John Hamlin, of Lunenburg Co. VA Fri night the 9th last. It appears that the murder of Mr H. had been in contemplation for more than 12 months. Availing themselves of the absence of the overseer, the negroes carried into effect their horrid design; first by choking him to death, and then a brush fire, prepared for burning tobacco plant patches, they consumed his body and to avoid detection, literally pulverized his bones, strewed them in field, and turned them in with the plough. Mr Hamlin was an enterprising and intelligent farmer, whose death will be much regreted by that class of the community particularly, and society generally. Seventeen of the negroes charged with that offence have been committed to the Jail of that county to await their trial before a special court to be impanelled Mon the 19th last. Lunenburg, Mar 17th.

Notes for Peter Stainback Hamlin:

By Gary Allen:

Peter, Virginia and their first four children lived in NC until 1838 when they moved from Leaksville, NC. to New Concord, KY. There Peter bought a dry goods business. Seclusaval was under construction by 1842 and about that time the family moved to the building site area then later into the new home. [Abstracted in part from a letter written by "Great Aunt" Sally Braswell] Peter was born in Lunenburg Co., VA [Diane]. See: The Hamlins by John O. Braswell (unpublished). See: They Went That-A-Way by Charles Hughes Hamlin (published). See: Gary Allen's Hamlin File.

By Randy Patterson:

Around 1838, Peter Hamlin and his wife, descended from French Huguenots, came to Calloway County from North Carolina and during the next year on their 640 acres built a Federal style house, which they named "Seclusaval." The bricks used to build the house were molded on the place. The house stands today on Highway 280 and is one of the very few antebellum structures that survive in Calloway County. The Hamlin family has been prominent in Calloway's history, and many of Peter and Virginia's descendants live in the County today.

- Notes for Lucy Hamlin:
Miss Lucy Hamlin, who has lived with her brother, Mr Charles Hamlin, at their home, "Scotland," near Leaksville, NC, for more than three score years, died Fri night; aged about 75 years, says the Danville Register. The surviving brother, who is close on 80 years of age, is extremely ill, so that his death is regarded as a matter of but a few days or weeks at most. The venerable pair was stricken ill at the same time, about a month ago. Their health had not been good for a year, but previous to then, they enjoyed unimpaired their physical vigor and mental faculties. In the vicinity of their life-long abode, Mr and Miss Hamlin were known and universally esteemed. The latter, especially, through her ministrations to the distressed and sick among her humble neighbors, many of them former slaves of herself and brother, will long live in the memory of these neighbors.

- Notes for Wood Jones Hamlin:
Colonel Wood J. Hamlin, 68, died at his residence in Halifax County, Dec 18, 1837. Col Hamlin, although unambitious, always felt and manifested a lively interest in the important political measures and doctrines which have at different times engaged public attention; and in the early part of his life he represented his Country in the State Legislature, in a manner credible to himself, and to the entire satisfaction of his constituents. He was a Republican of the Jeffersonian school; and at important and interesting periods, the partiality of his political friends, and their confidence in his integrity, and the soundness of his political principles, pointed to him, as one whose services the times demanded ; but his modest unambitious, and unpretending character, and his fondness for private and domestic life, were always such, as to prevail on him to decline in favor of others , those public honors which the confidence and partiality of his political friends would have conferred. In private life he was most amiable and exemplary. He was a fond and affectionate husband, an affectionate father, and indulgent master, and a kind and benevolent neighbor. With a consort who reflected his own virtues, and a numerous and worthy family, he enjoyed a degree of domestic happiness, which has fallen to the lot of but few. His loss will be long felt, and sincerely deplored by his friends and relations, to whom it will be a consolation to know that in his last moments he exhibited a resignation, composure and firmness, which is rarely witnessed.

Notes for Malvina Hamlin:

By Mary Hoffer:

Malvina Hamlin was born the 19th of Oct, 1850, in Lexington Twp, Stark County, OH, the 11th child of Benjamin Hamlin and Susannah Snyder. Malvina dearly loved her baby sister, Elma, and took much of the care of her. The older members of the family were cleaning the log cabin in preparation for the wedding of the eldest sister, Nancy. They had a bucket of scalding water on the floor for scrubbing the plank floor. Malvina ran into the cabin and skidded, the baby Elma falling in the bucket of hot water. Malvina scalded her arm while trying to rescue her sister. A few hours later after the baby had died the family found Malvina behind the cabin soaking her arm in the rain barrel. Rain barrel water was usually stagnant with leaves and mosquitoes in it. Malvina's arm became infected and she died 20 days later on the 26th of Sep, 1856, at home in Tippecanoe Twp, Marshall County, Indiana. She was buried in the Summit Chapel Cemetery, Marshall County.

From History of Allegan and Barry Counties, 1880:

C. O. Hamlin was born in Lexington Twp, Stark Co., OH, Feb 1, 1813, and was the third in a family of eleven children, - six boys and five girls. His father, Stephen Hamlin, was a native of Virginia, and his mother, Elizabeth (Felts) Hamlin, was also a native of that State, having married Mr Hamlin some time in 1807, afterwards removing to Ohio, locating on the farm where they died, - Stephen Hamlin in 1856, and Elizabeth Hamlin in 1878. C. O. Hamlin, like most boys of his time, passed his boyhood days with little advantages of schooling, and less time for play and recreation, hard work being the portion of nearly all in those days. At the age of twenty he commenced life for himself, working on a farm for the first years by the day and month. Then he learned the blacksmith's trade, and at the age of twenty-five he married, in Stark Co., OH, Dec 14, 1837, Miss Margaret M. Fisher, daughter of Reuben and Lavina (Knox) Fisher, both natives of Crawford Co., PA., where Miss Margaret was born, Aug 2, 1820. Mr Fisher's death occurred in Michigan in 1851 or '52, and Mrs Fisher's in Kalamazoo, in 1873. After the marriage of Mr and Mrs Hamlin they commenced housekeeping in the town, Mr Hamlin working at his trade. Bore they remained for nine years, and in the spring of 1846 started westward with their family of five children, traveling in the usual way of those days, by wagon, stopping first at Battle Creek for some six months; then moved to and settled on the farm where they now live, consisting of one hundred and sixty acres on section 32, and which only had a small improvement when they purchased, and, though Mr Hamlin has continued working at his trade, being the only blacksmith in that vicinity for many years, still has managed his farm with success and profit. Mr and Mrs Hamlin are the parents of the following children, who have grown to manhood and womanhood, viz.: Harvey R., born Dec 10, 1838; Melissa L., born Apr 13, 1840; Jarret H., born Sep 13, 1841, died Dec 12, 1861, in the army; Malinda N., born May 7, 1843; Maria O., born Dec 22, 1844; Caroline F., born Oct 23, 1848; Emeline M., born Aug 2, 1850; Ida A., born Sep 1, 1852, died May 22, 1873; Viola A., born Aug 12, 1854; Charles F., born Mar 31, 1862; besides these, three have died in childhood. In addition to the home-farm of one hundred and sixty acres, Mr Hamlin owns other land in the Twp to the amount of one hundred and twenty five acres. He has always followed mixed farming, but, like many others of this Twp, has of late years interested himself in fruit-raising, and with success. Politically, Mr Hamlin is a Republican, but never seeking the emoluments of political work, leaving for others who wish them the offices and honors. Their family are all grown to manhood and womanhood, and, with the exception of one son and one daughter, have left home seeking fortunes for themselves. Mr Hamlin built the first pier on this portion of the lake. It is now known as the Clapp Pier, and was built by him in 1860. Notes for Mary Emily "Polly" Coney:

A tribute to the Memory of Mary. E. Marshall, a Noble Woman. Mary Emily Coney (Cooney) was born Jun 10, 1815, on a farm in Lexington Twp one mile south of the place where Limaville now stands. She was a member of a family of eight children, two of whom died in infancy. Aunt Polly died Jun 24, 1908. Being a child of Christian parents, she united with the Methodist church in her young womanhood, and continued a consistent member all her life, in earlier life being an active worker in her chosen church. She was united in marriage with William Marshall, Mar 15, 1840. To this union were born six children, three dying in infancy. One daughter died about twelve years ago. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs David Lloyd of Limaville and Mrs Thomas McCallum of Alliance, five grandchildren and six great grandchildren. Mary Marshall was truly a remarkable woman with bright mind and intellect and blessed with a memory that was truly wonderful, at her advanced age memorizing long poems and repeating them to her friends. Her life was long, useful and busy, even but an hour or so before death claimed her, she was busy with the everyday work and interest. In the days of slavery she was one ever aiding in their deliverance, their home being a station of the underground railroad. She was much interested in the enfranchisement of women and in all temperance movements. She made many friends, enjoyed mingling with them, and a friend once-a friend always. She was a woman of high ideals of sterling worth and truth. Living so many years, nearing so nearly the century mark, she had witnessed many and marked changes and much progress in many of the interests she held as so vital to the advancement of the human family. Her home was ever open to the dependent ones with broad charity and hospitality. Her husband dying nearly 30 years ago. Her last years in a measure were lonely ones, but she had been blessed with kind and devoted daughters who, with their families had made the last days of her long life comfortable and pleasant by their tender and loving care as she neared the border line of life.

Perhaps the best known sugar maker in Stark County's history was Mr [Harry] Lloyd's grandmother, Mrs Mary (Aunt Polly) Marshall who operated the sugar house until she was past 80 and whose sugar and syrup were famous. When the sap is running at its height, boiling goes on 24 hours a day. It was Aunt Polly's custom to take over the night operation of the kettles, working alone over the fires in the center of the dense woods. She told her descendants that on several occasions she tended the kettles while the fire was lurking among the trees?

Mr Coney, of Rochester, died last Thu and was buried Fri. A few days previously he had been found in a semi-conscious condition, and it was supposed that he had been injured in some way by a pair of elks he had been trying to break to drive. Dr VanMetre, of this place, was called to see him and prescribed a course of treatment, but the patient refused to take the medicine and died without wholly regaining consciousness. He was quite an old man and had suffered a great deal from injuries received several years ago in a railroad wreck on his way from Michigan to Iowa.

Notes for Elijah Hamlin:

By Jay Hamlin

Elijah was the son of William Hamlin and Hannah Holloway, born, May 23, 1828, died Nov 23, 1892. He married May 5, 1850 Nancy Welch Roath born Apr 18, 1834, died Apr 14, 1917. Eli was 22 years old and Nancy was 16. She was the daughter of Sally (Sarah) Wood and Lorenzo Welch Roath. Eli and Nancy, after their marriage, lived in Williams County, OH, for at least 8 or 9 years. It is not clear if Eli's parents lived here also at this time, but in 1852 Eli and his brother Seth built the Pike School in Williams County. In 1855, Eli and Seth built the first steam powered saw mill in Primrose, OH. Ansalem Jones and his wife Mary Hamlin lived in this county. Ansalem stated the Eli worked for him from 1851 through 1859. Primrose was located very near Fayette, OH. It now is just four-corners with a house or two and an old cemetery. In the 1860 Census, we find Eli and Nancy in Mahoning County, OH. Sep 5, 1861, in Terre Haute, Indiana, Eli enlisted in the Indiana Infantry, Company B, 31st Regiment. He was 32 years old and listed as having blue eyes, light hair, a fair complexion, and 5' 10" tall. His assignment was working as a "physician assistant". One paper says "physician" but we are relatively sure it was in error as he was mainly a carpenter and a farmer. His Quaker background and the Methodist religion of Nancy was probably the reason he chose to work in this capacity while serving in the war. Eli contracted dysentery while in the service which apparently left him with chronic problems. He was discharged Apr 3, 1862. As a war veteran, Eli received a land grant in Missouri and tried farming there. While working in the field one morning, he heard a loud noise. He turned and saw his cabin in flames. At this time, he said, he walked away and never looked back or returned. His great-great-grandson, Percy Jay Hamlin, had his pocket watch that was dented as the wagon train ran over it on his move from Missouri back to Ohio. We were told that Nancy and Eli separated; we are not sure at what time. Percy Hamlin, his great-grandson, said his father told him that Eli lived with Ansalem (his son) the four or five years before his death and was in extremely poor health suffering from "dropsy". His legs would burst and weep. He sat most of the time in a chair with his feet in a bucket. They would take elm bark from the trees and pound it and put in compresses to draw the poison out. Eli died Nov 23, 1892. Nancy recorded his age in her bible as being 64 years, 6 months, and 2 hours. He died in Shephard, MI. He is buried in the Coe Twp Cemetery (aka Salt River Cemetery) there.

Other notes for Eli Hamlin

Eli Hamlin - b. <1828> Stark County, OH, d. 24 Nov 1892 Isabella Co MI, m. 5 May 1850 Nancy Roath Stark County, OH who was born Apr 1834 Ohio and died 14 Apr 1917 Stark County, OH and was the daughter of Lorenzo W and Sally Jo Roath - Census records indicate that Eli and Nancy lived apart sometime after 1874 until their deaths. Nancy and two of her children, Lorenzo R. and Mary L resided with Nancy's father, Lorenzo in Stark County, OH from approximately 1880 until her death in 1917; while Eli resided in Isabella Co MI near his son Ansalem. The 1900 Census listed nine children born to Nancy with only three surviving. Four deceased children and her surviving daughter Mary (McCann) were buried with Nancy in Lexington Quaker Cemetery Stark County, OH. The burial site of the remaining children is unknown. Eight of Eli and Nancy's nine children could be identified. Eli was listed as buried in Stark County, OH with Nancy; however, he was also listed as buried in the Salt River Cemetery Isabella Co MI which is the more likely location.

Notes for Shadrach Felts:

From History of Stark County, OH 1881 -

The Heritage Collection, History and Biography from Unigraphic:

Shadrach Felts, deceased; was born in Sussex Co, VA, May 22, 1794. His father, Jesse Felts, wife and two children, viz., - Shadrach and a sister, constituted one of the seven families who in company, removed from Virginia to Ohio in 1807. The party consisted of about fifty souls, viz. - Jesse Felts, wife and two children, Charles Hamlin and five children (his wife having died in Virginia); William and John Hamlin, each with a wife and five children; and Judson Jones, wife and two children, &c. Apr 22, they set out in their wagons to traverse the county and cross into Ohio, in search of a home in the new and unsettled West. They arrived at Salem, Columbiana Co., the following Jun. There they encamped on a lot which had been partially cleared, and were the recipients of much kindness at the hands of some few settlers at that point. Taking Salem as a basis of operations, they began to look around for permanent locations. Jesse Felts and Charles Hamlin soon set out on a prospecting tour, and wandered into what is now Lexington Twp., Stark Co., accidentally found the "Stanton" settlement, which has been made near the Mahoning, near Lexington village, several years before. The Stantons persuaded Felts and Hamlin to settle in their vicinity, and accordingly each made an entry of land on what is now Sec. 10: Felts 160 acres and Hamlin 320 acres; and to this place they removed their families, from their temporary encampment at Salem, in the "fall" of 1807. Charles Hamlin's son, Stephen, by this time had married the only daughter of Jesse Felts; they too came to this section, constituting another family. The Joneses and Sebrells moved in afterward, until the settlement was considerably enlarged. After about two years residence here, business called Charles Hamlin to return to Virginia, and on his way back here he took ill at Salem and there died suddenly. Jesse Felts died here in 1818, his being one of the first interments made in Lexington cemetery; his wife survived until 1840. Jan 30, 1817, our subject and Mary, daughter of Charles Hamlin, were united in matrimony, and began the battle of life for themselves on the farm where Mrs Felts resides to this day. It was a portion of the original entry, and has never been out of the hands of the family. They had nothing to begin with except the homestead and able and willing hands. For several years the only product which they had for exchange, for any other articles they were obliged to have, was sugar made from the sugar-maple. They struggled along and bore many hardships of toil and privation incident to pioneer life, but in their time have seen many and extreme changes. They had five children, viz. - John, Jesse, Charles, Edwin, and Richard E. Of these only John and Jesse survive. Charles died here in 1868, leaving a widow and two children. Edwin and Richard E. both enlisted in the late war; the former died at his home, Ft. Wayne, IN, from disease contracted in the army, and the latter died in Kentucky from a similar cause. In 1850 Jesse, then a young man of 24 years, went with an emigrating party to California, and has been there and engaged on the frontier as a freighter for over thirty years, at times being years without correspondence with his parents, many of his friends believing he was dead. But time itself could not shake that maternal faith and desire of Mrs Felts to see her son once more; in which she was gratified on a Dec evening of 1880, when to her, her long-lost boy walked in, not exactly like the youth of twenty-odd summers who left her in 1850, but a man of middle age, of venerable look and whitened locks. As it were, he providentially arrived a few weeks before the demise of his father, which occurred in Jan, 1881, who had long wished and waited "for to see his boy again". Mrs Felts is one of the few pioneers of the county who still survive; she was born in Virginia Apr 29, 1794; now well advanced in her 88th year, she is a woman of remarkable vitality, although of quite slender physique, is possessed of extraordinary nervous force, combined with good common sense and considerable executive ability, and one of those women in whose vocabulary the term "fail" or "can't" never had a place. Her eldest child, John, has always remained single and at home with his parents, and is well advanced in years, not being in a robust state of health. They pass their time quietly on the farm where Mrs Felts has lived seventy-four years. (Transcribed by Karl Hamlin Jun 2006)

Notes for Mary Jane Hamlin:

By Lyle Borton:

I found a tintype of Mary Hamlin and her son Silas (and a child). I also have the Divorce record from Stark County in Oct 1859 and other legal documents contained in Mary's civil war pension application. These plus the 250 civil war letters and papers known as the Lincoln Borton collection provide the following information.

Mary and Isaiah was divorced in Oct 1859, shortly after Isaiah's niece (Evangeline Borton) gave birth to Isaiah's illegitimat son (Wendell Borton) in Stark County, OH. In the divorce Mary sited extreme cruelty and gross neglect as her grounds not infidelity. But as Quakers seldom divorced for reasons other than infidelity, you have to think that that was the final straw. The divorce was granted and Isaiah ordered to pay specified settlement to Mary.

Mary was invited to move to Fulton County by Isaiah's Brothers Asa and Ezra, they sided with her in the break. She moved to Fulton County with all of her family, less Isaiah, (both adult and minor children). The 1860 census shows her living in Fulton County Franklin Twp near brother-in-laws Ezra and Asa and their families. Angeline Moved to Fulton County with Wendell, staying with her father Ezra and his wife in Franklin Twp. In Apr 1861 Angeline left her son Wendell with her father and stepmother and went to Adrian MI where she married James

Richards and later moved to Nebraska. While Mary divorced Isaiah she still adhered to Quaker beliefs and did not re-marry (based on literal teachings of Christ on divorce and re-marriage). Isaiah felt no such compulsion

In 1863 Ezra's second wife died, he was nearly blind and could not keep Wendell, of all people Mary Hamline-Borton took him in for the duration of the War. While Wendell may have been half-brother to her children, his birth was a big contributor to the break-up of her family. Her daughter Rhoda strongly advised her against it, but Mary did what she considered right. Mary comes across as a strong woman. The letters show that while his children still loved Isaiah, they were pretty much estranged from him (they hated his new wife). They especially were angry that he delayed payment for Mary's ½ of the Stark County farm that Isaiah and Mary still owned. He did not even make interest payment until his full payment in 1863.

Meanwhile Mary and her children tried to hold on to and maintain their Fulton County farm. In 1862 Elwood went to Stark County to get Isaiah to at least make an interest payment to Mary. Isaiah did not, and their son Silas agreed to pay the interest payments to Mary with the understanding that Isaiah would pay Silas back, Isaiah even fudged on that.

In 1860 Mary and Isaiah's son John died. During the War she lost 2 more sons (James Elwood and Simeon). Her letters (Wrote through her daughters, as Mary could not write) show she never became bitter but was totally invested in her family. There were numerous letters to her Hamlin Sisters, Ann Milligan and Jane Marmon. Some returning letters are very poignant as Jane describes the death of her husband and later death of their sister. These letters reside in the Fulton County museum (the Lincoln Borton collection).

I have always questioned rather Isaiah was really buried in the Tedrow cemetery with Mary. But I am now fairly sure that he is. While we think that he died in Stark County, Mary and Isaiah each have a separate small stone next to their family marker in the Tedrow cemetery. Cemetery records also have him buried there. It took a lot of Grace for her to allow him to be buried next to her, but in her belief, marriage was forever, and in God's eyes they were still married (A literal translation of Jesus's teaching in Mathew 19). You really have to admire Mary Hamlin-Borton.

Notes for Isaiah Borton:

By Lyle Borton:

Concerning the divorce of Isaiah and Mary. The Date is almost certainly in 1858 or 1859. The cause is infidelity on the part of Isaiah. He fathered a child with his niece. Wendell Borton was born 8 May 1858 to Angelina Borton. Angelina was Isaiah's Brother's, Ezra's daughter. (see attachment). Quakers did not divorce lightly, but did not tolerate infidelity, especially something like this. Mary divorced him fairly Quickly. While Isaiah and 2 of his brothers had moved to Fulton County OH in about 1850, Isaiah and Mary still owned their farm in Stark County OH. I have not been able to obtain the divorce decree. We know that Mary went back for the divorce because Elizabeth Hazen-Borton Isaiah's brother Asa's wife wrote a letter to Mary asking her to move back to Fulton County and making her feel welcome to return ((she did) see attachment 2). Mary was awarded 50% of the farm. Between the divorce and Feb 1862, Sons, Simeon, Silas and James Elwood went individually to Stark County to get Isaiah to at least make an interest payment to Mary. Attachment 3 is a letter from Isaiah to the boys about finally making a payment to the County clerk of courts in 1863. He ended up selling ½ the farm in 1862. Silas ended up loaning his mom Mary what were interest payments on Isaiah's share with the idea that Isaiah would pay Silas back (he even fudged on that). We know that the divorce happened by 1860 as a letter from their daughter E.J, states she has not seen him. In Jul 1861 there is talk of Isaiah's new woman. In a 1863 letter Isaiah was remarried. Mary did not believe in remarriage after divorce (Many Quakers did not) and never remarried. Angeline left Wendell with her father Ezra and married a man in Michigan (James Richards) and they moved to Nebraska. Ezra's second wife died in 1860 and he was partly blind and could not take care of toddler Wendell. Mary was the only one that would take him and raised him until after the war when Ezra had remarried. It took a special woman to raise the bastard child of her husband that had caused her so much pain, even if he was 1/2 brother to her children. That was who Mary Hamlin was, she would do what was right no matter of her personal pleasure. As to Isaiah's burial place. We know he died in Stark County, and have no reason to believe he is not buried with Mary in the Tedrow cemetery in Fulton County (as you have recorded). Each Mary and Isaiah have a separate small stone next to their family marker. It took a lot of Grace for her to allow him to be buried next to her and the rest of the family. But in her Belief, marriage was forever, and in God's eyes they were still married (A literal translation of Jesus's teaching in Mathew 19). You really have to admire Mary Hamlin-Borton large farm northeast of here and moved to it where he resided several years, later retiring and moving to Tampico. It was on this farm and through his research that the state established an experiment station and made through his direct efforts, the discovery that the low, swampy soils in this vicinity only needed potash to grow corn. If Mr Milligan left nothing but this discovery behind him his life would be benefit to hundreds and those who may till the soils in years to come. Jul 11, 1870 he was married to Loretta C. Coates and nine children were born to this union eight of whom survive. They are: Frank, Jesse, Gertrude Wetzell and Viola Kelsey of Tampico, Burton of Cornell, John of Chicago, Dora Buren of Streator and Emma McKenzie of Prophetstown. Also one brother, Thos. A man of good principles who always aligned himself with the forces in the community which stood for moral and social progress and he endeavored to carry out those ideas in the conduct of his moving picture business. Judge L.S. Ezell, Pioneer of This Valley, Dies in Oregon. Was Commissioner and Justice of Peace In Early Days of This County: L.S. Ezell, a pioneer settler of Carson Valley, and who moved to Klamath Falls (sic), Oregon twenty-one years ago died at that place last Fri afternoon at the age of 94 years. A short time ago Mr Ezell sustained injuries when he fell, and owing to his advanced age lacked the strength to combat the injury. Born in Kentucky in 1836, Mr Ezell journeyed westward with a covered wagon train in 1859. In company of Mr McKisck he wintered a band of cattle in Honey Lake Valley and the following spring moved them to the meadows where Reno now stands and sold the animals. The Comstock mines had been discovered and Mr Ezell worked in the mines and mills for some time and then located in Carson Valley and engaged in farming. When Gardnewrville was established, all of the eastside of Main St comprised a portion of his farm. He donated the lot upon which the Methodist church stands and from where his funeral was held Wed. Some twenty-one years ago he sold his holdings to A. Jensen and with his sons went to Klamath Falls (sic), Oregon, and bought a large tract of farm land, and made his home that locality since that time. The remains were shipped to Gardnerville, arriving here Wed forenoon and during the afternoon of the same day Services were held at the Methodist Church, Rev Henry

In the early eighties he served on the board of county commissioners and for twenty years was the Justice of the Peace of East Fork Twp. He also served for many years as a member of the Republican County Central Committee. He is survived by four sons, W. C. Ezell, Laurence Ezell, Frances Ezell and James Ezell, the latter being a graduate of the University of Nevada, and excepting the former, the sons accompanied the reman (sic) from Oregon to attend the funeral here. Mrs Huff, sister of the deceased was here from Fallon to attend the funeral. She stated that (sic) her brother was the third child in a family of fifteen children and with exception of one, all brothers and sisters lived to reach manhood and womanhood. Although she was but five years of age when her brother joined the covered wagon train she clearly remembers him dismounting from his horse, taking her in his arms to kiss her goodbye as he left on the perilous journey across the plains.

Apr 24, 1881, a tragedy occurred in Fair Grove which is still vividly remembered, and yet the subject of comment. The unfortunate affair resulted in the killing of B. F. Ezell by J. L. Smith. On the morning of that day there was a quarrel between them over a trivial matter.

Smith had engaged one Goodwin to work for him, but, later, Goodwin agreed to work for Ezell, and Smith accused Ezell of coaxing away his help. This quarrel was on Ezell's land, but as neither was armed, nothing serious resulted at the time.

Notes for Callahan H Hamblin:

Dr C. M. Hamblin was born in Franklin County, Virginia, Mar 4, 1824. His father, Thomas Hamblin, was a native of Giles County, Virginia, and his grandfather, M. Hamblin, came with his wife from England. The former died in Kentucky, in 1847, his widow surviving until 1858. They had seven children. C.M. grew up on a farm, and by study at home and attending the common schools, obtained a good education. The family moved to Kentucky in 1833. In 1856, he came to Missouri and settled in Vernon County, entering 900 acres of land, which he commenced to improve. When the war broke out he joined the Fifteenth Missouri Cavalry, was appointed hospital steward, and acted as assistant surgeon with Surgeon Maynard. He had studied medicine previous to entering the army, and he was necessarily obliged to prescribe for the sick. Having the advice of the surgeon, and assisting in many surgical operations, it proved a good school, of which he at once took advantage. At the close of the war he returned to Kentucky, where he remained until 1872, then came to Osceola, and engaged in the practice of medicine. He has had charge of the sick at the poor farm for five years by appointment, and is the present county physician. Dr H. married Miss Lucinda Sutherland in 1846. She was the daughter of David Sutherland, of Kentucky, originally from Scotland. They have five children living: John Robert, Daniel, Mollie, Callahan and Minnis. The doctor is a Republican. He has belonged to the Christian Church for thirty years, and he is a Mason.

Nancy is not Fairview Cemetery with her husband, however, officials there are searching other cemeteries in the area and will advise (see below): Based on that obituary and the 1900 census, she died in Logan County. She isn't buried in Warren County. I looked at the Logan County Cemetery book and she isn't listed. She lived in the Auburn area, so she was likely buried in one of the cemeteries near there. Her parents are buried at Old Gasper in Logan County. Another possibility is that she was buried at the South Union Cemetery at the Shaker Village. The South Union Cemetery was destroyed, but the Special Collections library does have a listing of some of the people buried there. I do not know if it is a complete listing and I haven't copied it.

358. i.  Mary Elizabeth⁸ Hamlin was born in Aug 1851 in Blacksburg, Montgomery County, Virginia, USA (birth father - no proof that it was John Thomas Shaver). She died after 1922 in Blacksburg, Montgomery County, Virginia, USA. She married Jacob F Smith, son of Abraham Smith and Rebecca Worley, (not a marriage). He was born on 08 Nov 1856 in Pearisburg, Giles County, Virginia, USA. He died on 16 Apr 1929 in Pearisburg, Giles County, Virginia, USA.

Notes for Mary Elizabeth Hamlin:

By Becky Hamlin Morris

Parents for Elizabeth are based on conjecture. Only available sources have been census records. First census she has been found listed on is the 1870 census for Montgomery County, Virginia. She is listed as living with John Shaver and Nancy Elizabeth Hamlin Shaver. Her relationship is not shown. Her last name is not given as different from John Shaver. Usually this implies that the person is a child in that household. She is listed after younger children, which is unusual. Her age is listed as nineteen, which means a birth year of 1851. Based on birth records for daughter Laura, she was probably pregnant with Laura at the time of the census. This may account for her being listed after younger children.

John and Nancy were not married until Nov of 1860. The 1860 census listed John as living with his parents and Nancy living with the Slusser family. Elizabeth is not listed in either household. I have not been able to find any birth, marriage or death records for her. She is listed on the 1880, 1900, 1910, and 1920 censuses as either single or widowed. She is not listed on any census as married. The 1880 census lists her as single and with two children, Laura and Will. Only other source for parents of Elizabeth is a statement made by James Thomas Hamlin that a picture of a man later identified as John Shaver was his grand father.

Her mother, Nancy Elizabeth, on the 1900 census gives number of children born to her as three. The only other children attributed to her are Annie L. and Charles Thomas by John Shaver, and are on the 1870 census, along with Mary Elizabeth. Based on this, I believe that Mary Elizabeth is correctly placed as the daughter of Nancy Elizabeth. I cannot prove John Shaver as father other than that she used the last name of Shaver on occasion. She usually used the last name of Hamlin. All her children used the last name of Hamlin.

Per Pauline Hamlin Kiessler, she said that she thought she remembered her mother mentioning that Elizabeth was adopted. She couldn't remember any details. It may be that she was the daughter of Nancy Elizabeth and later adopted by John Shaver, her step-father. There is no proof of John Shaver as either real parent or adoptive parent. I believe that Mary Elizabeth was born out of wedlock to Nancy Elizabeth Hamlin. John Shaver may have been her real father. There is no hard evidence that she was either adopted or natural by anyone. She may have been with Nancy at the Slusser farm and was missed by the census taker. Or deliberately left off by her mother out of shame. She could have been at some other residence and miscounted. I have not been able to account for her at any other relative's homes for this same census.

When I asked my grandfather, James Thomas Hamlin, if we were related to the Hamlins in Giles County, he emphatically denied that we were related. The overseers of the poor in Giles County paid for the shroud for the burial of Stephen Hamlin in 1866. With as many relatives as he had in the area, I find this odd. Apparently, Nancy had no contact with her family after she moved in with the Slussers. I feel that there was some sort of rift within the family. Whether this was due to his second marriage and family, or that Nancy had a child out of wedlock, or some other reason, I do not know. I have also considered whether there may have been an inter-racial issue. There are several mulatto and "bright" colored Shavers in the area at the same time. I do not know what the relationship might be between these people and the family of John Shaver.

Burial: Buried in Hale Cemetery in Coal Bank Hollow, near Blacksburg, Virginia. This is according to Dwight Hamlin. I do not know why she would have been buried in the Hale Cemetery instead of the Shaver Cemetery. The two cemeteries are in the same basic area. In fact, the Shaver cemetery would have been closer to her home.

The Hale Cemetery is located at corner of Coal Bank Hollow Road and Mt. Tabor Rd. outside Blacksburg, Virginia. It is not visible from the road. Turn right off of Coal Bank Hollow onto Mt. Tabor. There is a little dirt road on the right between the Coal Bank Hollow Road and a small house on the right. Follow that dirt road up the hill. There are two cemeteries on the hill. The first one on the right is one of the Slusser Cemeteries. Go past it and the next one directly in front is the Hale Cemetery. Many of the graves are only marked with fieldstones and not names on them. Mary Elizabeth's grave is not marked.

Notes for William Campbell Thomas Gordon:

William Camel Thomas Gordon, born in 1875, in Giles County, VA, was converted while still a young man, and at least as early as 1910, had become a "preacher" but was not ordained at that time. In the year 1910, he joined the then spreading Pentecostal movement, largely because of the preaching and influence of a Pentecostal minister named Clowers; and he became a literal follower in 1910 by moving the family to Montcalm, West Virginia, from Oakvale, WV, where Rev Clowers built what was called a "tabernacle," a rough wooden structure where services were held. I can remember, as a little boy of five or so, attending the services with my parents, and witnessing the dancing "in the spirits" and "speaking in tongues," that went on. I recall especially one night a large lady was dancing "in the spirit" and she fell backwards and landed on top of me and bloodied my nose. (This is not said with any disrespect). My father took up coal mining when we moved to Montcalm, before that he was a "section hand" on the railroad. He followed the mining trade throughout his life while preaching wherever and whenever he could. The ministry was his only real work, however, and he pursued it with a zeal that would be hard to equal. His ministry was always within the Pentecostal faith, and he was sometime later in life ordained by the Assembly of God Church. But he did not fully accept the discipline or creed of any church. His sole authority was the Bible, and he was quick to challenge anyone who deviated from it in the slightest. For him the only truth was within the Scriptures, and he believed them and expounded them faithfully. He refused to accept any scientific theories about the creation of the earth or evolution; and he insisted that the earth was not round and that the moon had a light of its own, the same as the sun, because the Bible spoke of them as the "greater ...and lesser light...". Restless by nature, after his conversion he could not be satisfied to stay anywhere very long. He appeared to be in quest of some great ideal or experience that always awaited over the next hilltop. In pursuing this quest, the family was moved with the next decade from Montcalm to Crystal, to Big Four, Ritter, Iaeger, Panther, Mile Branch 'Davy, Lone Jack, Garland, Panhandle, Marytown, Twin Branch Roderfield and a second trip back to Ritter, where we actually lived in four separate houses. In Iaeger, we moved into a house one day and out the next. At times, we kept chickens and once when we lived at Panther, our oldest brother, Mason, said that we moved so much when someone mentioned the word, the chickens would march up and and cross their legs to be tied for the moving. All the above places were in West Virginia. Then in 1920, we moved to Virginia, living at Seaboard, Ramsey, Norton, Imboden, Laura and then back to Norton where we lived in a total of three houses. In 1922, we moved to Dante and "settled" there finally, where my father died May 30, 1930. Interspersed with all these family moves, my father also took many trips on "preaching missions," one such trip being to Lancaster County, PA, the most notable thing about was the milk had a strange taste because the cows ate wild onions. He loved to play the organ and sing religious songs, and he also had a guitar which he often took on his trips and would play it and sing at some services, praising God. He also wrote some poetry, but not was published. He had bought an Oliver typewriter about 1917, and I had learned to type. He would have type up his others "song ballads" by the hundreds and would hand them out, usually free of charge, although sometimes he would receive a dime for them. He had mastered the Bible in a way no one else living to my knowledge had ever done during his time. He could quote almost any part of it-certainly and part that was of real importance. It was his boast, and no idle one, that on any important point of scripture he could quote you "book, chapter, and verse." I have never seen his talent for this equaled. His insistence on the absolutely literal interpretation of all Scripture Led to serious trouble for him during World Was I. We lived at Ritter and he attended Sunday School nearby. One Sunday when the discussion had to do with the commandments, in relation to "Thou Shalt not Kill," Someone asked the question, if a soldier in the line of duty killed an enemy, would he be "lost?" My father was quick to state according to Scripture, he would be-unless he repented. On the strength of that, he was "taken up" (arrested) on the complaint of a man named Dan Robers (a member of a different church who was somewhat radical and who had several disputes or "debates" about the Bible with my father).My father was charged under the Espionage Act of 1917, which made it a crime to say "unpatriotic" things, such as our "present-day protesters" get famous for saying. I was impossible to find a lawyer who was not afraid to put up a real defense, and so he was found guilty in Federal court at Welch, West Virginia, and sentenced to one year and one month in the federal penitentiary at Moundsville. He was pardoned after serving seven months. I have always felt, (even than a boy of 12) that he would have been cleared if his lawyer had just brought out the point my father had simply stated his religious beliefs, and referred to the Constitutional guarantee that "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof." (Second Amendment). But in matters of this kind I am convinced that he would have faced execution rather than "recant," Even as centuries before Martin Luther had refused to do.

He married Adaline Elector Lindsey, daughter of James A Lindsey and Sarah Anne Stafford, on 27 Sep 1888 in Giles County, Virginia, USA. She was born on 05 May 1867 in Trigg, Giles County, Virginia, USA. She died on 29 Feb 1936 in Pulaski County, Virginia, USA.

Notes for William Eggleston Hamblin I:

Rev W. E. Hamblin of Virginia Conference. Rev W. E. Hamblin was called to rest Feb 22, 1924. His death was due to heart trouble. He was married to Miss Lector Lindsey, Sep 22, 1888. To this union were born twelve children, seven boys and five girls. Two boys having died when quite young. So he leaves his wife, ten children, twenty-five grandchildren, a host of friends, and the P. H. Church family to mourn his departure. His body was laid to rest at Trigg, Giles County, VA, Feb 24, 1924, in the Wesleyan Chapel Cemetery to await the resurrection of the just. Bro. Hamblin was connected with the Christian Church early in life, and when Pentecost came he saw the light and walked in it, so he has been in the Pentecostal movement about fifteen years. He was ordained by the P. H. Church in 1912. Bro. Hamblin was loved by all. He had a good report without and within. He was some of the real salt of the earth. The shock to his dear family was so sudden, just like a thunder clap out of a clear sky. He only lived a few hours after being attacked. However, he had a little spell or two before, but nothing to especially alarm the family. Oh, how heart rending it was to them to give him up. Those married boys and girls just loved him like they did when they were little and played around the hearth stone. Just to say that they will miss him is not enough, for it looked like they just could not be reconciled to him going, and his dear wife, I shall never forget how she was overpowered with grief. Praise God because they do not have to weep as those that have no hope, for if they will be true they shall meet him again never to part any more. May the grace of God sustain them all in their grief. The funeral was largely attended. However, it was a real bad day. He was taken back to his neighborhood where he was raised for burial, and also where his two little children were buried. He made this special request to his dear wife just a few weeks before his death. I was so sorry for the family because they could not reach Bro. E. D. Reeves to conduct Services, as they so much desired to have him, and so it fell to my lot to fill the place, which I did the best I could. The thing that impressed me so was that the boys were not ashamed of Pentecost, as so many of our people's children are. Oh, how I admired them for the respect they had for their father's religion. They knew that he had the real goods, so what a comfort that must have been to them. Remember children your father's prayers, and may God bless you all, and may you so live that when life is over you all will meet again to never part.

He was a Private in the 9th Regiment IA Infantry during the Civil War. Biography from the Vermillion Newspaper Apr 1940 Former Elk Point Civil War Veteran Buried at Vermillion: J. C. Brammer, 97 year old Civil War Veteran, died at home of his daughter, Mrs Morgan Anglin in Vermillion, Wed, Apr 15, after an illness of about a month. Mr Brammer, who had enjoyed rugged health until within the last three months, died peacefully in his sleep. Born in 1845 at Lawrence County, OH, Mr Brammer was 97 years of age in Mar. He moved with his family to Center Point, IA when a small child. He had little schooling and at the age of 17 years he enlisted at Cedar Rapids, IA in the Ninth IA Infantry, for the Civil War Service. Most of his service was in the South. He was never wounded. He marched with Sherman on the historic march to the sea, and later was with the troops which were reviewed by President Lincoln in Washington. He was discharged from Army service at Clinton, IA in Jul 1865. Mr Brammer then lived an adventurous life for many years, his first western job being touring the West, as far as Fort Randial and the Black Hills, buying cattle for a Sioux City firm. He was married in IA in 1869, and three years later he and his wife settled near Elk Point and Richland. But his adventurous days were not over. He made two trips to the Black Hills when the fabulous gold rush there was at it height. In 1879 he met Calamity Jane, that famous and controversial Black Hills character. Later he became well acquainted with many of the well-known western characters. In 1894, Mr and Mrs Brammer moved west to Clay County when he became foreman of the Lee and Prentis Ranch. Later he bought a place of his own, and still later moved to Vermillion. Since 1926, Mr Brammer had lived with his daughter, Mrs Morgan Anglin, in Vermillion but had spent some recent winters with a son in Florida. He made many trips to Elk Point to visit with his old friends in this community. Mr Brammer is survived by two sons and one daughter, Dick Brammer of Florida; Harry Brammer of Vermillion and Mrs Morgan Anglin. He also leaves on sister, Mrs Lorinda Bailey of Urbana, IA, who is past 90 years of age. The military Services, which were largely attended, were held at Vermillion at 2 pm Sun afternoon in charge of the V. F. W.. Burial was in the Bluff View Cemetery. Notes for Thomas Vestal Hamlin I:

By Amy Kay Hamlin

Thomas Vestal Hamlin was Clerk of Court in Surry County. His picture is actually up in the courthouse. He is my great, great grandfather. He played the fiddle. The story goes that he played so well that there were competitions around the area. On his deathbed, his 8(?) sons and the rest of the family gathered around his bed and one asked who would get the fiddle. He said that they had to compete for it. The sons competed. The youngest son, Crawley Stephen, my great grandfather, won. Recently, I made acquaintance with a first cousin, the son of my aunt, Judy Hamlin Brendle. He had a CD of ggpa's son, Tom Hamlin, fiddlin'. I've never heard anything like it! (Tom was Crawley Steven Hamlin's son, my gpa w. Claude's brother.) Tom won multiple competitions, including the infamous Union Grove Fiddler's Convention

Notes for Peter Barton Hamlin:

By his great-grandson:

In 1868, my great grandfather, Lucetta's dad, was a young man in Reconstruction, North Carolina. For some reason, he knifed a black deputy sheriff and was in danger of being convicted and sentenced under the powers that were at that time his dad, who was a justice of the peace, told him to go to Texas. So he did. After several years, his dad told him it was safe to come back but he had already established his life in Texas. Notes for William Spencer Boyd:

William S. Boyd, one of the well-known and prominent retired farmers and old-time freighters of Irving, Marshall County, was born in Bath County, Kentucky, Sep 8, 1840, the son of Samuel G. and Roxlina (Markwell) Boyd. The parents were natives of Virginia and were early settlers in Kentucky, where the mother died in 1862.

William S. Boyd received his education in the schools of his native state, where he grew to manhood. He and his father's family experienced many of the hardships of the Civil War, but their sympathies were with the Union. In 1863 William S. Boyd enlisted in Company A, Seventh Kentucky Cavalry and gave nineteen months of active service to the cause of the Union. Much of his service was rendered in scout duty, and when near Springfield, TN, he was captured and served a time in Libby prison. After receiving an honorable discharge, he returned to his home in Kentucky, where he remained until Feb 1865, when he came to Kansas. He made the trip by way of Quincy, IL, and was accompanied by his sister and her husband, William Fenwick, both of whom are now deceased. They came to Marshall County, where Mr Boyd worked at grubbing for John Wells for six weeks. He then engaged as a freighter and made seven trips across the plains, his last trip being to Cheyenne, Ft. Mitchell and Julesburg, and he acted as a collector, in which he was most successful. He went as a hand under Bob Smith and William Wells, and on his first trip he acted as one of the bull whackers. He drove five yoke of good oxen, and was backed in the enterprise by John Wells. After several trips, Mr Wells had over ten thousand pounds of freight, which brought him twenty-two dollars per one hundred weight for transporting to Ft. Laramie. In Jun, 1866, with George Martin and Ed Stenniff, Mr Boyd started for Ft. Laramie with a train of freight, and were forty-seven days on the road. The freight bill realized two thousand dollars, less the expense. The like proved a hard one and was accompanied with many dangers.

In 1868 Mr Boyd retired from the work and settled on a farm in Wells Twp, Marshall County. In 1870 he homesteaded eighty acres in Wells Twp in section 3. Here he built a frame house, sixteen by sixteen feet, which at that time was considered a splendid home. He developed his farm and engaged in general farming and stock raising with much success. He added to his farm and is now the owner of five hundred and fifty-six acres of excellent land, after selling one hundred and sixty acres that he at one time owned in Riley County. He continued the active life of a farmer until 1910, when he moved to Irving, where he now resides and where he has a splendid home, with all the conveniences to which his active life has entitled him. During his active life on the farm, in addition to his general farm work, he handled some eighty head of cattle and many hogs, each year, which he placed on the market at the best prices.

In May 1874, Mr Boyd was married to Laura B. Pollitt, a native of Kentucky, where she was born Mar 21, 1855. She was the daughter of Thomas Alexander and Eliza (Deatley) Pollitt, who were natives of Virginia and later located in the Blue Grass state. Mrs Boyd was reared in her native state and there received her education in the local schools. Mr Boyd had located in Marshall County and he returned to the old Kentucky home to claim his bride. To Mr and Mrs Boyd have been born the following children: Lillie Belle Boyd, John A. Boyd, George L. Boyd, Omer S. Boyd, Charles A. Boyd, Ella May Boyd, Lena Boyd, Frank Boyd, Emma Boyd, Lawrence J. Boyd, and Thomas A. Boyd. Lillie Belle (Boyd) Stoneman is a resident of Blue Rapids Twp, where her husband is a farmer; John A. is the owner of eighty acres of Land in Wells Twp, and is now engaged as rural mail carrier out of Irving; George L. is on the old home place in Wells Twp, and is engaged in general farming and stock raising; Omer S. is the proprietor of a meat market at Irving; Charles A. is engaged in farming in Bigelow Twp; Ella May (Boyd) Abrant resides in Colorado, where she and her husband have homesteaded at Ordway; Lena is the wife of Roscoe C. Denton of Irving; Frank is also a resident of Irving; Emma (Boyd) Biglow lives in Bigelow Twp, where her husband is a farmer; Lawrence J. resides in Colorado, and Thomas A. lives at Irving. Mr and Mrs Boyd are active members of the Methodist Episcopal church and have long been prominent in the social and the religious life of the township, where they have a beautiful home. Their lives have been most active, and there are few residents of the county who are entitled to more praise and honor for their good work. Coming to the county, much of it then an undeveloped prairie, they had their share in the work of making Marshall County one of the great farming and stock counties of the state. During their lives, they have seen much of the territory developed from the home of wild animals to well cultivated fields. Journeys are now made on steel trains or in the automobile over splendid roads. How different now is the transportation of the commodities of life across the plains, to the days of Mr Boyd and his ox team. Mr Boyd came to Kansas in 1865, one of the first settlers.

Politically, Mr Boyd is identified with the Democratic party and has always taken a keen interest in civic life of the township and county. He was the first treasurer of Wells Twp and had much to do with the organization of the district. He and his wife always took the deepest interest in the educational development of the community and had much to do with the moral standard of the territory in those early days. Their lives have been spent in useful work, and now they are enjoying the evening of their lives in peace and contentment, honored and loved by all who know them.

- Notes for Peter Stainback Hamlin:
By Gary Allen:
Peter, Virginia and their first four children lived in NC until 1838 when they moved from Leaksville, NC. to New Concord, KY. There Peter bought a dry goods business. Seclusaval was under construction by 1842 and about that time the family moved to the building site area then later into the new home. [Abstracted in part from a letter written by "Great Aunt" Sally Braswell] Peter was born in Lunenburg Co., VA [Diane]. See: The Hamlins by John O. Braswell (unpublished). See: They Went That-A-Way by Charles Hughes Hamlin (published). See: Gary Allen's Hamlin File.
- By Randy Patterson:
Around 1838, Peter Hamlin and his wife, descended from French Huguenots, came to Calloway County from North Carolina and during the next year on their 640 acres built a Federal style house, which they named "Seclusaval." The bricks used to build the house were molded on the place. The house stands today on Highway 280 and is one of the very few antebellum structures that survive in Calloway County. The Hamlin family has been prominent in Calloway's history, and many of Peter and Virginia's descendants live in the County today.

- Notes for Richard Francis Hamlin:
By Gary Allen:
Richard F. Hamlin of Calloway County, was born in Rockingham County, NC, Nov 15, 1835 [GA-1834], a son of Peter S. and Virginia A. (Micheaux) Hamlin, both of whom are yet living. The mother is a descendant of Abraham, Michaeux a Huguenot, whose wife, when a child, was shipped out of France as merchandise, in a hogshead, during the period of persecution of the Protestants in that country. The captain of the vessel, being friendly to the Huguenots, released her from confinement, and landed her safely in Holland, where she met and married

Abraham Micheaux, who had preceded her as a refugee. The father of our subject is, a Virginian by birth, removed at an early date to North Carolina, where he was married. In 1839 he came to Calloway County, KY, when our subject was four years old. Richard F. worked on the farm and around his father's mill, and attended subscription schools until nineteen years of age, when, upon the proceeds of a small legacy derived from his grandfather, he attended school at Rockingham Court House (or Wentworth), NC. Then by the financial aid of his aunt was enabled to attend Chapel Hill University in North Carolina, and graduated in 1859. His career as a student is exemplary, holding the position of class orator, associate editor of the college paper, president of the literary society, and always a perfect grade in department. During his last year in college he took a course of law in connection with his other studies. After leaving school he went to Todd County, KY, where he was first tutor in a wealthy family at a liberal salary, then took under his instruction the children of several other families of the vicinity. During the fore part of the late war he was Union in sentiment, but was influenced by relations and friends to enter the Confederate service. He joined Company H, Third Kentucky Infantry, participating in the battle of Shiloh, and the numerous other engagements of the Southwest. In said command he staid until close of the war. Returning to Calloway County he worked in his father's mill, and taught school, was then president of a college in Ballard County two years. Then came to Murray, having previously invested in a stock of groceries, and continued in the same line nine months. He afterward taught school, and in 1882 was elected county clerk. Mr Hamlin was married Jun 28, 1868, to Miss Laura Boggs. The union has given four children: Roberta, Virginia, Juliet K. and Richard F. Mr and Mrs Hamlin are members of the Christian Church. He also is a Mason and member of the Knights of Honor. An excerpt from a letter from Richard's uncle, Francis Mallory Hamlin: Cousin Dick was known at Chapel Hill as "Big Kentuck" by his pals. He had a fighting scrape and of course sprauled his man and beat him rather badly and was fined heavily by the court, and my father, Thomas Hamlin paid the fine. We knew nothing of it at home, but this is what I want and am glad to tell you. After the war my mother received a letter from Cousin Dick saying, "Dear Aunt Martha, I am enclosing 3 08 Aug 2012 herewith my check for two hundred and fifty dollars $250.00. Uncle Tom so kindly paid out for me when in trouble at school to protect me and not to trouble my father, all of which I greatly appreciate, and not knowing how the war left you and your family, I am glad to send it to you." Now here is the wonder part of it, I brought the letter to Ma. from Leaksville and some mail with a tax bill for nearly that amount. Ma. often said "Son I have often told you "that the Lord would provide" if you trust him, so here he has provided me with money to pay that tax bill, and I do not see how could have saved the land without it.

Notes for William 1841 Michaux Hamlin:

By Gary Allen:

The Hon. William M. Hamlin, a representative in the lower house of the Kentucky Legislature about 1870, was born and reared in Calloway County. He was the son of Peter S. and Virginia (Michaux) Hamlin, pioneer residents of the county, and he was a brother of Murray's own Richard (Dick) Hamlin, judge, and prominent citizen of Murray for many years. During the Civil War, William M. Hamlin entered the service of the Confederacy. He was inducted here at Murray Apr 26, 1861, first being assigned to Company F. First KY Regiment, Inf. and later becoming a member of Company A, and went to Virginia where he served out his enlistment. At that time he received an honorable discharge, but instead of returning to home, he enlisted in the Third Kentucky, CSA, with which he remained until the close of the war. He was elected Brevet Second Lieutenant at re-organization Apr 28, 1862. At the close of the war he returned to Calloway County to make his home. It was during the latter years of his war service that he was affected with hemorrhage of the lungs which did not improve to any extent after being discharged from his war service. At the insistence of his many friends he was persuaded to make the race for representative although he had already embarked on his old occupation of farming. This race he easily won and while serving in the duties of that office at Frankfort he was stricken and died there. The remains were returned to his native Concord for burial. Memphis Daily Appeal (Memphis, Tennessee) - Thu, Sep 9, 1871

Your paper has announced the death of Mrs. M.O. McGehee, wife of Colonel E.F. McGehee, and daughter of General B.W. Williamson, permit an old friend of hers to publish a tribute to her memory.

Whatever is lovely and worthy of high esteem, and all that the true spirit of Christianity gives to humanity, were so exemplified in the life of Mrs. McGehee, that something more than a mere announcement of her death should be written of her. Twenty years ago or more, when the writer of this tribute to her virtues first saw her, she was a marvel of beauty, in person and character; and so she was always. From girlhood, and through life and in death, she was fervent in Christian piety--always endeavoring to do good and to render others good and happy. For many years, passing through all of the vicissitudes of life, in bright happiness and in dark grief, she gave a noble example of true, brave, cheerful piety, of perfect amiability and charity, and a charming uniformity of temper and gracefulness of manners. Beautiful, wealthy, witty, vivacious, and during the most of her life happy, and causing all around her to have her genial mirth and sprightliness. I believe she never spoke a harsh word, nor was guilty of a rude action, and rarely, if ever, by word or deed, wounded the feelings of even the meanest of those around her. No slander nor mean tattling was ever uttered by her. Her mother, her sister and her brothers, have all gone before her into the glorious life eternal; and she, who was a few days since, radiant in earthly beauty and happiness, has joined them, where all is eternal beauty and happiness. Mrs. McGehee died as she had lived--a brave, true, cheerful Christian--perfectly resigned, and with confident hope. Without fear of repining, she heard the voice of our Heavenly Father, and went from mortal to immortal life.

She died on 22 Jan 1931 in Roseburg, Douglas County, Oregon, USA.

Notes for Lewis Franklin Lozier:

From the notebook of Lewis Franklin Lozier

Jan 14, 1950: I am writing this family record part from records available and part from memory. Beginning with my grandfather and grandmother on my father's side and my grandparents on my mother's side and it will be as near correct as it is possible to write it...at this time. Lewis Franklin Lozier was born in a log house about ¼ mile from no. 3 schoolhouse, Marshall Co., Indiana, Aug 29, 1861. Levi Lozier (Lewis Franklin's father) died in Medford, OR, he had lived in Indiana until about Jan 1, 1919. He was sick so I went to Indiana and brought him to Oregon to live with us. He enjoyed living here.

Lewis Franklin Lozier and Mary Pheister was married at Farwill, Indiana Nov 18, 1880. We settled on the farm that my grandfather Hamlin owned in his lifetime, 76 acres.

Apr 4th, 1950: It was just 57 years ago today that Mary and I, with Pearl Mary, John Wesley and Walter Lewis, our three children, arrived in Ashland, OR. Apr 4, 1893. Pearl was nine years old, John was three and Walter was two months old. We came by the Penn. Lines to Chicago, then by Missouri Pacific by Kansas City, Denver, through Colorado and Reno, NV to Sacramento. We came through 40 miles of snow sheds even the Donner Pass as we got out of the mountains towards Sacramento fruit trees were blooming and everything looked fine. I got off the train to buy some fruit after I selected what I wanted I asked the vendor how much money he wanted he said six bits then I asked how much six bits was he said 75 cents. This was the first time I had ever heard the term but learned it was the custom in California and Oregon. At Sacramento we were switched to the Southern Pacific RR and came on to Ashland. We had a nice trip, but when we arrived at Ashland we were so disgusted we would have bought return tickets for our old home five miles SE of Benton, Indiana, and the reason we did not do so was from the fact we did not have money enough to make the trip. We had $150 left and the family to feed and find shelter. So after I had a big bawl I straightened up and go down to get a job at 25 cents an hour at carpenter work and always had more work than I could do. While I worked at carpenter works among my first carpenter jobs was one I did for Chas. Palm. He had a small bldg. on South Fir street. He wanted work done on the inside to be made for an office. He also had a small building on South Front St that he had wanted for a saloon and in those days they had to get a petition signed by a certain number of residents. So Palm had the saloon keeper come to get me to sign his petition. When he asked me to sign I said NO! Of course he told Palm what I said, then Palm called on me and said "if you do not like the saloon, you just sit on the fence as you are defending and work to make a living for your family . I pointed my finger at him and said now Palm, you get this straight from me that I am the other side of the fence from the saloon first, last, and all of the time. He said you are through here in this town. You will never have any work here. However, as long as I worked for wages at carpenter work as any other employment, I always had some work that I could do.

Notes for Charles Osborne Hamlin:

From History of Allegan and Barry Counties, 1880:

C. O. Hamlin was born in Lexington Twp, Stark Co., OH, Feb 1, 1813, and was the third in a family of eleven children,- six boys and five girls. His father, Stephen Hamlin, was a native of Virginia, and his mother, Elizabeth (Felts) Hamlin, was also a native of that State, having married Mr Hamlin some time in 1807, afterwards removing to Ohio, locating on the farm where they died,- Stephen Hamlin in 1856, and Elizabeth Hamlin in 1878. C. O. Hamlin, like most boys of his time, passed his boyhood days with little advantages of schooling, and less time for play and recreation, hard work being the portion of nearly all in those days. At the age of twenty he commenced life for himself, working on a farm for the first years by the day and month. Then he learned the blacksmith's trade, and at the age of twenty-five he married, in Stark Co., OH, Dec 14, 1837, Miss Margaret M. Fisher, daughter of Reuben and Lavina (Knox) Fisher, both natives of Crawford Co., PA., where Miss Margaret was born, Aug 2, 1820. Mr Fisher's death occurred in Michigan in 1851 or '52, and Mrs Fisher's in Kalamazoo, in 1873. After the marriage of Mr and Mrs Hamlin they commenced housekeeping in the town, Mr Hamlin working at his trade. Bore they remained for nine years, and in the spring of 1846 started westward with their family of five children, traveling in the usual way of those days, by wagon, stopping first at Battle Creek for some six months; then moved to and settled on the farm where they now live, consisting of one hundred and sixty acres on section 32, and which only had a small improvement when they purchased, and, though Mr Hamlin has continued working at his trade, being the only blacksmith in that vicinity for many years, still has managed his farm with success and profit. Mr and Mrs Hamlin are the parents of the following children, who have grown to manhood and womanhood, viz.: Harvey R., born Dec 10, 1838; Melissa L., born Apr 13, 1840; Jarret H., born Sep 13, 1841, died Dec 12, 1861, in the army; Malinda N., born May 7, 1843; Maria O., born Dec 22, 1844; Caroline F., born Oct 23, 1848; Emeline M., born Aug 2, 1850; Ida A., born Sep 1, 1852, died May 22, 1873; Viola A., born Aug 12, 1854; Charles F., born Mar 31, 1862; besides these, three have died in childhood. In addition to the home-farm of one hundred and sixty acres, Mr Hamlin owns other land in the Twp to the amount of one hundred and twenty five acres. He has always followed mixed farming, but, like many others of this Twp, has of late years interested himself in fruit-raising, and with success. Politically, Mr Hamlin is a Republican, but never seeking the emoluments. of political work, leaving for others who wish them the offices and honors. Their family are all grown to manhood and womanhood, and, with the exception of one son and one daughter, have left home seeking fortunes for themselves. Mr Hamlin built the first pier on this portion of the lake. It is now known as the Clapp Pier, and was built by him in 1860. - Sudden Death By Heart Failure
The death of Chas. Hamlin was a great shock to his many friends in this community Thursday afternoon about 2 o'clock. He with his son and several others started to go to the fire at Mr Broe's, when about half way there Mr Hamlin gave the lines to one of the other men and gasped once and fell over dead. He was taken home and Dr Brunson was summoned pronounced it heart failure. Mr Hamlin had in very good health all summer and he had never complained of heart trouble but it is thought he was overcome by the heat and excitement. About 20 years ago, he was married to Miss Sarah McKinnon, to them were born six children of which four sons and his wife survive, the oldest son being about 19 years of age. The bereaved was about 50 years old and has always been a resident of Ganges Township.

Notes for Caroline Frances Hamlin:

By Mary Hoffer:

Caroline did much research on the origin of the Hamlin family, traveling in the United States and in England for that purpose. In the late 1800's much of the material on genealogy was not as available as it is today; so some of the material that she obtained was inaccurate.

By Jean Powers Soman:

Caroline Frances Hamlin Spiegel, saved her husband, Col Marcus M. Spiegel's Civil War letters. These letters were passed down from Mother to daughter for generations and Caroline and Marcus Spiegel's great, great granddaughter, Jean Powers Soman transcribed the letters and did extensive research and was the co-editor of the book containing these letters. The book, The Civil War Letters of a Jewish Colonel, Marcus M. Spiegel of the Ohio Volunteers (Univ. Of Nebraska Press, 1995) originally published with title Your True Marcus, The Civil War Letters of a Jewish Colonel (Kent State Univ. Press, 1985). Caroline converted to Judaism at K.A.M. synagogue in Chicago Aug 21, 1853.

His men buried him by the side of the River on Captain Wilson's Plantation near Snaggy Point, Louisiana. Due to the changing tides of the river the family was never able to recover the body. Mary Emily "Polly"⁸ Coney (Ann L "Nancy"⁷ Hamlin, Charles L⁶ Hamlin, Stephen⁵ Hamlin, Charles⁴ Hamlin, Stephen³ Hamlin III, Stephen² Hamlin II, Stephen¹ Hamlyn I) was born on 10 Jun 1815 in Limaville, Stark County, Ohio, USA. She died on 24 Jun 1908 in Marlboro, Stark County, Ohio, USA. She married William B Marshall, son of Joseph B Marshall and Mary F Wileman, on 15 Mar 1840 in Marlboro, Stark County, Ohio, USA. He was born on 11 Jul 1816 in Atwater, Portage County, Ohio, USA. He died on 19 May 1879 in Marlboro, Stark County, Ohio, USA.

Notes for Mary Emily "Polly" Coney:

A tribute to the Memory of Mary. E. Marshall, a Noble Woman. Mary Emily Coney (Cooney) was born Jun 10, 1815, on a farm in Lexington Twp one mile south of the place where Limaville now stands. She was a member of a family of eight children, two of whom died in infancy. Aunt Polly died Jun 24, 1908. Being a child of Christian parents, she united with the Methodist church in her young womanhood, and continued a consistent member all her life, in earlier life being an active worker in her chosen church. She was united in marriage with William Marshall, Mar 15, 1840. To this union were born six children, three dying in infancy. One daughter died about twelve years ago. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs David Lloyd of Limaville and Mrs Thomas McCallum of Alliance, five grandchildren and six great grandchildren. Mary Marshall was truly a remarkable woman with bright mind and intellect and blessed with a memory that was truly wonderful, at her advanced age memorizing long poems and repeating them to her friends. Her life was long, useful and busy, even but an hour or so before death claimed her, she was busy with the everyday work and interest. In the days of slavery she was one ever aiding in their deliverance, their home being a station of the underground railroad. She was much interested in the enfranchisement of women and in all temperance movements. She made many friends, enjoyed mingling with them, and a friend once-a friend always. She was a woman of high ideals of sterling worth and truth. Living so many years, nearing so nearly the century mark, she had witnessed many and marked changes and much progress in many of the interests she held as so vital to the advancement of the human family. Her home was ever open to the dependent ones with broad charity and hospitality. Her husband dying nearly 30 years ago. Her last years in a measure were lonely ones, but she had been blessed with kind and devoted daughters who, with their families had made the last days of her long life comfortable and pleasant by their tender and loving care as she neared the border line of life.

Bring On Those Pancakes, The Sap's Running Maple Syrup Camp Now in Full Swing at Site Of 140 Year Industry. Perhaps the best known sugar maker in Stark County's history was Mr [Harry] Lloyd's grandmother, Mrs Mary (Aunt Polly) Marshall who operated the sugar house until she was past 80 and whose sugar and syrup were famous. When the sap is running at its height, boiling goes on 24 hours a day. It was Aunt Polly's custom to take over the night operation of the kettles, working alone over the fires in the center of the dense woods. She told her descendants that on several occasions she tended the kettles while the fire was lurking among the trees?

Mr Coney, of Rochester, died last Thu and was buried Fri. A few days previously he had been found in a semi-conscious condition, and it was supposed that he had been injured in some way by a pair of elks he had been trying to break to drive. Dr VanMetre, of this place, was called to see him and prescribed a course of treatment, but the patient refused to take the medicine and died without wholly regaining consciousness. He was quite an old man and had suffered a great deal from injuries received several years ago in a railroad wreck on his way from Michigan to Iowa.

Notes for Elijah Hamlin:

By Jay Hamlin

Elijah was the son of William Hamlin and Hannah Holloway, born, May 23, 1828, died Nov 23, 1892. He married May 5, 1850 Nancy Welch Roath born Apr 18, 1834, died Apr 14, 1917. Eli was 22 years old and Nancy was 16. She was the daughter of Sally (Sarah) Wood and Lorenzo Welch Roath. Eli and Nancy, after their marriage, lived in Williams County, OH, for at least 8 or 9 years. It is not clear if Eli's parents lived here also at this time, but in 1852 Eli and his brother Seth built the Pike School in Williams County. In 1855, Eli and Seth built the first steam powered saw mill in Primrose, OH. Ansalem Jones and his wife Mary Hamlin lived in this county. Ansalem stated the Eli worked for him from 1851 through 1859. Primrose was located very near Fayette, OH. It now is just four-corners with a house or two and an old cemetery. In the 1860 Census, we find Eli and Nancy in Mahoning County, OH. Sep 5, 1861, in Terre Haute, Indiana, Eli enlisted in the Indiana Infantry, Company B, 31st Regiment. He was 32 years old and listed as having blue eyes, light hair, a fair complexion, and 5' 10" tall. His assignment was working as a "physician assistant". One paper says "physician" but we are relatively sure it was in error as he was mainly a carpenter and a farmer. His Quaker background and the Methodist religion of Nancy was probably the reason he chose to work in this capacity while serving in the war. Eli contracted dysentery while in the service which apparently left him with chronic problems. He was discharged Apr 3, 1862. As a war veteran, Eli received a land grant in Missouri and tried farming there. While working in the field one morning, he heard a loud noise. He turned and saw his cabin in flames. At this time, he said, he walked away and never looked back or returned. His great-great-grandson, Percy Jay Hamlin, had his pocket watch that was dented as the wagon train ran over it on his move from Missouri back to Ohio. We were told that Nancy and Eli separated; we are not sure at what time. Percy Hamlin, his great-grandson, said his father told him that Eli lived with Ansalem (his son) the four or five years before his death and was in extremely poor health suffering from "dropsy". His legs would burst and weep. He sat most of the time in a chair with his feet in a bucket. They would take elm bark from the trees and pound it and put in compresses to draw the poison out. Eli died Nov 23, 1892. Nancy recorded his age in her bible as being 64 years, 6 months, and 2 hours. He died in Shephard, MI. He is buried in the Coe Twp Cemetery (aka Salt River Cemetery) there.

Notes By Jay Hamlin

Ansalem Jones Hamlin was born Mar 17, 1857, (St Patrick's Day) in Primrose, Williams County, OH. He was named after his uncle Ansalem Jones, the husband of Eli's sister Mary. He was said to have worked in a brick factory to finance his move to Michigan. One Mar 4, 1876, in South Wright, MI, he married Caroline "Carrie" Elizabeth Hibbard, daughter of Jonathan and Sarah Elizabeth VanArsdalen Hibbard. Carrie was born in Fulton County, OH, Dec 2, 1859. In 1879, Ansalem and Caroline moved to Michigan shortly after the birth of their second daughter Mabel. The wagon by which they came was pulled by horses. It contained all their furniture, clothing, grain and food that they needed for the trip. It also carried a box containing six baby sow pigs. The family cow was tied behind. They first stayed at the Bates farm (a section east and 2 mile south of where they finally settled. Eli was born here. They purchased 80 acres with a log cabin and four acres cleared. Ansalem, to clear his land, would cut all around the tree trunks. Then he would look for a real tall tree and cut this one completely down. It would knock the other ringed trees down when it fell. One day, Carrie saw a big black bear with its front paws up on the rail fence by the house. She insisted Ansalem keep a muzzle loader. Oliver Eli Hamlin (great grandson of Ansalem) and his wife Delores now own 40 acres of this farm where the original log cabin stood. It is now a centennial farm. Caroline died here Feb 27, 1894, at the age of 44 years. She died of the grippe. Her sudden death left Ansalem with four children. Libbie was soon to marry. Ansalem, Mabel 15, Eli 13, and Myrtle 9, continued to farm. He and Eli farmed this 80 acres and owned other lands together including the 40 acres across the road where Eli and his family and Ansalem moved. Ansalem owned 40 acres in Section 21 of Greendale Twp. Jay Hamlin (great-grandson of Ansalem) and his wife Kathe now own this parcel. He also owned land in Section 29 of this same Twp. The Greendale land was used to pasture cattle. Percy Ansalem Hamlin (his grandson) recalls a great "cow hunt". The party consisted of his grandfather, father, a neighbor, (Drayton Miley), two hired hands, and himself. The cattle were spooked by the noise of snapping branches under their hoofs. The cows scattered as far as the river. It took a good week or so to round them all up. He also fondly remembers his grandfather reading the newspaper to the family every day after the noon meal on the front porch. Drayton Miley, a neighbor would come over and lean against the fence and listen. WW-I was going on and the news was eagerly awaited each day. The newspaper was delivered by mail each day by a horse driven buggy. The mail route went as far as the half-way dam in Greendale Twp., Midland County. The driver had a man who kept for him a spare horse in this area and when he got that far he would leave his tired horse and hitch the fresh one and continue his delivery, returning the next day for another exchange. In his later years, Ansalem rotated visits between his daughters and Eli. He also visited his family in Ohio frequently via the train. Percy recalls his grandpa walking down the road, coming from Shephard, carrying his old suit case, a routine sight every month or two. When he was home, he slept upstairs with Percy. They had straw mattresses on cots which Perry and his mother dragged down the stairs every spring and changed the straw. Ansalem developed a drinking problem during his last years. Percy remembers a barrel of apple cider that sat on the back porch all winter. His grandfather removed the ice and drank the remainder which they said was pretty strong. Ansalem had health problems after this from which he never recovered. He died Oct 8, 1923, at the age of 66? . Both he and Caroline are buried in the Coe Twp Cemetery (aka Salt River Cemetery) in Shephard, MI. Ansalem and Caroline had four children. From the Mid-Michigan Genealogical Society Apr 22, 1807 three Hamlin brothers arrived in Stark County, OH where they settled. William, Charles and John came from near the Quaker Black Water Creek Meeting House which was near Sussex, VA. They came by covered wagon that had tar buckets swinging from underneath, and was pulled by oxen. Charles had married Martha Moore in 1781 and their son, William married Hannah Holloway in 1816. Their son, Eli born in Stark County married Nancy Roath. Eventually he was a G.A.R. veteran and his discharge papers showed his occupation to have been a physician. He died in 1892 at home of his son, Ansalem Jones Hamlin and is buried in the Salt River Cemetery. The son, Ansalem, was born in Ohio and was the first Hamlin to come to Isabella County. In 1879 Ansalem, in route from Ohio, rode a horse from St Johns to Salt River. From there he went on to inspect the farm of 80 acres that he later bought for $10 per acre. The horse waded in water up to its belly, north of what is now the corner of Wise and Walton Roads. In 1880 another wagon pulled by horses made the trip from Fayette, OH to Coe Twp. Besides furniture, it brought Ansalem, his wife, Caroline Elizabeth (Hibbard), and two small daughters, Nancy Elizabeth (Libby) born Sep 21, 1877 and Mable Iva born Mar 11, 1879 to their new home. It was a log cabin and only five acres of the farm had been cleared. In 1818, Mar 14, Eli Jonathan was born and Feb 20, 1883 Myrtle Irene was born. The life was too difficult for Carrie, the mother of the children. Caroline Elizabeth Hibbard died Feb 27, 1894. Both Libby and Mable married into old Coe Twp families. Libby married Clark Northrup, Mar 17, 1894 and had three children: Icel C., Lottie I., and Ansalem J. Later after a divorce, she remarried and had one son, Arthur DeVere

Schoonover. Mable and Willard Walton had three children: Faye and Fern, twins, and a son Arthur. Eli married Etta Estelle Carpenter of Greendale, Mar 14, 1900. She was the daughter of Bertha and Dexter Carpenter. They always resided on the farm in Coe Twp, and were successful farmers. Eli was interested in Hereford cattle and had a good, small herd. He was an avid hunter and fisherman. They had two children. Perry Ansalem was born Oct 8, 1905 in the old log house. He was four years old when the family moved into the frame house on the 40 acres Eli had bought on the west side of the road. Hazel Irene was born Jun 15, 1912. May 4, 1920 Etta died. In May of 1923 Eli was married to Addie S. Hawkins of Lansing. One of her two sons, Clarence Elton always lived in Shepherd. In the fall of that year, Oct 7, 1923 Ansalem Jones Hamlin died at home of his son Eli. In the winter of 1928 Eli and Addie moved into Shepherd to make way for the younger generation. Percy married Verdyth Ethel Caszatt of Lincoln Twp Dec 15, 1928. She was the daughter of Ethyl and Oliver Caszatt. They raised four sons: Oliver Eli, Robert Lynn, Percy J, and Ronald C. At present, only Eli and Ronald live in Isabella County. Eli owns half of the original 80 acres bought in 1879. It is an official Centennial Farm. Percy and Verdyth have always lived on or near the original farm and the living for raising four healthy, active boys was made as successful farmers. Like his father, Percy is a hunter and fisherman. Beginning with Eli Jonathan and finishing with Oliver Eli's children, four generations of Hamlin's attended the Walling School, District #7. After high school graduation in Shepherd, Irene attended Wayne State University and graduated with two degrees in education. She taught in Detroit and continued to work at the university until 1972, when she was forced to take early retirement because of poor health. She then returned to Coe Twp to live. Eli Jonathan died Feb 20, 1962, and two weeks later, Mar 9, 1962, Addie also died.

Notes for Jay D Hamlin:

Allen people were very much shocked Mon to receive word of the death, one hour before, of Jay Hamlin at Crystal Lake. Mr Hamlin was spending a few days at the lake and at about 11 o'clock in the forenoon with a party of companions went into the lake to bathe. After donning a bathing suit at the Feldman boat yard, he walked to the end of the long pier and plunged off into the cold water. In a short time one of the party, J M Champion, noticed Hamlin leaning forward with his face in the water and hastening to him, carried him to shore only to find that he was dead. Friends of the dead man who were at the lake were called and medical aid summoned at once but as life had fled nothing could be done. Dr Maxwell of Dakota City, who was called, pronounced it a case of heart failure. Coroner B F Sawyer was also called who gave the same opinion. The body was brought to Allen on the evening train and taken to the home of Ed Pomeroy. At three o'clock the Services were conducted at the Methodist Church in Allen by Rev Moore after which the remains were laid to rest in the Allen cemetery. Jay Hamlin was born Mar 16, 1869, at Albert Lee, Freeborn County, MN, and in 1870 removed to a farm near Allen with his parents. Here on this farm and in Allen his life was spent. He was married Nov 1896. One child, a daughter now living in Allen, came to cheer and bless this union. The wife and mother, however, died about seven years ago in Sioux City as a result of an operation. Mr Hamlin was again married Sep 19, 1902, and two children, a boy and a girl, with their mother survive him. Besides these, two sisters Mrs Ed Pomeroy and Mrs Elmer Allen, also his aunt and stepmother remain to mourn his loss. Mr Hamlin has during the last several years been a prominent businessman of this town, entering at first into the grain business then later into that of general merchandise and lastly a stock buyer and feeder, in which business he had succeeded in acquiring quite a share of earth's goods. All who knew Mr Hamlin respect him as a man of business integrity and a true friend and the number of friends who followed him to his last resting place tell positively of the esteem in which he was held.

The remains of Charles Alvin Hiatt were laid at rest in the Hesper cemetery Jul 29th. From the time he was two or three years of age until seven years ago Mr Hiatt was a resident of Hesper and vicinity, and by his contribution of good citizenship, neighborly usefulness and kindness of heart established a place in the minds and hearts of that community that all men might justly envy. He was a trustworthy, dependable man who honored his home, his friends and his community by giving to them the best that rested within his capacity. Mr Hiatt was born Aug 11, 1854, in Westfield, IN, and came with his parents to the neighborhood just north of the state line (near Mabel). Some years later he became a resident of Winneshiek County. In Feb, 1880, he was married to Lillie L. Meador. To them two sons-Claude E. Hiatt of Minneapolis and Ray M. Hiatt of Hesper- were born. When Mr and Mrs Hiatt moved to Fair Oaks, CA seven years ago they found waiting them a number of old Hesper friends and the colony has since been augmented by others. Four years ago on his last return visit Mr Hiatt assisted in building a barn on his farm and he overworked, bringing on heart weakness that resulted in angina pectoris. Since that time he has suffered much and death brought relief Jul 17th. The remains were brought east by his widow and son Claude and wife, arriving in Hesper Wed, Jul 28th, and the funeral was held the day following at the Friends church, Rev I. C. Mr Hiatt had not been well for some time and he and Mrs Hiatt went to California from their home in Canada in May last, thinking that the lower altitude and milder climate might help him, but he grew worst steadily. John Hamlin Hiatt was born in Hesper Twp Dec 4, 1859, and resided there until 1913, when he removed to Canada. He was married Sep 26, 1883, to Charlotte Meader. She died in Mar, 1904. J. H. Milligan Well Known Agriculturist And Prominent citizen Dies as Result of Fall. J. H. Milligan, proprietor of the Grand Theater, Justice of the Peace, an old soldier, an extensive land owner and prominent citizen of this community, died at his home here Wed morning about 2:45, death resulting from injuries received in a fall last Sat afternoon at the Grand Theater where he had been adjusting some stove pipe. later moved to Monticello and then in 1897 bought a large farm northeast of here and moved to it where he resided several years, later retiring and moving to Tampico. It was on this farm and through his research that the state established an experiment station and made through his direct efforts, the discovery that the low, swampy soils in this vicinity only needed potash to grow corn. If Mr Milligan left nothing but this discovery behind him his life would be benefit to hundreds and those who may till the soils in years to come. Jul 11, 1870 he was married to Loretta C. Coates and nine children were born to this union eight of whom survive. They are: Frank, Jesse, Gertrude Wetzell and Viola Kelsey of Tampico, Burton of Cornell, John of Chicago, Dora Buren of Streator and Emma McKenzie of Prophetstown. Also one brother, Thos. A man of good principles who always aligned himself with the forces in the community which stood for moral and social progress and he endeavored to carry out those ideas in the conduct of his moving picture business. A splendid citizen and a respected man who kept well posted on state and national politics and stood by policies which in his judgment were best. There the wife and mother died in 1884 at an advanced age. Mr Milligan, who is now seventy-eight years old, makes his home with his children. Mrs Wise is a devoted wife and mother and looks carefully after the conform of her household. His marriage with our subject has brought to them two children, Harriet E. and Charles H, Wise, Mr Wise has a farm of 160 acres of most excellent farming land which is very pleasantly located on section 35, De Witt Twp."

Notes for Reuben H Wise:

Many years ago when he was a small boy, Mr Wise came to DeWitt County with his parents, Isaiah and Rebecca (Fultz) Wise, who were pioneers of DeWitt Twp. Here he grew to man's estate and has since ably assisted his fellow-farmers in promoting the material prosperity of this section of the State. He is a gallant veteran of the late Civil War in which he did noble service in the cause of the Union. Mr Wise was born in Crawford County, OH, Mar 2, 1837. His father was a native of Pennsylvania and came of an old Pennsylvania family. His parents were farmers and lived and died in the Keystone State when very old people. Isaiah was one of a large family of children, all of whom are now deceased. His early life was passed in his native county and there he was married, his wife, like himself, coming of German ancestry. After marriage Mr and Mrs Wise lived in Pennsylvania some years, but after the birth of three children, they migrated of OH and cast in their lot with the pioneers of Crawford County. They lived on a farm there some years, until they again took up the westward march, and in 1845 came to DeWitt County, arriving here after a long and tedious journey with teams.

The father of our subject obtained eighty acres of land from the Government in DeWitt Twp, purchasing it before he came to the State and the family began life thereon, living in the most primitive pioneer manner for some time. Their first home was a rail pen which was finally superseded by a log cabin. Mr Wise worked with great energy and perseverance and in time increased his possessions until he owned three-fourths of a section of land. He lived on that for some years and afterward located on a farm in the southern part of the Twp. His wife died in the latter place in the fall of 1865 at an advanced age. Mr Wise was a second time married in this Twp, Mrs Rebecca Connell "nee" Rollins, becoming his wife. He continued to live in DeWitt Twp, spending his last years in the village of DeWitt where he died in 1881 at the age of sixty-five years. He was an excellent man and a worthy citizen. His widow, who survives him, makes her home in DeWitt. She is now past three-score years of age.

Our subject is the ninth child of quite a large family of children. He remained and inmate of the parental household until he attained his majority. In the flush and vigor of early manhood he enlisted in defense of the Stars and Stripes from this Twp, becoming a member of Company F, One Hundred and Seventh Illinois Infantry, under Capt. H. G. Wismer and Col. Snell. He became a member of his regiment in Aug, 1862, and remained with it for six months. He was then assigned to a place first as assistant on the piece and later as Corporal and chief gunner of Battery K, First Regiment of Illinois Light Artillery. He continued with that regiment until Jun 25, 1865, and did invaluable service in the capacity mentioned. He fought with his regiment which was a part of the Twenty-third Army Corps under Gen. Grant, in eighteen different engagements. He miraculously escaped unhurt though so much exposed to the enemy's fire, and was never captured, but he had to endure many hardships and privations incidental to army life. He was honorably discharged Jun 25, 1865, and returned to his old home.

The year following that in which he left the army, our subject was married in this county to Miss Lucinda Turner. This lady was born and reared in Wapella Twp, and grew up there in the home of her parents who were early settlers of this county and are now both deceased. Mrs Lucinda Wise died at her home in DeWitt Twp Mar 12, 1884, leaving behind her the record of a busy and well-spent life. She was the mother of ten children of whom these five are living: Minnie M., wife of William Young, a farmer in DeWitt Twp; Maggie, a young lady at home with her father; Savana E., wife of Mariman Winslow, a farmer of Nixon Twp; and Reuben E. and Frank A., who are both at home. The second marriage of our subject, which was in this county, was to Miss Lydia A. Milligan, who was born in Logan County, OH, Sep 17, 1851. She came to DeWitt Twp when she was a young woman in 1872 with her parents, Samuel and Ann (Hamlin) Milligan, the family settling on a farm in Nixon Twp. There the wife and mother died in 1884 at an advanced age. Mr Milligan, who is now seventy-eight years old, makes his home with his children. Mrs Wise is a devoted wife and mother and looks carefully after the comfort of her household. Her marriage with our subject has brought to them two children, Hattie E. and Charles H.

Mr Wise has a farm of one hundred and sixty acres of most excellent farming land which is very pleasantly located on section 35, DeWitt Twp. Its fields are finely tilled, and it is well and neatly improved. It is well-stocked with cattle, mules and hogs which are of a good grade, our subject devoting much time to his stock-raising interests. He is a quiet, unassuming man, of strict integrity in all his transactions, and one who is trusted by his fellow-citizens. In him the Democratic party finds a staunch supporter.

Notes for Nancy "Annie" R Hamblin:

Nancy is not Fairview Cemetery with her husband, however, officials there are searching other cemeteries in the area and will advise (see below): Based on that obituary and the 1900 census, she died in Logan County. She isn't buried in Warren County. I looked at the Logan County Cemetery book and she isn't listed. She lived in the Auburn area, so she was likely buried in one of the cemeteries near there. Her parents are buried at Old Gasper in Logan County. Another possibility is that she was buried at the South Union Cemetery at the Shaker Village. The South Union Cemetery was destroyed, but the Special Collections library does have a listing of some of the people buried there. I do not know if it is a complete listing and I haven't copied it.

342. Anderson⁸ Rutledge (Amelia "Millie"⁷ Hamblin, Stephen Thomas⁶ Hamblin, Mackerness⁵ Hamblin, Thomas D⁴ Hamlin I, Richard³ Hamlin I, Capt John S² Hamlin, Stephen¹ Hamlyn I) was born on 05 Feb 1846 in Giles County, Virginia, USA. He died on 25 Aug 1928 in Hanging Rock, Lawrence County, Ohio, USA. He married (1) Mary Jane Diamond, daughter of Calvin Diamond and Lucinda C Johnson, on 17 Nov 1865 in Kanawha County, West Virginia, USA. She was born on 10 Oct 1840 in Giles County, Virginia, USA. She died on 08 Feb 1917 in Lawrence County, Ohio, USA. He married (2) Corrine Riggs, daughter of Samuel Hardin Riggs and Ruhama Ward, on 05 May 1920. She was born on 02 Apr 1871 in Greenup County, Kentucky, USA. She died on 28 May 1954 in Ironton, Lawrence County, Ohio, USA.

Notes for Mary Jane Diamond:

Mary Diamond was born in Giles County, Virginia, in 1840 and was the daughter of Calvin Diamond and Lucinda Johnson Diamond. Her sister was Amanda Melvina Diamond(1837-1918). In 1865 Mary married Anderson Rutledge. In 1858, Amanda married Anderson's brother William Richard Rutledge. Both families eventually migrated to Lawrence County, OH and lived there until their death. Mary died in 1917 and is buried with her husband Anderson who died in 1928. Their children (birth years) according to census records are Margerete(1867), John (1869), Henry C(1871), George A(1875), and Arthur C(1879)

Anderson Rutledge and Mary Jane Diamond had the following children:

- i. Margarete⁹ Rutledge was born in 1867 in Lawrence County, Ohio, USA.
- ii. John Rutledge was born in 1869 in Lawrence County, Ohio, USA.
- iii. Henry Clark Rutledge was born on 22 Feb 1870 in Lawrence County, Ohio, USA. He died on 11 Apr 1946.

He married Mary E Caldwell, daughter of John F Caldwell and Mary Caldwell, on 20 Dec 1911 in Greenup, Greenup County, Kentucky, USA. She was born in 1853 in Ohio, USA. She died in 1953.

Notes for Corrine Riggs:

On her death certificate she is listed as "Cora Riggs Diamond". Buried in Section H, Lot 2-1/2, 77. Her first marriage was to George E.Long. She then married Anderson Rutledge. Her final marriage was to John Marshall Diamond. In her obituary, it lists her birth date as Apr 2, 1871,however a 1873 date is from the 12 Jun 1900 census for Portsmouth, OH, Scioto County. The 1880 census of her father's family in Greenup County, Kentucky indicates her age as 9 which would put her birth in 1871 which I deem to be correct. Note that the 1910 census in Greenup Co. Ky lists her birth state as "OH" where she is listed as a widow "Long" living with her mother Ruhama Riggs. I believe the earlier KY birth to be correct. The obit also lists her with a "grandson", Robert Blankenship, but he was actually her grand nephew, the grandson of her brother Ralph Lee Riggs. She had been ill for three years before her death.

Anderson Rutledge and Corrine Riggs had no children.

Notes for Mary Elizabeth Hamlin:

By Becky Hamlin Morris

Parents for Elizabeth are based on conjecture. Only available sources have been census records. First census she has been found listed on is the 1870 census for Montgomery County, Virginia. She is listed as living with John Shaver and Nancy Elizabeth Hamlin Shaver. Her relationship is not shown. Her last name is not given as different from John Shaver. Usually this implies that the person is a child in that household. She is listed after younger children, which is unusual. Her age is listed as nineteen, which means a birth year of 1851. Based on birth records for daughter Laura, she was probably pregnant with Laura at the time of the census. This may account for her being listed after younger children.

John and Nancy were not married until Nov of 1860. The 1860 census listed John as living with his parents and Nancy living with the Slusser family. Elizabeth is not listed in either household. I have not been able to find any birth, marriage or death records for her. She is listed on the 1880, 1900, 1910, and 1920 censuses as either single or widowed. She is not listed on any census as married. The 1880 census lists her as single and with two children, Laura and Will. Only other source for parents of Elizabeth is a statement made by James Thomas Hamlin that a picture of a man later identified as John Shaver was his grand father.

Her mother, Nancy Elizabeth, on the 1900 census gives number of children born to her as three. The only other children attributed to her are Annie L. and Charles Thomas by John Shaver, and are on the 1870 census, along with Mary Elizabeth. Based on this, I believe that Mary Elizabeth is correctly placed as the daughter of Nancy Elizabeth. I cannot prove John Shaver as father other than that she used the last name of Shaver on occasion. She usually used the last name of Hamlin. All her children used the last name of Hamlin.

Per Pauline Hamlin Kiessler, she said that she thought she remembered her mother mentioning that Elizabeth was adopted. She couldn't remember any details. It may be that she was the daughter of Nancy Elizabeth and later adopted by John Shaver, her step-father. There is no proof of John Shaver as either real parent or adoptive parent. I believe that Mary Elizabeth was born out of wedlock to Nancy Elizabeth Hamlin. John Shaver may have been her real father. There is no hard evidence that she was either adopted or natural by anyone. She may have been with Nancy at the Slusser farm and was missed by the census taker. Or deliberately left off by her mother out of shame. She could have been at some other residence and mis-counted. I have not been able to account for her at any other relative's homes for this same census.

When I asked my grandfather, James Thomas Hamlin, if we were related to the Hamlins in Giles County, he emphatically denied that we were related. The overseers of the poor in Giles County paid for the shroud for the burial of Stephen Hamlin in 1866. With as many relatives as he had in the area, I find this odd. Apparently, Nancy had no contact with her family after she moved in with the Slussers. I feel that there was some sort of rift within the family. Whether this was due to his second marriage and family, or that Nancy had a child out of wedlock, or some other reason, I do not know. I have also considered whether there may have been an inter-racial issue. There are several mulatto and "bright" colored Shavers in the area at the same time. I do not know what the relationship might be between these people and the family of John Shaver.

Burial: Buried in Hale Cemetery in Coal Bank Hollow, near Blacksburg, Virginia. This is according to Dwight Hamlin. I do not know why she would have been buried in the Hale Cemetery instead of the Shaver Cemetery. The two cemeteries are in the same basic area. In fact, the Shaver cemetery would have been closer to her home.

The Hale Cemetery is located at corner of Coal Bank Hollow Road and Mt. Tabor Rd. outside Blacksburg, Virginia. It is not visible from the road. Turn right off of Coal Bank Hollow onto Mt. Tabor. There is a little dirt road on the right between the Coal Bank Hollow Road and a small house on the right. Follow that dirt road up the hill. There are two cemeteries on the hill. The first one on the right is one of the Slusser Cemeteries. Go past it and the next one directly in front is the Hale Cemetery. Many of the graves are only marked with fieldstones and not names on them. Mary Elizabeth's grave is not marked.

Notes for William Campbell Thomas Gordon:

William Camel Thomas Gordon, born in 1875, in Giles County, VA, was converted while still a young man, and at least as early as 1910, had become a "preacher" but was not ordained at that time. In the year 1910, he joined the then spreading Pentecostal movement, largely because of the preaching and influence of a Pentecostal minister named Clowers; and he became a literal follower in 1910 by moving the family to Montcalm, West Virginia, from Oakvale, WV, where Rev Clowers built what was called a "tabernacle," a rough wooden structure where services were held. I can remember, as a little boy of five or so, attending the services with my parents, and witnessing the dancing "in the spirits" and "speaking in tongues," that went on. I recall especially one night a large lady was dancing "in the spirit" and she fell backwards and landed on top of me and bloodied my nose. (This is not said with any disrespect). My father took up coal mining when we moved to Montcalm, before that he was a "section hand" on the railroad. He followed the mining trade throughout his life while preaching wherever and whenever he could. The ministry was his only real work, however, and he pursued it with a zeal that would be hard to equal. His ministry was always within the Pentecostal faith, and he was sometime later in life ordained by the Assembly of God Church. But he did not fully accept the discipline or creed of any church. His sole authority was the Bible, and he was quick to challenge anyone who deviated from it in the slightest. For him the only truth was within the Scriptures, and he believed them and expounded them faithfully. He refused to accept any scientific theories about the creation of the earth or evolution; and he insisted that the earth was not round and that the moon had a light of its own, the same as the sun, because the Bible spoke of them as the "greater ...and lesser light...". Restless by nature, after his conversion he could not be satisfied to stay anywhere very long. He appeared to be in quest of some great ideal or experience that always awaited over the next hilltop. In pursuing this quest, the family was moved with the next decade from Montcalm to Crystal, to Big Four, Ritter, laeger, Panther, Mile Branch 'Davy, Lone Jack, Garland, Panhandle, Marytown, Twin Branch Roderfield and a second trip back to Ritter, where we actually lived in four separate houses. In laeger, we moved into a house one day and out the next. At times, we kept chickens and once when we lived at Panther, our oldest brother, Mason, said that we moved so much when someone mentioned the word, the chickens would march up and and cross their legs to be tied for the moving. All the above places were in West Virginia. Then in 1920, we moved to Virginia, living at Seaboard, Ramsey, Norton, Imboden, Laura and then back to Norton where we lived in a total of three houses. In 1922, we moved to Dante and "settled" there finally, where my father died May 30, 1930. Interspersed with all these family moves, my father also took many trips on "preaching missions," one such trip being to Lancaster County, PA, the most notable thing about was the milk had a strange taste because the cows ate wild onions. He loved to play the organ and sing religious songs, and he also had a guitar which he often took on his trips and would play it and sing at some services, praising God. He also wrote some poetry, but not was published. He had bought an Oliver typewriter about 1917, and I had learned to type. He would have type up his others "song ballads" by the hundreds and would hand them out, usually free of charge, although sometimes he would receive a dime for them. He had mastered the Bible in a way no one else living to my knowledge had ever done during his time. He could quote almost any part of it-certainly and part that was of real importance. It was his boast, and no idle one, that on any important point of scripture he could quote you "book, chapter, and verse." I have never seen his talent for this equaled. His insistence on the absolutely literal interpretation of all Scripture Led to serious trouble for him during World War I. We lived at Ritter and he attended Sunday School nearby. One Sunday when the discussion had to do with the commandments, in relation to "Thou Shalt not Kill," Someone asked the question, if a soldier in the line of duty killed an enemy, would he be "lost?" My father was quick to state according to Scripture, he would be-unless he repented. On the strength of that, he was "taken up" (arrested) on the complaint of a man named Dan Robers (a member of a different church who was somewhat radical and who had several disputes or "debates" about the Bible with my father). My father was charged under the Espionage Act of 1917, which made it a crime to say "unpatriotic" things, such as our "present-day protesters" get famous for saying. I was impossible to find a lawyer who was not afraid to put up a real defense, and so he was found guilty in Federal court at Welch, West Virginia, and sentenced to one year and one month in the federal penitentiary at Moundsville. He was pardoned after serving seven months. I have always felt, (even then a boy of 12) that he would have been cleared if his lawyer had just brought out the point my father had simply stated his religious beliefs, and referred to the Constitutional guarantee that "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof." (Second Amendment). But in matters of this kind I am convinced that he would have faced execution rather than "recant," Even as centuries before Martin Luther had refused to do.

William Eggleston⁸ Hamblin I (James Henderson⁷, Stephen Thomas⁶, Mackerness⁵, Thomas D⁴ Hamlin I, Richard³ Hamlin I, Capt John S² Hamlin, Stephen¹ Hamlyn I) was born on 06 Jan 1868 in Spruce Run, Giles County, Virginia, USA. He died on 22 Feb 1924 in Dry Branch, Pulaski County, Virginia, USA. He married Adaline Elector Lindsey, daughter of James A Lindsey and Sarah Anne Stafford, on 27 Sep 1888 in Giles County, Virginia, USA. She was born on 05 May 1867 in Trigg, Giles County, Virginia, USA. She died on 29 Feb 1936 in Pulaski County, Virginia, USA.

Notes for William Eggleston Hamblin I:

Rev W. E. Hamblin of Virginia Conference. Rev W. E. Hamblin was called to rest Feb 22, 1924. His death was due to heart trouble. He was married to Miss Lector Lindsey, Sep 22, 1888. To this union were born twelve children, seven boys and five girls. Two boys having died when quite young. So he leaves his wife, ten children, twenty-five grandchildren, a host of friends, and the P. H. Church family to mourn his departure. His body was laid to rest at Trigg, Giles County, VA, Feb 24, 1924, in the Wesleyan Chapel Cemetery to await the resurrection of the just. Bro. Hamblin was connected with the Christian Church early in life, and when Pentecost came he saw the light and walked in it, so he has been in the Pentecostal movement about fifteen years. He was ordained by the P. H. Church in 1912. Bro. Hamblin was loved by all. He had a good report without and within. He was some of the real salt of the earth. The shock to his dear family was so sudden, just like a thunder clap out of a clear sky. He only lived a few hours after being attacked. However, he had a little spell or two before, but nothing to especially alarm the family. Oh, how heart rending it was to them to give him up. Those married boys and girls just loved him like they did when they were little and played around the hearth stone. Just to say that they will miss him is not enough, for it looked like they just could not be reconciled to him going, and his dear wife, I shall never forget how she was overpowered with grief. Praise God because they do not have to weep as those that have no hope, for if they will be true they shall meet him again never to part any more. May the grace of God sustain them all in their grief. The funeral was largely attended. However, it was a real bad day. He was taken back to his neighborhood where he was raised for burial, and also where his two little children were buried. He made this special request to his dear wife just a few weeks before his death. I was so sorry for the family because they could not reach Bro. E. D. Reeves to conduct Services, as they so much desired to have him, and so it fell to my lot to fill the place, which I did the best I could. The thing that impressed me so was that the boys were not ashamed of Pentecost, as so many of our people's children are. Oh, how I admired them for the respect they had for their father's religion. They knew that he had the real goods, so what a comfort that must have been to them. Remember children your father's prayers, and may God bless you all, and may you so live that when life is over you all will meet again to never part.

William Eggleston Hamblin I and Adaline Elector Lindsey had the following children:

Notes for Charles Webster Hamlin I:

by Lori Morgan Cerepani

Suggested edit: Walter Hamlin was incorrectly listed as the son of Charles & Lillian on the 1920 Census--he is actually Charles's brother. Charles & Lillian did foster another child named Charles. On the 1920 Census, this Charles was listed as Charles S Scott with the Scott later crossed out, so Scott could be his actual last name or his middle name. On the 1920 Census, he was listed as their son, but on the 1930 Census it mentions his foster status. I have no idea whether they ever officially adopted him, whether Charles the child ever took Hamlin as his last name, etc.-- Lori Morgan Cerepani (48795260) • lmcerepani@gmail.com

She was born on 17 Nov 1871 in Lawrence County, Ohio, USA. She died on 01 Dec 1941 in Athens, Athens County, Ohio, USA (Athens State Hospital).

Notes for Mary Emma "Mollie" Null:

Mary E. "Mollie" (Null) Hamlin was one of the many children of William Harrison Null (1837-1922) and Missouri Ann Clark (1845-1935). Mary or "Mollie" as she was usually referred to was married Oct 10, 1903, in Huntington, Cabell Co., WV, to Ephraim H. Hamlin. They had only 1 child that I know of, a son named William Garland Hamlin born Jul 23, 1907, in Lawrence Co., OH - according to "OH, County Births, 1841-2003" and his Lawrence Co., OH, Marriage record. Mary was recorded on the 1940 census living in the home of one of her younger sisters, namely Addie (Null) McLaughlin, in Lawrence Co., OH, where Mary was recorded as "Mollie M. Hamlin" sister-in-law to Harry McLaughlin (head of the household), female, white, age 65 (actually 66 1/2 at this time), a widow, 8th grade education, born in Ohio, resided in Lawrence Co., OH, in 1935. This 1940 census record was taken Apr 8, 1940. Yet she died roughly 20 months later in the Athens State Hospital in Athens, Athens Co., OH. And her causes of death were listed as: Principal Cause of Death - Coronary occlusion; Contributory Cause - Senile psychosis. The Informant on her Ohio Death Certificate was listed as "Lawrence County Commitment Ironton, OH" and not a close relative. Her death certificate listed her place of birth as "Polkadotte, Lawrence Co., OH." However her parents were recorded as residents of Bartramville, Lawrence Co., OH, on the 1870 census (3 years before she was born). Her only child, William Garland Hamlin, died roughly 7 1/2 months after she did in Jul 1942. So perhaps he was ill and unable to serve at the Informant on his mother's Death Certificate. Her burial place, on her Ohio Death Certificate, was simply recorded as "Rome" and the Funeral Director listed on her death certificate was from Chesapeake, Lawrence Co., OH.

In 1868, my great grandfather, Lucetta's dad, was a young man in Reconstruction, North Carolina. So he did. After several years, his dad told him it was safe to come back but he had already established his life in Texas. Notes for William Montreval Chumney:

Killing of Capt. Chumney - (Article published in the Weimar Mercury, Jun 14, 1890) - Capt. W. M. Chumney left in the morning for a trip to his large plantation near town. Upon reaching there he went to the storehouse and remained several hours. Finally he instructed Mr Dobbins, the store clerk, to get his buggy ready, that he would return to town. While Mr D. was out in the yard Capt. Chumney placed a pistol in his mouth and pulled the trigger, the ball crashing through his brains and killing him almost instantly. Mr Dobbins, hearing the shot, rushed into the store, arriving there just as Mr Chumney breathed his last. No cause is known for the rash act. The deceased was one of the wealthiest citizens of Eagle Lake, and was well thought of. He was a member of the Knights of Honor lodge of that city. It is said that he had frequently threatened to kill himself before, but no one supposed he meant it.

The Civil War Service of William Montreval Chumney - (Chumley/Chumney Family Tree, Ancestry.com) - The 9th Virginia Volunteer Cavalry Regiment was a cavalry regiment raised in Virginia for service in the Confederate States Army during the American Civil War. It fought mostly with the Army of Northern Virginia. Virginia's 9th Cavalry Regiment was formed in Jan, 1862, using John E. Johnson's eight Company 1st Battalion, Virginia Cavalry ("Lee's Legion") as its nucleus. These companies and the two added were from the counties of Stafford, Caroline, Westmoreland, Lancaster, Essex, Spotsylvania, Lunenburg, King William, King George, and Richmond. The unit served in W.H.F. Lee's, Chambliss', and Beale's Brigade, Army of Northern Virginia. It fought in the Seven Days' Battles and the conflicts at Gainesville, Second Bull Run, Antietam, Fredericksburg, Dumfries, Rapidan Station, Brandy Station, Upperville, Hanover, Gettysburg, Williamsport, Funkstown, and Culpeper Court House. The 9th went on to fight at Bristoe, Mine Run, The Wilderness, and Todd's Tavern. Later it skirmished around Richmond and Petersburg, then was active in the Appomattox operations. This unit reported 32 casualties at Upperville, lost four percent of the 490 engaged at Gettysburg, and had 22 disabled at Williamsport. It surrendered 1 officer and 26 men. The field officers were Colonels Richard L. T. Beale, John E. Johnson, W.H.F. "Rooney" Lee, and Thomas Waller; Lieutenant Colonel Meriwether Lewis; and Major Samuel A. Swann. William M. Chumney enlisted in Jun 7, 1861 in Company G and he was detailed most of the time on quarter master duty or as a scout. Cause of death: Suicide

They were married Jan 12, 1888. He received his early education in Shreveport. When he was about 10 years old he moved to Los Angeles, CA, where older sister, Dorothy, and brother, Attlee had moved. He resided in Los Angeles until his death. He continued his education by attending the public schools in Los Angeles. May 20th, 1925, he married Nora Euniece Lewis. They had 3 children. My mother is one of them. Their names are Cornelia "Corey" Euniece, Thomas Henry and Norida Louise, AKA Chickee, my mother. There also was a son between Cornelia and Tom, but he died when he was born. My mother had a twin sister, but she died shortly after birth. G'pa and G'ma were married 54 years but Jun 14, 1979, G'pa died. He had just returned home from a camping trip. At 5:13 pm G'pa and my brother, Edward, went outside to cut the grass. They went to the garage where the lawnmower was. G'pa lifted the heavy gas lawnmower by himself and carried it a short distance and then put it down outside the garage. At around 5:30, my brother was still mowing the grass when he turned around and saw G'pa lying on the ground. He put G'pa head on his lap and told his friend to go get our G'ma. They called the paramedics. An ambulance came and they put G'pa on a stretcher. They transported him to Martin Luther King Hospital in Los Angeles. He died of a massive heart attack when I was 8 years old. His meaningful and full life on earth came to an end rather suddenly, and he went to his heavenly rest. In the 1930's he and G'ma owned and operated the Lear's Louisiana Kitchen on Central Ave, near the Dunbar Hotel in Los Angeles. He worked at Tail o' the Cock on La Cienega in Los Angeles for many years. And he was the Maitre'd at the Marineland Restaurant in Palo Verde, CA until he retired in 1957. He enjoyed good health, and he and his family were active, doing many things together, especially traveling that made the latter years some of the most happy and fruitful years of his life. He enjoyed his grandchildren and he spent time with them. He has 11 grandchildren. Now, numerous great-grandchild. He enjoyed camping, hunting, fishing, traveling and partying. He owned a boat, motor home and paid cash for everything, because he didn't want to owe anybody. He was the first one to buy a television set when they first came out in the late 1940's. He was extremely outgoing, and had a great strong personality. He was a people person. But G'ma and him are back together again. We love and miss you tremendously G'pa. He was 73 years old when he passed. He is buried with his mother, Martha Hamlin Lear.

One old friend, college director of publicity Milton Rogerson, remembered him as "a soft touch for a student in need. Anytime a student had a financial problem, he would manage to scrape up some money for them," Rogerson said. Hamlin left Wilson in 1978 to live with his son in Missouri. In a 1984 interview, Hamlin said, "When I first came to AC College, there were 127 students. Now it has grown to about 1,500. I know it will keep growing, but I would like to see it stay a small college." During that 1984 visit to Wilson, Hamlin attended services at Frist Christian Church, where, he said he "recognized many friends and old students. Many of them are a little fatter." A native of Burkeville, VA, Hamlin received his bachelor's degree from The College of William and Mary, his master's degree from the University of Virginia, and his doctorate from George Peabody College for Teachers. She studied music at Schmidt Conservatory of Music in Farmville, VA. She taught for awhile in Lucketts and Danville, VA. After her marriage, she continued to teach piano privately. She also served as pianist for the Sunday meetings of the Christadelphians who assembled in the Hamlin home. She and her husband lived in a house on the 100 acres given to Mary Bell by her father. Since their house was located about 120 yards from her parent's residence, she assumed much of the responsibility for their health and care during their late years. Since there were no telephones in the community, scarcely a day passed without her making a short or longer visit with her parents in an effort to meet their needs. Also, her father's three surviving sisters lived less than 50 yards away, and Mary Bell gave them much attention in their last years. Like others in the family, she was sensitive to the needs of others.

Richard Francis⁸ Hamlin (Peter Stainback⁷, Thomas⁶ I, Charles⁵ II, Charles⁴ I, John³ II, Capt John S², Stephen¹ Hamlyn I) was born on 15 Nov 1834 in Rockingham County, North Carolina, USA. He died on 27 May 1895 in Murray, Calloway County, Kentucky, USA. He married Laura Juliet Boggs, daughter of Robert Ewast Boggs and Juliet Kelly, on 28 Jun 1860 in Calloway County, Kentucky, USA. She was born on 25 Apr 1846 in Kentucky, USA. She died on 28 Sep 1886 in Murray, Calloway County, Kentucky, USA.

Notes for Richard Francis Hamlin:

By Gary Allen:

Richard F. Hamlin of Calloway County, was born in Rockingham County, NC, Nov 15, 1835 [GA-1834], a son of Peter S. and Virginia A. (Micheaux) Hamlin, both of whom are yet living. The mother is a descendant of Abraham, Michaeux a Huguenot, whose wife, when a child, was shipped out of France as merchandise, in a hogshead, during the period of persecution of the Protestants in that country. The captain of the vessel, being friendly to the Huguenots, released her from confinement, and landed her safely in Holland, where she met and married Abraham Micheaux, who had preceded her as a refugee. The father of our subject is, a Virginian by birth, removed at an early date to North Carolina, where he was married. In 1839 he came to Calloway County, KY, when our subject was four years old. Richard F. worked on the farm and around his father's mill, and attended subscription schools until nineteen years of age, when, upon the proceeds of a small legacy derived from his grandfather, he attended school at Rockingham Court House (or Wentworth), NC Then by the financial aid of his aunt was enabled to attend Chapel Hill University in North Carolina, and graduated in 1859. His career as a student is exemplary, holding the position of class orator, associate editor of the college paper, president of the literary society, and always a perfect grade in department. During his last year in college he took a course of law in connection with his other studies. After leaving school he went to Todd County, KY, where he was first tutor in a wealthy family at a liberal salary, then took under his instruction the children of several other families of the vicinity. During the fore part of the late war he was Union in sentiment, but was influenced by relations and friends to enter the Confederate service. He joined Company H, Third Kentucky Infantry, participating in the battle of Shiloh, and the numerous other engagements of the Southwest. In said command he staid until close of the war. Returning to Calloway County he worked in his father's mill, and taught school, was then president of a college in Ballard County two years. Then came to Murray, having previously invested in a stock of groceries, and continued in the same line nine months. He afterward taught school, and in 1882 was elected county clerk. Mr Hamlin was married Jun 28, 1868, to Miss Laura Boggs. The union has given four children: Roberta, Virginia, Juliet K. and Richard F. Mr and Mrs Hamlin are members of the Christian Church. He also is a Mason and member of the Knights of Honor. An excerpt from a letter from Richard's uncle, Francis Mallory Hamlin: Cousin Dick was known at Chapel Hill as "Big Kentuck" by his pals. He had a fighting scrape and of course sprauled his man and beat him rather badly and was fined heavily by the court, and my father, Thomas Hamlin paid the fine. We knew nothing of it at home, but this is what I want and am glad to tell you. After the war my mother received a letter from Cousin Dick saying, "Dear Aunt Martha, I am enclosing 3 08 Aug 2012 herewith my check for two hundred and fifty dollars $250.00. Uncle Tom so kindly paid out for me when in trouble at school to protect me and not to trouble my father, all of which I greatly appreciate, and not knowing how the war left you and your family, I am glad to send it to you." Now here is the wonder part of it, I brought the letter to Ma. from Leaksville and some mail with a tax bill for nearly that amount. Ma. often said "Son I have often told you "that the Lord would provide" if you trust him, so here he has provided me with money to pay that tax bill, and I do not see how could have saved the land without it.

Notes for Sarah Virginia Lucy Braswell:

By Gary Allen:

William Thomas left Sallie when the children were very small. She later (35 years) married William's brother, James Parker (27) who helped her rear the two children. (Mrs Laura Brown Raney Tucker). Around 1928, Sally (Braswell) Parker made a trip from her home in Texas to New Concord, KY. She purchased small markers to be placed at the graves of her mother and some of her siblings in the New Concord Cemetery. She was familiar with the burial area and enlisted the help of John O. Braswell and his school friend to probe the ground with sharpened poles and shovels to locate soft spots and outline the actual grave sites. She then had the boys place the markers correctly. John, then about 14 years old, told me that it was a strange experience. Family oral history: Sally made at least one trip, perhaps the above one, to and from Texas to Kentucky alone in a covered wagon. This was quite unusual in the days of trains and some automobiles. It must have taken several weeks. Perhaps she brought the grave markers with her from Texas in which case she might have needed a wagon. We know from other stories that Sally was an unusual lady! also have birth location of Henry Co., TN. Jim and William Parker were brothers. I have a letter (copy) from Sarah. She signed it SALLY.

C. S. Hamlin, merchant of Pine Bluff, died last Thu of paralysis while transacting business in Paducah about the 18th of Dec. Later pneumonia developed and he only survived this added affliction a few days. Mr. Hamlin was, without doubt, one of the most widely known men of the county. He had been engaged in the mercantile business at Pine Bluff for about forty years, active in politics and closely allied with all public questions. He was about 65 years of age and a native of Calloway County. His parents were Peter and Virginia Hamlin, and he was the youngest child of these pioneer citizens. He was a brother of Judge Hamlin, also deceased. He is survived by four children, R. Macon [sic] Hamlin, Mrs. Flora McCuiston, Mrs. Gertrude Thurman and a three year old son by a divorced wife. Eliza Bignall⁸ Baker (Martha P. J.⁷ Hamlin, Wood Jones⁶ Hamlin, John⁵ Hamlin, Charles⁴ Hamlin I, John³ Hamlin II, Capt John S² Hamlin, Stephen¹ Hamlyn I) was born on 06 May 1831 in Warren County, North Carolina, USA. She died in Jan 1861 in Warren County, North Carolina, USA. She married Joseph John Egerton, son of Gilbert Gray Egerton and Margaret Ann Thomas, on 18 Jan 1851 in Warren County, North Carolina, USA. He was born on 27 Jul 1823 in Macon, Warren County, North Carolina, USA. He died on 24 Jan 1904 in Oxford, Granville County, North Carolina, USA.

Notes for Joseph John Egerton:

Joseph J. Egerton was born Jul 27th, 1824 and died Jan 24th, 1904. He was first married to Miss Eliza Baker, who only lived a few years, dying in 1860 leaving him with three small children. In the year 1865 he married Miss Virginia Landis, of Oxford, NC, who with seven children, twenty-five grandchildren, three great grandchildren and many friends and loved ones mourn his departure. Bro. Egerton joined the M.E. Church, South nearly 60 years ago and lived a faithful member till 2 o'clock last Sunday morning, when God sent for him. He loved the church and all of her interests, and never forgot the vow he made at her altar more than 50 years ago. He attended every protracted meeting at Shady Grove for ever half a century except the years that he was home from in the civil war. He was in many battles of that war and saw his comrades fall all around him, but did not receive a scar. Bro. Egerton had been a remarkably healthy man up to last summer his health began to fail and he has not seen a well day since. The last few days of his life, his sufferings were very great, but he bore them with great patience and christian fortitude. He left the assurance of his readiness to meet his God in peace. We feel sure that for him to die was gain. He was a kind neighbor, devoted husband and father. May the God whom he loved and served so long, deal tenderly with his loved ones, and bring them all to a happy reunion in the beautiful home of the good. His funeral was conducted by the writer at the home of his son, and then all that was mortal of Joseph J. Egerton was laid to rest in the family cemetery near by the sacred spot where once stood the dear old home!

Memphis Daily Appeal (Memphis, Tennessee) - Thu, Sep 9, 1871

Your paper has announced the death of Mrs. M.O. McGehee, wife of Colonel E.F. McGehee, and daughter of General B.W. Williamson, permit an old friend of hers to publish a tribute to her memory.

Whatever is lovely and worthy of high esteem, and all that the true spirit of Christianity gives to humanity, were so exemplified in the life of Mrs. McGehee, that something more than a mere announcement of her death should be written of her. Twenty years ago or more, when the writer of this tribute to her virtues first saw her, she was a marvel of beauty, in person and character; and so she was always. From girlhood, and through life and in death, she was fervent in Christian piety--always endeavoring to do good and to render others good and happy. For many years, passing through all of the vicissitudes of life, in bright happiness and in dark grief, she gave a noble example of true, brave, cheerful piety, of perfect amiability and charity, and a charming uniformity of temper and gracefulness of manners. Beautiful, wealthy, witty, vivacious, and during the most of her life happy, and causing all around her to have her genial mirth and sprightliness. I believe she never spoke a harsh word, nor was guilty of a rude action, and rarely, if ever, by word or deed, wounded the feelings of even the meanest of those around her. No slander nor mean tattling was ever uttered by her. Her mother, her sister and her brothers, have all gone before her into the glorious life eternal; and she, who was a few days since, radiant in earthly beauty and happiness, has joined them, where all is eternal beauty and happiness. Mrs. McGehee died as she had lived--a brave, true, cheerful Christian--perfectly resigned, and with confident hope. Without fear of repining, she heard the voice of our Heavenly Father, and went from mortal to immortal life.

Notes for William Elmer Gerard:

William E. Gerard, the affable proprietor of the livery and feed stables at Pierceton, Kosciusko County, Indiana, is a son of Isaac and Louisa (Kirkpatrick) Gerard, born in Plain Twp, Kosciusko County, Indiana. Jul 7, 1864. He enjoyed the advantages of our present excellent common-school system in his native Twp and that of Tippecanoe Twp. Laying aside his text-books at the age of seventeen he began his struggle for self-maintenance and future prosperity as a railroader, working for the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago railway, with which he remained for three years. He then turned his attention to farming, but disposed of his farming interests and went to Fort Wayne, where he entered the service of the traction company as conductor and driver. When the old system of power was superseded by the electric system, Mr Gerard had charge of and was conductor of the first car run over the road. He remained with the company for two years, and then accepted a position with the Centliver Brewing Company of Fort Wayne, remaining with it for one year and a half. Returning to Kosciusko County, he again engaged in farming, locating in Tippecanoe Twp, which he followed for six years. He then moved to Marshall County and in 1901 moved to Pierceton and purchased a half interest in the livery business conducted by his cousin, Cary Gerard. Believing that the business could be better conducted alone, he purchased his cousin's interest and is now sole proprietor. He has seven head of good horses, two sample wagons, and other vehicles necessary for a complete livery and in sufficient quantity to meet the requirements of business, and, being centrally located, is quite prosperous. Jan 11, 1885, Mr Gerard led to the hymeneal altar Miss Elizabeth Coons, a daughter of Moses and Sarah (Hamlin) Coons. They are now the parents of three interesting children: Clara, Lora and Olia, all at home. Mrs Gerard was born at Etna Green, this comity, Mar 4, 1867, and was there educated in the public schools.
